

OL. XXXVI NO. 16

8 KENANSVILLE, N.C.

16 PAGES THIS WEEK

Duplin County Board Of Education

At their regular meeting

Blanchard who recently re-

At the same meeting Emmdent at North Duplin High School, and Debbie, an eighth grade student at Faison Jun-lor Hi. He has served as a member of the county board for the past eight years. A veteran of World War II and prominent farmer, he has served on many civic and community organizations. He has also served as Director of Mt. Olive

FCX, Southeastern Farmers

Grain Association, and as a member of the Top Farmer Assigned.

man.

PRICE 10¢ PLUS TAX

fiental Health Meating

ental Health Association will he held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday April 17th in the Courthouse in Kenansville. All interested persons are urged to attend,

Non-Public

School Meeting ortant meeting to di An in cuss the findings of a Steering Committee to investigate the possibility of a Non-Public School in Duplin County will be held on Monday evening at 7:30 P.M. at the County Court-house in Kenansville, April 21.

P. B. Raiford

Gov. Bob Scott has appoin-ted P.B. Raiford as a State delegate to appear before the National Projects Committee of the Rivers and Harbors Congress in Washington, D.C. next

Bar-B-Que Supper

East Duplin Athletic Depart-ment will sponsor a Bar-B-cus Supper April 18, from 5:30 P.M. until 7:30 P.M. at East Duplin High School, Bunefits will go to the Activity Bus

County

Retary Met Brian Smith with the N.G Dept. of Commerce and Indus try was the guest speaker last Thursdays meeting of Warsaw Rotary. He spoke "How Vegetables Can Help dustry in North Carolina County," He was ine who made a short talk o

Transplating tobacco became big business in Duplin County this week. Many operations may be seen on farms throughout the county like this one where O.R. Blizzard, Rt. 1, Kenansville and his helpers are operating a one row tractor drawn setter to transplant the "Golden Weed" from the protected plant beds to the open fields. The plants will mature in 40 to 50 days and will be ready for barning. This area produce the worlds finest flue-cured tobacco, (Photo by Ruth Wells)

Respiratory Disease Society Announce Winners

Winners for the 4-H Health $20 to Cypress Creek Clu Contest sponsored by the Dup- 3rd prize $15 to Fountain Clu Tuberculosis and and 4th place $5 to LLW Club. Disease Foolety, The contest was sponsored The contest was sponsored to encourage individuals and ended on March 3, have nced. clubs to plan and participate Kenaneville Club, of which Su-san Craft is president. Otimprove the general health of the people and caused-H'ers to develop a concern for the her winners werey 2nd place

Tudging was done by the Duplin County Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Society and winners were announced at the April 7 4-H Council Me-

Projects promoted by the participating 4-H clubs were: T.B. Skin Test; conducted pro-

Duplin County has the opportunity to propose a project under the Education Professions Development Act to provide training to attract and qualify fession persons in the comm

Ity who have been otherwise engaged and to provide them, through Intensive short-term training programs and subsequent in-service training, with qualifications necessary for a teaching career. Trainees will be paid a stipend of $15,00 per day up to $75,00 per week durteacher shortage.

Duplin Teacher

grams on prevention of respiratory diseases; visited sanitoriums, distributed literature on health and respiratory dis-eases, sponsored "forgotten Persons Lists" in nearby hospitals; collected scraps for quilt-making project among sanatorium patients; and organized rat control programs.

boro. ment in a field other than teaching or currently Eighteen years of age or countries.

Tuesday April 8, The Duplin Board of Education elected Lodge #13 in Kenansville and is a member of the Duplin County Shriner's Club. Russell Brock of Mt. Olive as chairman to succeed D.D.

