

Jones-Thomas Vows Spoken

The marriage of Miss Sandra Fay Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Vernon Thomas of Beulaville, and James Allen Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Arthur Jones of Trenton, was solemnized in the Beulaville Original Free Will Baptist Church, Dec. 23, 1972 at five in the afternoon. Rev. Bruce Dudley, pastor of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Billie James of Wallace presented a program of organ music. Mrs. Bruce Dudley was soloist. She sang "Somewhere" and "One Hand, One Heart" from West Side Story and "The Wedding Prayer".

The altar was decorated with baskets of pink and white carnations, wine roses, and white poinsettias. Flanking the baskets of flowers were two palms. Candlelight was provided by an arched candelabra of fifteen white tapers and two nine branched candelabras. The family pews were marked with a shaded candle and pink bows.

Pink pew streamers were used. Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk and organza designed by Priscilla of Boston. The gown was empire styled with a wedding band neckline. The bodice and full blown sleeves were appliqued with bouquets of white chintilly and venice lace flowers. This topped a full skirt which continued into a Chapel train. A handsome trim of chintilly and venice lace flowers continued down the front of the gown. A trim of venice lace flowers finished the gown and train. Her waist length veil of doubled illusion was attached to a clip of organza loops and chintilly lace flowers outlined with pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of white and pink carnation, wine roses, and an orchid.

Miss Janet Brown of Beulaville, cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor. Mrs. Lavae Manning, Miss Kathy Sumner of Beulaville, and Mrs. Holly Mazingo of Wilmington

They wore formal gowns of white velvet with empire waists and wedding band necklines. The gowns were trimmed with pink lace. They carried bouquets of white and pink carnations and wine roses.

Mr. Billy Ray Turner of Pink Hill served as best man. Ushers were Roy Manning of Beulaville, Bryan Weston of Pink Hill, and Ronald Nething of Kinston.

Mrs. Thomas chose a pink knit dress for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Jones wore a navy and white dress. They wore corsages of white carnations.

Mrs. Ollie Thigpen directed the wedding and Miss Giennee Lanier presided at the guest register.

For going away, the new Mrs. Jones chose a burgandy suit with a navy and white bodice which she had designed. She lifted the orchid from her bouquet. After the ceremony the bride and groom left on a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va.

Mrs. Jones is a graduate of East Duplin High School and ECU. She is presently employed by the Jones County School System. Mr. Jones is a graduate of Jones Central High School and is employed by D.R. Allen and Sons in Jacksonville. They will make their home in Maysville, rehersal party
