sounded, Miller was apprehended near the Wallace Pool Hall and was held for drunken driving.

The Wallace Police Department was joined by the State Highway Patrol, the Duplin County Sheriff's Department and the Pender County Sheriff's Department as they began a search of a thrity-mile wooded area near Wallace.

Some 400 persons including officers and volunteer personnel resumed the search at dawn Wednesday. Helicopters from the nearby Marine Air Station, and planes from Wallace's Henderson Field joined in the search as did Rescue Units from many nearby towns. Before nightfall the National Guard had been called out and hundreds of school children and teachers were combing the area. The first real evidence was discovered when a dog in Dobson Chapel area delivered a purse to its owner, Mrs. Fonnie Carroll. The purse con-tained Jackie's identification and Carroll flagged down a passing State Trooper, R.N. Johnson who relayed the discovery. The immediate area was closed to traffic and in a short time the body was discovered in nearby Stocking Head

Miller, who had been questioned continuously since his arrest had conted any interpled go of the seent, open using informed of the discovery of the body he said, "Get Elwood Revelle down here and I will talk."

Sheriff Revelle said he spent more than an hour with Miller who admitted taking the girl