A farmer in Smith's township, he is a member of the Farm Bureau, where he has served as director for several ett E. Rogers of Rt. 2, Pink years, and is a member of Hill was elected Vice - Chairthe N.F.P. He has served the County Board of Educa-Brock is a graduate of Calytion for the past six years. pso High School, attended Mars Rogers is married to the Hill College and is married former Violet Maxwell and they to the former Gaynell Herring have three children, Emmett Jr. of Seven Springs. They have a senior at East Duplin High three children-a son Brad who School, Hugh Daniel and Diane is a Junior at UNC, Chapel who also are students of the Hill, Gloria, a ninth grade stusame school.

has six large, and one small layer houses. This 47 year old farmer also produces corn and tobacco.

Active in the Farm Bureau, he is a member of the bureau's broiler committee and is working with the organization to get a better income for all farmers in the area. He is also a member of the NFO.

Rhodes was impressed with conditions in the Del-Mar-Va area that he wrote the following article for the Duplin Times.

"I was one of the broiler growers recently invited by the Farm Bureau Marketing As-sociation to visit the Del-Mar-Va broiler growing area. The things I saw and learned were amazing.

At the chicken farms, the men who actually do the work reported to us that they raise five flocks per year. After each flock is sold their houses are opened up and the hard cakes

Continued page 7

Fine Arts Society Spoon River Anthology Final Production

sociation, he has recently completed a trip around the world for Agricultural Study Mission, visiting several foreign Brock is a member of Bear

Announcement

Pastor Vera Griffin and the congregation of the Pentacostal Church in Warsaw invites the public to join in a revival at their church April 20 through May 4. Guest evangalist will be Linda Steelman of Golds-

Marsh Baptist Church and is Director of Music for the Church. Rogers is a graduate of B.E. Grady High School and is chairman of the Board of Deacons of Smiths Presbyterian Church Marvin Rhodes Marvin Rhodes of Beulaville where he helped to organize recently visited the Del-Marthe Men of The Church. He Va broiler growing area as guest of the Farm Bureau markketing association. A poultry producer for the past ten years, Rhodes produces both broilers and layers. He has two broiler houses that are 10,000 capacity each and one house 5.000 capacity. He also

Randolph, Methor from Wallace; Joe ilst mi terian Min-Wallace and Phil ister from Kretch with accamaw in Kennsville,

Rose Hill Jaycees

Bob Carr, President, Rose Hill Jaycees, informs that his club has voted to support the Duplin County Cancer Crusade for 1969. As another commun-ity service, the Rose Hill Jay-cees decided to help fight the dreaded disease of cancer by contacting all business firms in the Rose Hill area and giv-log them an opportunity to ing them an opportunity to participate in this year's cruada.

Warsaw Lions Club

Frank B. Moore, President, Warsaw Lions Club, has ann-ounced that the Warsaw Lions Club has voted to support this year's Duplin County Cancer Grusade. Members of the club will contact all Warsaw and vi-clutic instances firms sesting cinity business firms seeking their financial support. Lion President Moore stated that his ased to join in the lub was p ont to mity s man Graft, president of Kenansville 4-H Club proudly displays a check for $25 first prize in the 4-H Health Contest insored by the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Society of Duplin County. Others left to right are Mrs. H.E. Phillips, secretary of the Society and Tom ny Fountain, president of Cypress Creek Club who won second place, Standing: club leaders, Mrs. Marvin Fountain, Fountain club; Mrs. Nelson Heath, Kenansville Club; and Mrs. Stacy Brinson, Fountain

Coroners Jury Recommend ison Be Heid

Coroner Herman Quinn said that a jury at an inquest held in the Duplin County Courtroom Thursday night, recommended that Marshall Hardison be held for grand jury action on a man-was operator of a car that struck and killed John Stephen Cavennigh, 29, white male of Rt. 2, Rose Hill on March 28.

