ittee to Mest

A meeting of the Duplin Coun-y Democratic Executive Coe has been scheduled for 11 A.M. Monday, April 21st by Chairman Henry L. Stevens III. The committee will mee in the Law Library in the Courthouse for the purpose of fil-ling the vaccancy created by the resignation of one of the bers of the County Board

Henderson To Be Guest On "Carolina Today"

Congressman David N. Henderson will be a guest on the "Carolina Today" show on WNCT-TV, Greenville, North Carolina on Friday morning, April 11 at 8:00 A.M. Henderson has appeared on the popular show as a guest on a number of previous occasions. Mon - Public School Meeting

An important meeting to discuss the findings of the Steering Committee to investigate the possibility of a non-public school in Dunlin County will meet Monday evening, April 21, at #:30/P.M. at the Kenans-ville Courthouse,

Jumni To Moet

The annual Alumni Associa-on meeting of Mount Olive College will be held at the college on Saturday, April 12. Rev. Edward W. Miles of Goldsboro president, will preside at the meeting, and guest speaker will be Sam D. Bundy of Farmville, Mrs. Ruby M. Blackmore of Warsaw is a member at large of the Executive Committee of the college.

Revival

Revival Services at Alum Springs Baptist Church April 7-13 at 7:30 P.M. The Rev. M.A. Conrad, pastor of Calvary Bap-tist Church of Warsaw is the Evangelist.

Revival Services

Revival services will be held at Jones Chapel Baptist Church the week of April 14-19.

Services will be at 7:30 each evening. Rev. Eugene Wager will be the visiting minister.

Dr. Dallas Herring Re-Appointed

Gov. Bob Scott has re-appointed Dr. W. Dallas Herring Chairman of the North Carolina

The Rose Hill native was first appointed to the board in 1856 by Gov. Luther Hodges. He was named chalrman two years later and has held that post under Governors Hodges, Sanford and Marors.

ord and Moore.

Dr. Herring, who has earned state and national honors in the field of educational improvements, was one of the chief advocates of community college system and the industrial education centers.

He has served as mayor of Rose Hill and as a member of the Duplin County School Board.
In 1861 he launched a drive for better schools that resulted in consolidating the county's

County Chairman

Duplin County is most for-timate in having Craven B-ewer of Warnaw, County Cancer Crusade Chairman for 1969.

Captain James F. Langston of Warsaw receives the Bronze Star For Meritorius service in Vietnam between December 1967 and August 1968. The award was made by Major Roxie R. Hart, Commandant of the Third US Army Drill Sergeant School, Fort Jackson, S.C. At a separate ceremony Major Hart presented Captain Langston with the Air Medal for his devotion to dury and distinguished service in action sustained during flights in support of the ground forces in Vietnam from December 1967 to March 30, 1968. His wife Erika, and children, Jimmy and Karen look on. (U.S. Army Photograph)

Captain James F. Langston, Commanding Officer, Headqua-rters Company, Third Army Drill Sergeant School, Fort Ja-ckson, S.C. has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for merant of the Third US Army Dr-ill Sergeant School, Fort Jack-son who also presented Captain Langston with The Air Medal for his devotion to duty and distinguished service in action sustained during flights in sup-port of ground forces in Viet-

Captain Langston, formerly of Rt. 2, Warsaw, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lang-ston, He attended James Kenan High School and joined the North Carolina National Guard in 1959 in Warsaw. He attended basic and advanced infantry training at Fort Jackson, S.C. returning home after a year with the in June 1960, he joined the regular army and trained at Fox Julison and Fort Bragg. In 1961 he was assigned to the 24th infantry Division in Augsburg, Germany.

While serving in Germany he met and married his wife, the former Frike Kross of Washen former Erika Krous of Waalhaopten, Germany. They have two children, Jimmy and Ka-

Upon returning to the states in 1964 he was assigned to Fort Jackson and attended the Third Army Drill Sgt. School and served as a Drill Sgt.

Upon completion of Officers andidate School, Ft. Benning Ga., Langston was assigned an instructor in the infantry School in Fort Benning. He trained for jungle warfare in Panama, enroute to an assigns or as a Platon Leader ist Division in Augus, 1967. During that year he served as During that year he served as Company Executive Officer.

Captain Langaton returned to the states in August 1968 to the home of his parents for a thirty day leave after which he irty day leave after which he was assigned to his present position, Mrs. Langston, Jimmy and Karen are residing at present with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Langston.

