

A Good Place To Eat

Rose Hill Restaurant is a favorite eating place of many people who appreciate good food.

Owned and operated by Donald Buckner, the restaurant provides a place for a friendly get-together socially or business wise.

The famous Green Room is the setting for many civic as well as fraternity gatherings.

Their catering service is also widely recognized, and many people believe Buckner's barbecue the best in the area.

The business is operated on a six-day week with Sunday being the only day away from shop. And this day is usually spent in the old fashioned way and includes worship services at Rose Hill Baptist Church.

Mr. Buckner is one of the many business men of the area who realize the importance of the poultry to the area. He also realizes the debt of gratitude owed to the men who pioneered the industry.

Rose Hill Restaurant, located in the heart of the poultry industry is the home of good food where friends meet for a friendly repast. The Green Room, provides privacy for small business dinners, conferences, and civic and fraternal meetings.

Alex Jones of Rose Hill has been producing broilers for Ramsey for 9 years and a former employee for three years. Alex expresses his gratitude in the fair way he has been treated by the people of Ramsey Feed Company.

J. C. Ezzell, Route 1 Turkey, a broiler producer for 8 years with Ramsey Feed Co. is highly appreciative of the sincere and helpful attitude of the people working with Ramsey.

Jubilee Planning Committee

JUBILEE PLANNING COMMITTEE - This group, made up of Rose Hill Jaycees, and under the chairmanship of Ray Sanderson, has spent many hours finalizing plans and setting up the program for the 1969 JUBILEE. Everyone concerned, however, will be amply rewarded if the economic importance of poultry production in North Carolina is brought into proper perspective and if all visiting in Rose Hill on this day enjoy themselves to the fullest and have plenty of fried chicken to eat. Again, we invite you to join us in Rose Hill for all events, beginning with the Poultry Queen Pageant on the evening of October 2nd and continuing through to the last event on Sunday.

Carnival

CARNIVAL - beginning September 22 and running through October 5, the famed Romes Rides from Dillon, South Carolina, will have available for children of all ages a wide variety of rides. Included will be the large ferris wheel, merry-go-round, small swings, kiddie boats, tilt-a-whirl, octopus and kiddie train.

Jubilee Dance

JUBILEE DANCE - Again the Jubilee will feature a "couples only" dance to begin at 9:00 P.M., Saturday, October 4th, at Rockfish Country Club. Spokesmen for the dance committee indicate this will be the best yet. Plan now to attend. Tickets will be on sale for $6.00 per couple.
