leulaville Eats Beauty Salon

Miss Brenda Sanderson, a Seulaville narive, who in 1968 was socialized World Champion Student Hair Styliat, has recess of opening a Beauty Salon in Beulaville.

The title was won at the International Beauty Show held in New York City where Brendar competed against students from England, Germany, Canada, France, Italy, Spain and Japan. Brenda's shop will be located in the building formerly occupited by the late Dr. Bolin. Formal aparlias is now acheculed for March 30.

NFO Meeting

The Duplin County Unit of National Farmers Organization will meet in the County Agri-cultural Building in Kenansville at 7:30 P.M. Tuesday April 1. All interested persons are urged to attend.

Attention

All men between the ages of 18 and 50 years, interested in learning the Carpentry trade

Pre - Enster Service

vill be held at Harper land Presbyterian Church Sun-day, March 30. Rev. James W. Brown of schooville will be guest sp-

A Barbecue dinner will be erved at the church following Everyone is invited to attend,

Panther Club

East Duplin Panthers Chub is aving a remaich at 7 p. m. riday March 28 at the East Ouplin Gymnasium. Proceeds rill go to the Panthers Club-Your attendance is urged as be club needs your support.

Palm Sunday

Services

A special Palm Sunday Service will be held at Grove Presbytarian Church, Sunday March 30th, The public is invited to join in this service of Christian warship. The time will be 11

The Duplin County Grand Jury has made their yearly inspection of the schools in the county and have given a detailed report of their findings and recommendations to Charles fellow a magnificant job of containing the firs to only 1 room with the remainder of the house satisfaction no fire or water demand.

The Duplin County Grand Jury has made their yearly inspection of the schools in the county and have given a detailed report of their findings and recommendations to Charles fellows.

A special meeting of the school satisfaction of Schools.

A special meeting of the school satisfaction of Schools.

A special meeting of the school satisfaction of Schools.

A special meeting of the school satisfaction of their findings and recommendations to Charles fellows.

A special meeting of the school satisfaction of their findings and recommendations to Charles fellows.

A special meeting of the school satisfaction of the school satisfac

Interest conducted ity High Schools.

Interest conducted ity High Schools.

In Members of the winning No. 1 the Members of the winning No. 2 the North Norman Lewis, Eddie William won first place.

Douglas Best, and Gerald Bell was also the bighest in the North Norman Lewis and Gerald Bell was also the bighest in the North Norman Lewis and Gerald Bell was also the bighest in the North Norman Lewis and Gerald Bell was also the bighest in the North Norman Lewis and Gerald Bell was also the bighest in the North Norman Lewis and Gerald Bell was also the bighest in the North Norman Lewis and Chambers of the Winning Norman Lewis and Chambers of the Winni

James Kenan's land judging team left to right are David Lewis, Bill Casteen and Gene Brown, with instructor Zinnie Quinn. These boys won second prize at the federation level Wednesday afternoon. Absent was Joe Rackley. (Photo by Ruth Wells)

To provide janitor and maid service in quantity and quality to maintain the schools;

retarial salaries in order to

Kidnap Feared

To consider increase in sec- each school;

ncipals from details, county;

ounty resumed the lawn Wednesday mor-ackie Stone of Wall-is balleved to have obtain computant and qualified correct unsanitary conditions in e personnel in order to school bathroom throughout the w them to perform as To correct certain hazardous educational supervis- conditions in and around represent Duplin FFA in the State Contest to be held in April

are David Lewis, Joe Rackley, Gene Brown and Bill Casteen. Zinnie Quinn is Vo Ag Instruc-

Avm Simpson is Ve Ag In-structor for the East Duplin Team composed of Mike Sholar, Warren Sloan, Gilmer Swinson

Warren Sloan, Gilmer Swinson and Stewart Brown.

Cash awards were presented to the winners this year for the first time. First place winner received $15., second place $10. and third place $5. These awards were made possible by the Duplin County Soil Conservation Service and were presented by Ellis V. Yestal, a county supervisor.

Judges for the event were Leslie Barnhill and Kenneth Futrell of the Soil Conservation Service in Wayne and Du-plin Counties, respectively.

Soil is vitally important to all life, Land judging develops a better understanding of the physical characteristics of the soil, determing its use capabil-ities. An understanding of this necessary for good manage-ent and stewardship of the

The purpose is threefold: to recognize and evaluate physi-cal characteristics; to detersoil and water management to preserve soil; and to maintain soil in profitable pro-duction under most intensive

To evaluate procedure for distribution of supplies and the quality of supplies needed in

To make special effort to schools throughout the county.

N C State Nurses

The April meeting of the North Carolina State Nurses' Association will be held at Duplin General Hospital on April 1, 1969 at 7:30. Mrs. Brenda Stroud will be in charge of the program representing the General Duty Section. Hos-tesses are Patricia Norris, Brenda Stroud and Leona Williford.