Guest speaker, Missionary to Germany, with officers of District #27 Nurses' Association: L-R. Mrs. Mae Griffin, President, Mrs. Mary Frances Morphis, guest speaker, Mrs. Rebecca Judge, Secretary, and Miss Mary Hester Powell, Vice President, and Program chairman. (Photo by Ruth Wells)

District #27 of the North Carolina State Nurses' Association met at Duplin General Hospital, Kenansville, on Tuesday, April I, with 19 members and one guest present, Following a brief business session, Mary Hester Powell, actions and Mary Hester Powell, actions and Mary Hester Powell actions are served by hostesses, Patricia Norris, Annile Catherine Rhodes, Brenda Mary Hester Powell actions and Mary guage barrier, has not worked world war II left in West Geras a nurse in Germany. She many. They have a lot of snow told of some of their experlences with medical care when their children were sick, and the "Wall", dividing East and gave the honression that medi-

Tuesday, April I, with IB members and one guest present. Following a brief business session, Mary Hester Powell, acting Program Chairman, introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Mary Frances Morphis, Mrs. Morphis, who's husband is pastor of an English Language Mission in Berlin, German, and is home on furlow, is a native of Wilmington. Mr. Morphis was formerly pastor fo a Baptist Church in Burgaw.

Mrs. Morphis is a registered murse, but due to the language harrier, has not worked.

and answers, most delicious refreshments were served by hostesses, Patricia Norris, Annie Catherine Rhodes, Brenda Stroud and Leona Williford.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, May 6 at Pender Memorial Hospital, Burgaw, Program chairman, Middred LaCoe announced that Miss Frances Sellars of the State Board of Health will be the speaker.

Attends Law Officer's School

Sheriff T. Elwood Revelle

Miss Adaline T. Ryan, con-sumer consultant of the textile fibers department at E.I., DuPont De NeMours at Wilmington, Delaware, will be the featured speaker at the Southeastern District Meeting of North Carolina Extension Homemakers Association, This announcement was made by Mrs. Mae Spicer, Home Extension agent, Duplin County. The event will be held from 10:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m., April 17th, In Kenan Auditorium at Ken-ansville, North Carolina, Miss Ryan's topic will be "Highlights in Apparel and Home Furnishing Fabrics of DuPont Fibers and Their Care."

Prior to becoming a consum-er consultant in 1955, Miss Ryan was on the staff of Du-Pont's Atlantic City Exhibit and where for a four year period she developed the ability to dis-

Garris Fund

A fund has been established for the benefit of Paul H. ("Pete") Garris, young Rose Hill man who was critically burned while on active duty with the National Guard Unit of Wallace to which he belonged. His Na-tional Guard Unit has announced that both the Branch Banking and Trust Company of Wallace and the Waccamaw Bank and Trust Company of Rose Hill-are receiving helpful gifts of money and those wishing to con-tribute may do so at either bank in the name of "The le-te Garris Fund."

The Wallace Unit of the National Guard has already received individual donations from its members for the fund,

In addition, the guardsmen last week, sponsored a benefit dance for the fund and the Wallace Armory was used for the occasion, "The Rebels", local Wallace band, gave their talents by playing, without fee, for the dance. Other affairs will be planned, and personal contributions at the two banks mentioned above will be appre-

As a result of this effort, Pete Garris' father has been able to fly to Texas to be with him for a visit, a fact that the attending Physician has said has been of much benefit to the morale of the young man.

Commissioner

Duplin County Commissioners, in their regular first Monday meeting, endorsed a bill introduced in the General Assembly by Representative Hugh Johnson to clarify the small water shed law enacted in 1967 with respect to project maintenance in Duplin County.

They also endorsed legislation introduced in the general assembly to increase from seven to nine, the number of magistrates serving the county.

The resignation of Mrs. Eudell Garner, public Health Nurse, was submitted.

J.B. Wallace reported attending a meeting in New Bern for Tax Supervisors. He also reported that the Board of Eq-ualization and Revue had reported favorable on revaluation throughout the county, to be effective for 1970 taxation. He presented the county with a check for $1,106,40 from the state, which represents 20¢ per farm paid by the state for each report of farm census reported along with tax listing in the Tax collections for the month of March were $49,494,15, according to John A. Johnson, County Tax Unilector, This is approximately $39,000 over collections for March of last assistance was rendered to language of the household. A native of Landsdowne, Pennsylvania, Miss Ryan attended Brandywine College, Her off-ice is located in Wilmington, Delaware, near DuPont's Textile Research Laboratory at Chestnut Run,

A good part of her job is spent just in keeping abreast of new fibers. In a company like DuPont, this involves nine different fibers, the newest of which "Qiana" nylon was introduced in 1968. In any one day she must know how to tap expert advice on a range of subjects-proper care, where to buy, proper garment construc-tion, home sewing, the proper fiber for the job, fiber com-parisons, and how fibers are made. In a typical year she handles over 15,000 inquiries, mostly by phone and by letter, although her job frequently inpearances, exhibits and clinics. Mrs. Paul L. Fletcher of Lenoir County is president of the Southeastern District Extension Homemakers Association and will preside at this meeting, the first of the district.