tor charge. Ison, 18, white male of glewood Drive, Wilming-d formerly of Wallace ing the short-term intensive tr-aining. The criteria to be used in selecting applicants for teacher training shall be: Charge iter the Hardison vehicle skidded Hardison was a crating a 1969 Plymouth on David Henry Rivenbark of Rt. 2, Wallace, Cavenaugh was riding a 1968 Riverside Motorcycle, travel-ing north on Highway 118, re-turning home after working the four-to-twelve shift at a Wall-ace teartile plant 42 feet prior to impact and 437 feet after impact. Caven-augh was thrown 368 feet from the vehicle he was riding and was killed instantly. The Motorcycle was caught up under the car and both vehicles came ace textile plant. to rest partially in the ceme-Hardison stated that he did tery on the east side of Highway 117 about two miles north not see the motorcycle or know it was there until he hit it, of Wallace.

ert 30.

atre (3 Semessurvey of the his-

ture of the theaearliest times to through lecture, lass discussion

necessary 10:30-11:40

Trooper R.N. Johnson inves-tigated the accident and said that This was Duplin County's tenth traffic fatality of the year.

An intro

Methods (3 Semester hours)

ment, and procedures used in the design and construction of stage scenery, lighting, and co-sturning. The material will be presented in a series of lectures, discussions, demonstra-tions, and laboratory sessions. The student will be exposed to all the basic melniques and

iction to the equip

A minimum of a bachelor's teachers to meet the critical degree from an accredited The project will be designed college or the equivalent to attract into the teaching pro-An understanding that each applicant will teach follow-

unemployed

older

ing training Agreement by each applicant to pursue in-service education

Meet State minimum score requirements on the National Teacher Examinations. Persons interested in this program should contact their school principal or the superintendent's office for further information.

Citizens For Better Schools Organize

On February 18, a group of interested people met at Ghaynelle's Restaurant in Warsaw, and discussed "Freedom of Choice" for Duplin County Schools. Dr. Edward Boyette and James Franklin Strickland, two members of the County Board of Education were present and answered a number of questions concerning the school problems and the steps H.E.W. is taking.

Dr. Horace Ray explained the steps he has taken for acquir-Continued

"Spoon River Anthology", a Broadway stage success now being toured nationwide by the popular Kaleidoscope Players will be presented in the Kenansville Elementary School Auditorium on Thursday evening, April 24, 1969 at 8 p.m.

This is the final production of the 1968-69 series sponsored by the Tar Heel Fine Arts Society and James Sprunt Institute and it is anticipated that a full house will be in attencessful concert series.

is performed by a company of five actors. The company includes David Ode, Jonathan Bahnks, Sara Grosjean, Barbara Evans and Jan Owen who double as folk singers, sit on crude stools on stage and bring life to the dozens of characters in Edgar Lee Masters' "Spoon River Anthology".

THE PLAY

The program involves works done by some of America's literary giants, including Robert Frost, Carl Sandburg, Stephen Vincent Benet, E.E. Cummings, Vachel Lindsay, Bob Bylan and Rod McKeven. HISTORY OF THE PLAY are introduced in a cemetery to the ghosts of those who were inhabitants of Spoon River, and whose secrets have gone with them to the grave. There are sixty-odd characterizations and vignettes in this constantly interesting entertainment, who offer an amazingly varied array of roles and impersonations from young lovers and preachers to teachers who end up in the wrong cemetery. Both the sordid and the humorous sides of life are portrayed, with fetching ballads, and the free verse form of Edgar Lee Masters.

Via musical interludes, we dance to complete a very suc-"Spoon River Anthology" was presented in the Booth Theatre in New York City in 1963 and ALL DIT THE page 7

prerequisite courses are necessary. Lecture: 1:30-2:10 p.m. Monday thru Friday June 2-June 26, 1969 Laboratory: 2:15 p.m.-5:15 p.m. Monday thru Friday June 2-June 26, 1969. Examination: June 27, 969 1:30-3:30 p.m.

COST FOR COURSES D.A. 30 and D.A. 64 D.A. 30 only $75.00 43.00 45,00 D.A. 64 of will be presented in the Kenansville Elemitary School Auditorium on Thursday event April 24, at 8 p.m. This is the final per-formance for the 1968-69 concert series.

The cast pictured above will present the stage production of "Spoon River Anthology" which is aponsored by the Tar Heel Fine Arts Society and James Sprunt Institute and