

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips, all of Warsaw, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Phillips of Kenansville entertained members of the wedding party and guests at a rehearsal dinner at the Country Squire on Saturday evening prior to the rehearsal. A three course dinner was served to 40 guests present.

WEDDING BREAKFAST

Prior to the wedding of Miss Frances Ann Phillips and Mr. Phil Braxton Bell on Sunday, the parents of the groom were hosts to a wedding breakfast at the Country Squire, honoring the bridal couple, their families and attendants. The guests enjoyed Cranberry juice cocktail, congealed salad, roast almond chicken, broccolf with Hollandaise sauce, stuffed potato and rum raisin ice cream. An unusual centerpiece on the bridal couple's table featured a peacock.

SHOWER

On Friday evening, November 28, Miss Nancy Stephens, Miss Jenell Kirby, Miss Becky Phillips and Miss Jeanette Bell honored the bride at a shower in the Educational Building of Johnson's Baptist Church. The bride received many nice gifts and guests were served punch, petit fours, cheese danishes and nuts.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained the bridal party and wedding guests at a reception in the church fellowship hall. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Phillips at the entrance to the hall.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Hubert Dixon introduced the guests to the receiving line consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Bell, the bride and groom, Miss Jenell Kirby, Miss Nancy Stephens, Miss Becky Phillips, Miss Jeanette Bell and Miss Jan Phillips.

The bridal table was covered with a white linen cloth edged with lace. The table was centered with an arrangement of white, red, and pink carnations in the center branch of a five-branch candelabra. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Harry Phillips and punch was poured from a silver punch bowl by Mrs. William Waller, suits of the bride. Other refreshments included cheese stars and mints.

The bride's book was presided over by Mrs. Shelby Heath of Clinton. The table was overlaid with a white cloth graced by a candle and the bride's bouquet.

Assisting in serving were Misses Phyllis and Faye Waller, Miss Mary Dixon, Miss Mary Ezzell, Mrs. Herman Phillips, Mrs. James Bland and Mrs. Johnny Carlton. Good-byes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Amos Kirby.

Miss Phillips, Mr. Bell Exchange Marriage Vows

On Sunday, December 14, 1969 at half after three o'clock, Miss Frances Ann Phillips and Mr. Phil Braxton Bell were united in marriage in the sanctuary of the Johnson's Baptist Church of Warsaw. The Reverend J. Hubert Dixon, minister of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Abner Phillips of Warsaw and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Braxton Danner Bell of Warsaw.

The church was decorated using palms and greenery with candelabras on either side. The vows were spoken before a satin covered kneeling bench.

Prior to the ceremony, Mr. J. W. Boyette, Jr., of Warsaw, presented a program of wedding music. Mrs. Tommie Phillips, also of Warsaw, sang "Day is Golden Promise" and the "Lord's Prayer" as benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of silk faced peau de soie. The gown was fashioned with a scooped neckline, semi-Empire waist, and short sleeves which were appliqued with re-embroidered Alencon lace. The gown's A-line skirt featured appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace and trim along the hem in the same lace. The gown's back closed with traditional wedding buttons and was accented with a detachable chapel length train which was edged and appliqued with re-embroidered Alencon lace. The bride wore a fingertip veil of imported silk illusion which fell from petals of re-embroidered Alencon lace interspersed with pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and lily of the valley centered with a white orchid.

Miss Jenell Kirby of Warsaw, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of pink chiffon. The empire bodice of red velvet was accented by a hemline of pink satin and a large satin bow in the back. Her headpiece was of red illusion and graced with a matching bow of velvet. She carried a crescent of red carnations and white pompoms tied with silver streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Stephens of Kenansville, Miss Becky Phillips, cousin of the bride, Miss Jeanette Bell, sister of the groom and Miss Jan Phillips, sister of the bride. The bridesmaids' dresses and flowers were identical to those of the maid of honor.

Mr. Braxton Danner Bell served as his son's best man. Ushers were Mr. Johnny Carlton, Mr. Harry Phillips, Jr., Mr. Rieley Phillips, brother of the bride, all of Warsaw and Mr. Rieley Bell of Faison.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Norwood Phillips, wore a pink chiffon sheath, accented by sequins. She wore matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The mother of the groom, Mrs. Braxton Bell, wore an eye sheath of chiffon. She wore matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The wedding was under the direction of Mrs. Anna Kirby of Warsaw, and Mrs. H. E. Phillips of Kenansville.