Mrs. Thetis Gerald of Robeson County will offer the devotional. Dr. Eloise S. Cofer, Assistant Director, Home Economics, Agricultural Extension Service, North Carolina State University, will bring greetings. Introducing the speaker will be District Clothing Chairman, Mrs. Melvin Mrs. Rom Mallard, Second Vice recognize guests. Following a box luncheon, Mrs. J.W. Rose of Wayne County will entertain

Roll call by counties will be made by Mrs. I.W. West, District Treasurer of Columbus County, Mrs. I.M. Huggins of Cumberland County is First Vice Chairman and will present the district report.

Mrs. Cecil Eakins of Pender County, Recording Secretary, will recognize leaders and delegates who have represented the district in special conferences and activities. New district officers will be introduced by Mrs. Fred Foyles, past District Chairman from Pender County.

The meeting is open to all homemakers of the seventeen Whitfield of Lenoir County. counties of the Southeastern District and other interested per-President of Jones County, will sons. All who are planning to attend should register with the Extension Home Economics of Wayne County will entertain Agent in their county-before with special musical selections the deadline date of April 11th.

Some roads in North Carolina are designated Toll Roads by the State Highway Commission. Some other roads just seem to have a way of "taking toll." Such is the case with N.C. Highway Il through Kenansville where David Allen Sandlin of Beulaville has just lost the largest protion of a load of sweet po-tato "slips." Enroute home from a curing house with potatoes owned jointly with his uncle, R.G. Quinn of Kenansville, David Allen jokingly said his half was still on the truck. The weight of the potatoes apparently shifted as the vehicle rounded the of the courthouse breaking the rope securing the load. (Photo by Ruth Wells)

Hobbs Speaks

Miss Sara Ann Hobbs, Executive Secretary, North Carolina Womans Missionary Union Board, will be featured speaker at the 60th annual session of the WMU Easter Baptist Association at Rowan Baptist Church, Clinton, on Thursday, April 10.

Theme for the session will be "Every Christian a Witness-

Presiding at the session will be Mrs. H.O. Lanning of Cl-

Respect No Parking Signs

Mayor Earl Hatcher saidthat following the town board meet-ing Monday night that a crack-down is in the making on offenders of the "no parking" restrictions recently designat ed in Kenansville.

Signs indicating NO PARK-ING at the intersection of Hill Street and North Main Street, (Highway II) at Bowdens Gro-cery. The corner parking by big trucks unloading as well as store customers have created a traffic hazzard there for quite some time. Fortunatel thus far, wrecks there have been minor. Your cooperati gns and probably will sa life and or property dail A firmer stand was also en by the Board relative

Charles H. Mercer

Continuing the Grace Lectures at the Beulaville United Methodist Church, Rev. Orville Leonard has announced the sp- prehensive future planning. eaker for the weekend series.

Rev. Charles H. Mercer, Superintendent of the New Bern District will speak at 7:30 p.m.
Friday April lith, with three lectures following on Saturday, April 12 at 10 a.m., 2 p.m.
and the final one at 7:30 p.m.
The Rev. Mr. Mercer attended Louisburg College, Louisburg: Wofford College, Spartanbury, S.C., and Duke University in Durham. He has served pastorates at Swansboro, Sunset Park-Wilmington, Trinky, Fairmaont, Mebane, Gentenary - Smithfield, First

Methodist-Laurinburg, and since June 1, 1968 has been Suparintendent of New Bern District.

He is married to the former Florrie Garren Smythe of Fort fills, S.G. and has rendered outstanding approach to his fel-fession and his activities in civic fraternal affairs. This unusual opportunity for spiritual enrichment is open to lowmen through his chosen pro-

the public, both ministers and layment, and all are invited and urged to attend.

Mayor Seeks Re-election

Warsaw's Mayor Ed Strickland has filed for re-election in the May 6th town election. Strickland was elected as a town commissioner in 1953, an office he filled for one term. Since that time he has served as mayor. Under his administration a new and greatly expanded sewerage system has been installed and he was instrumental in securing for the town a federal grant for com-

Three projects that were started by Mayor Strickland are unfinished and he has expressed a desire to serve the town to see these projects finished.

"After many years of work and planning my three pet projects are beginning to materalize. They are community planning, annexation (extension of town limits) and better hou-sing," commented mayor St-rickland, "I would like very much to have an opportunity to see these projects completed."

Strickland will be opposed in the race for mayor by John L. Powell, Jr., Commissioner
encumbents seeking reelection are W.E. Foster and W.C. Tew, Jimmy McClemy and Dr. Mett
Ausley has also filed for commissioner,