THE PANTHER'S CORNER

Ann Williams

1968 is bearing with great participation as the Seniors begin to work on the Panther's Paw, as the Juniors finish a very successful magazine drive having sales of approximately $4,000, and the Freshman are busy just getting over the butterflies of those first weeks of high school.

This year the Panther's Paw staff will be lead by Leann Miller as Editor-in-Chief. She is assisted by Gwen Cole and Allison Maready as Associate Editors, and Vicki Clark and Brent Sumner as Business Managers.

Wednesday, September 24, members of the East Duplin student body were allowed to cut class legally. Wednesday was Club Day, which is a day out of each month set aside for club meetings. Each club meets for one hour during Club Day.

The staff of the school newspaper, The Panther's Tale, were very busy last week completing the first edition of The Panther's Tale. The Panther's Tale is sponsoring a Talent Show which is to be held on October 14, at the school gymnasium. The purpose of the show is to help support the paper.

East Duplin announces its first lady, Miss Donna Smith, a senior. Miss Smith represented East Duplin in the Farmer's Day Parade held in Richlands on Saturday, September 28.

East Duplin also announces its Homecoming Court. The candidates for Homecoming Queen are Loretta Stroud, Gail Mobley, Allison Maready, and Sharon Hatcher, all seniors. Homecoming Queen will be crowned on October 24, at our homecoming game. The Homecoming Court also consist of Junior Representative, Miss Linda Kelly; Sophomore Representative, Karen Smith; Freshman Representative, Barbara Sandy.

East Duplin is also being represented in the North Carolina Poultry Pageant by Miss Johnny Thomas and Miss Marilyn Kernegay both seniors. To them we wish the best of luck in the up coming pageant.

This Friday night the East Duplin Panthers meet the Wallace-Rose Hill Bulldogs at Wallace-Rose Hill.

ASC Committee Elected

Jack D. Patterson of Albertson was elected to a three-year term on the Duplin County ASC Committee at the county convention held on September 25. Other members of the committee are O. L. Holland of Warsaw, and Manley A. Carr of Teachey. ASC county committeemen serve three-year terms and one committeeman is elected annually by delegates to the county convention. Community committeemen from each community serve as delegates to the county convention.

O. L. Holland, who was elected Chairman of the county committee, said that ASC county and community committees are responsible for the local administration of ASCS programs. In North Carolina these programs include acreage allotments and marketing quotas on fluecured and burley tobacco, cotton, and peanuts; the voluntary diversion programs on cotton, feed grains, and wheat; the conservation programs; and price support programs.
