Records On Sale

Mr. Charles Newman of 212, Pink Hill has announced that his records, "My Savior and Me" and "I'd Follow in The Footsteps of My Lord" are now on sale at local record shops. They are also available at local Drug and music shops.

Newman has written several numbers that are proving hits and his latest record is now being heard on radio stations, WJIS, Mount Olive; WFTC, Kinston; WISP, Kinston and WBBZ, Selma.

Fred Bally, producer of Frontier Records from Memphis, Tenn. has signed Newman under contract for one year. He has published six songs from which he will soon be drawing royalties.

A little stroke, like a little learning, can be a dangerous thing, the North Carolina Heart Association warns. Symptoms of a little stroke (such as numbness or weakness of one side of the face, or arm, or leg; temporary loss or blurring of vision; difficulty or slurring of speech) should be reported to a physician immediately. Prompt medical attention may forestall a more serious stroke.

The Register was kept by Mesdames Louise K. Boney and Mary C. Southerland. Approximately 50 floated through the prettily decorated Lodge building, which carried out the Christmas Motif most effectively. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Whitman and Mrs. Ella L. Gooding and Ruby G. Newton.
