for a while and get a good day in now and then at the office."

R.D. Johnson says the earmarks of a duffer in a sand-trap...climb down or up a sandy bank...or fall to enter at a level point nearest ball...leave footprints untraced...and touch the sand with the club when addressing ball. Johnson urges all to rake traps.

TWO DCC GREATS ENJOYING GOLF: Above Otto "Lefty" Carroll and Colonel Gib Buck relax between rounds at the club enjoying the beautiful sunny spring-like weather. Lefty was one-up after nine but the Colonel gained revenge on backside. By the way it will be General Buck in a few days.....no more colonel boys.

Pro Marvin Watson announced all members planning to play in the "Annual Spring Golf Tournament" must qualify between April 5th and April 20th. You must play 18 holes and post qualifying score in Pro Shop. Watson urges all golfers to enter tourney.

Deaths

Mrs. Lacy Vines

WARSAW-Mrs. Lacy Dobson Vines, 82, died in North Carolina Epatist Home Wednesday evening.

Funeral services were held at the Quinn-McGowan Funeral Home at 3 p.m. Friday by the Rev. Eugene Carmichael, pastor of the Beulaville Baptist Church.

Burial was in the Dobson family cemetery near Kenansville.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. W.J. Middleton Sr., of Warsaw, and Mrs. Bryan of Wilmington; two brothers, Tyson Dobson of Beulaville, and Claude Dobson of Wilmington.

Mrs. Mary H. Brady

WALLACE-Mrs. Mary Holden Brady, 51, died Wednesday at her home.

Funeral services were held Friday at 2 p.m. in the Wallace Baptist Church with the Rev. L.E. Whitlock officiating. Burial in Riverview Memorial Park near Watha.

Surviving are her husband, J. A. Brady; one daughter, Mrs. William Richards of Pittsboro; one son, J.A. Brady Jr. of Aberdeen; two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Stagg of Lyman, S.C., and Mrs. Robert Hyatt of Greer, S.C.

James Kenan's Vic Owenby fired a 36-38-74, Doug Smith had a 35-39-74, Billy Potter had a 38-40-78, Mitch Reese had a 40-38-78, and Tommy Benton had a 45-40-85 in the high school match held at DCC last week. Coach Bill Helton's JK club won by 23 strokes over the field from W-RH, ED, and SW.

Buddy Williamson of Charlotte was down visiting at DCC and Harold Precythe of Faison. Buddy, a six handicap fashioned a three over 75 his first day out. Faison's long ball hitting Kenneth Ayent had a gimme eagle on number four. Warsaw's Hugh Carlton, had back and all, fired-for sure-his all time high 46-53-99.

Pro Marvin Watson stated the "membership drive" at Duplin CC was well underway. Watson urges all members to invite a new member and cash in on the wonderful prizes.....first prize set of Wilson Irons.....second prize set of Wilson woods.....and third prize a golf bag. The drive will run from April through June.

Club President Roy Barwich announced Allen Draughan had been appointed to work on the ponds just off number one tee at DCC. Some members have expressed a desire for a program to do away with the ugliness around the ponds.