Guest for the program will be Mrs. Mary Frances Page Morphis. Mrs. Morphis is a native of Wilmington, attended Mother School of Nursing in New Orleans, La.; received her B. A. degree from Georgetown College in Georgetown, Ken- and a seventh grade student at tucky. She was a school nurse Beulaville Elementary School. at Georgetown College and Car- He is a member of the Presbyver School in Louisville, Ky., terian Church, where he is ac-Missionary Nurse in Eku (Nigeria) Baptist Hospital. She was employed as Missionary associate in 1963 and evange-list in Russelsheim Main, Ger-

Mrs. Morphis is married to the Rev. Luther Morphis and they have two children. They are presently on furlough from Germany and are making their home in Winston-Salem. Prior

Danny Pate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Pate, Sr. has been appointed to serve as a Page during the week of March 24 to the House of Representatives of the 1969 General Assembly.

tive in the Youth Fellowship. Danny is a Boy Scout, membe to going to Germany, Rev. Morphis was pastor of th Baptist ression of the country from the standpoint of one who is a registered nurse, a wife, a mother and a missionary.

Pate To Serve As Page In State House

Danny is twelve years old, of troop 47. He holds the rank of first class scout, and serves as a senior Patrol leader. He recently was a recipient of the God and Country Award. Dan-ny is the first to serve as a

Danny is the grandson of Mrs. Phoebe Pate of Beulaville and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bunkly. Sr. of Teachev.

Magnolia Bapt

Revival Services began at the Magnolia Baptist Church Mon-She will show slides of Germany and talk about her imp ression of the country for the countr day, March 24 and will continue

The Rev. Tommy Deese, a native of Monroe, who is presently serving as pastor of the Poston Baptist Church of Wallace, is the guest minister.

Among the churches Mr. Deese has served are: The West Concord Baptist Church of Concord, the Piedmont and Green Hill Churches of Rutherfordton, and the Calvin Heights Church of Morganton.

Mr. Deese has served the N.C. Baptist State Convention Page from the town of Beulaas an approved worker in the Church and Community Development Program.

These services are being held in cooperation with the Crusade of the Americas.

Th Annual Meeting of Dis-trict Nine, North Carolina Divi-sion United Daughters of the Confederacy, was held at ten o'clock on Saturday morning, March 22, 1969 in the First Bap-March 22, 1969 in the First Baptist Church, Warsaw with the James Kenan Chapter as hostess. Mrs. Paul Potter served as organist; Evan Council, Bryan Dees, and Michael Young Taylor advanced the colors; Mrs. Ray E. Koonce, Jr., District Director of Jacksonville, called the meeting to order; and the Rev. Charles Hinson paster of First Baptist Church, gave the invocation.

Mrs. Henry L. Stevens, Jr., who is a past division president led the Memorial Service for deceased members; Miss Emma Bryan of Burgaw, Miss Salle Flowers and Mrs. Elizabeth Kornegay Taylor of Mount Olive; and Mrs. Charles T.

Olive; and Mrs. Charles T. Thrift of Warsaw.

The Pledge of Allegiance, Salute to the Flag of North Carolina, and Salute to the Confederate Flag were led by Mrs. N. B. Boney of Kenansville. The Ritual of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was led by the Director, Mrs. Koonce.

Mrs. Robert L. West, president of the hostess chapter, welcomed the Daughters to Warsaw, and Mrs. John D. Beatty of Elizabethtown, past division treasurer, responded to the welcome.

Eight of the nine chapters in the division were represented with Whiteville being the only chapter absent. Children repre-present. They were Jackson-ville, Elizabethtown, Carolina Beach, and Warsaw. Mrs. W. L. Barnes, Sr., pre-

Mrs. W. L. Barnes, Sr., president of the Cape Fear Chapter, recognized the special guests present. Mrs. W. Allie Moore, Jr., past Division 3rd Vice President, presented the Division President, Mrs. Ashley T. St. Amand who made the address of the day.

The District Director recognized the Real Daughters present and the new member present.

Mrs. Woodrow W. Blackburn, ender of the children of the Confederacy, of Warsaw introduced the pages. They were Mary Kay Thompson, Nancy Wilson, Rosemary Blackburn, Dawn Petres, Theresa Sheats, Mrs. Myrna Juna, Sylvia Tuck-er, Evan Council, and Michael Y. Taylor.

