Stanford
Extension Club

The Stanford Extension Club held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Annie R. Southerland. The meeting was called to order by the President Mrs. Eva S. Miller. A new member Mrs. Iva Brinson was welcomed. Home Agent, Mrs. Wallace made three important announcements, as follows: The 1% tax, and its importance to the County; Consumer Roma meeting to be held in Winston-Salem March 7-17, 1970; and the Christmas Fair. She discussed the topic, "Poultry As You Like It."

The main ideas stressed were foods you could serve in your home out of the standard ones such as (chicken), turkey, duck, quail, and squid. She said that most of these foods are being made into simple quick serving foods like hot-dogs, sausage, and rolls. She also gave points on how one should thaw frozen foods. Mrs. Wallace stated you should always use cold water to thaw frozen foods instead of other methods.

The president conducted the business part of the meeting and members discussed the plans for the Christmas Fair.

The hostess served salmon salad on lettuce, crackers, chocolate cake, halloween candies, and a delicious fruit punch. The menu was appetizing with
