First Baptist To Present Candlelight Christmas Concert

The adult and youth choirs of the Warsaw First Baptist Church will present a Candlelight Christmas Concert at the Church at eight o'clock on Sunday evening, December 22.

The program will not be the usual carols which is annually presented. It will be a presentation of anthems—some unusual and new, others the old and familiar. It promises to be in keeping with the true Christmas spirit.

Soloist for the adult choir will be Mrs. Blount Modlin. Mrs. Mett Ausley is choir director, and Mrs. Paul Potter is organist. Miss Jo Carol Jones will be soloist for the youth choir. Mrs. Charles Hinson is director, and Wade Carlton, Jr. is pianist.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Money Stolen

Mrs. Al Smith, Neighborhood Chairman of the Warsaw Girl Scouts, has announced that $60 has been stolen from the Girl Scouts. The money was left during the weekend in a desk at the Fire Hut where the girls meet. Upon checking Monday night, leaders found that the money was missing. This money came from the girls having sold Girl Scout Calendars. The girls will have to send part of this money to Girl Scouts of America. If anyone has any information about this money, they are urged to contact Mrs. Smith or any of the Girl Scout leaders.