Lunch was served in the Fellowship Hall and was catered by Mrs. Rivers D. Johnson, Sr. Mrs. Kathleen P. Snyder of the James Kenan Chapter said

After lunch awards were pre-Banner was won by District Nine for having the Best Report at the State Convention. Remarks were made by Mrs. Marshall Haywood, Jr. A silver bud vase for the Best Chapter Report was given to Pender County Chapter at Burgaw and was presented by Mrs. Twiggs Randall, Mrs. Jim Herring, and Mrs. E. T. Batson, Jr. A Confederate Flag was presented by senting four chapters were Mrs. Charles B. Williams and tendance was presented by Mrs. Fred J. Baars and Mrs. N. B. Boney to the Bladen Stars Chapter at Elizabethtown for the best attendance. This bowl is given by the local chapter in honor of Mrs. Mildred Beasley Stevens. The total attendance for the meeting was 72.

Left to right: Mrs. Glenn M. Tucker, Historian, N.C.U.D.C., of Wilmington; Mrs. A.T. St. Amand, President, NCUDC, of Wilmington; Mrs. W. Alton Batts, Recording Secretary, NCUDC, of Wilson; Mrs. Ray E. Koonce, Jr., Director of District 9, of Jacksonville; and, Mrs. Wilbur P. Adams, Recording Secretary of District Nine, of Carolina Beach.

Mrs. Wilbur R. Adams, Mrs. Walter L. Burnett, and Mrs. J. S. Humphrey of the Nominating Committee reported. The new

Mrs. W. Eddie Bryan to the district officers were presented. Cape Fear Chapter of Wilming- They are: District Director. ton for the most new members. Mrs. L. R. Cain of Whiteville; ver bowl for the best at- Co-Director, Mrs. Cobbin Elizabethtown; and District Secretary, Mrs. Wilbur Adams of Carolina Beach.

Mrs. George R. Rogers, Jr., Mrs. T. J. Morris, and Mrs. Gardner Edwards gave the invitation for the district meeting to be held in Whiteville next year. Mrs. Melvin Parker of the Courtesy Committee accepted. The Benediction was said by Mrs. Kathleen Snyder of Warsaw.

Traffic Fatalities

the past weekend. The number ditch. now stands at nine, with only three months of the year gone.

Investigation is continuing in-to the death of Mrs. Flonnie Norris King. Rt. 2 Wallace who was killed about 7:30 Friday night at she attempted to walk across Highway II, from ber home to Poston Church. Mrs. King died about two hours later at Duplin General Hospital in Kenansville.

Driver of the death car was Dean Rivenbark, 16, also of Rt. 2 Wallace, according to investi-gating officer Trooper R. N.

Johnson,
An inquest into Mrs. King's death has been scheduled by Coroner Herman Quinn for 7:30 p. m. Wednesday March 26 at the Courthroom in Kenansville. The second fatality was a one-car wreck which claimed the life of David Grantham, 44, negro male of Mount Olive. The accident occured about 7:30 Thursday night March 20. Traveling east on Rural Paveline death are Curtis Register, Store and Mount Gilard Church at about 8:00 p. m., continue to soar with two fata- an oak tree. Grantham's body ities, one a pedestrian, over came to rest in the highway

> The car was cut into by the impact and the front bumper was reportedly resting on the remains of the back seat. Trooper R. G. Crocker investigated the wreck which he attributed to excessive speed. Coroner Quinn said practically every bone in Grantham's body was crushed by the impact.

Yarn Shop Opens

Patsy's Yarn Shop, a long awaited event has become a reality in Magnolia. For the first time in many years if ever) there is a complete stock of yarn and re-lated knitting supplies avail-able in this area.

able in this area.

Mrs. Pope now has a complete stock of Brunswick yarn and plans to add other brand names soon. She also has a full line of knitting accessories including needles, both straight and circular, knitting baskets, stitch holders and many other

be found in an add ins vationist with the Orange Work Unit at Hillsborough. Holland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otha L. Holland of

Holland Employed By USDA

Edward L. Holland

State Conservationist, Charles W. Bartlett of Raleigh, announced Monday that three employes began new assign-ments with the Soil Conservation Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture. One of the new employees is a Duplin County

Edward L. Holland of Warsaw began work as a soil conser-

Warsaw. He is a graduate of James Kenan High School and received a B.S. degree in zoology from N.C. State University in 1965. He was on active military duty from 1966 to 1968 and since that time he has been engaged in farming with his father, Rt. 2, Warsaw.

Attends Farmers Week

Marvin Johnson, of Nash Johnson and Son's Farms, Inc. has returned from Lansing, Michigan where he attended the "Farmers Week" program at the University of Michigan, observed each year.

Johnson was the guest speaker for "Turkey Day" observed during the week, He addressed the students and agreements. icultural faculty on the subje "Building A Turkey Industry—North Carolina Style" in which he recounted the growth of the industry in this state and the story of integration within the business and its advantages.

Much interest was shown by those present in the report of the N.C. methods and possi-bilities of their adaptation in Michigan,

The shop is located on front street in the building adjoining Popes Variety Store. More detailed information