Organizational Scout Meeting

There will be an organizational meeting of Troop 49 Boy Scouts of America on Tuesday evening, Jan. 30, 1973, at the Magnolia Community Building at 7:30p.m. All persons interested in scouting are urged to attend and show their support. Any boys, ages 7 through 18, who are interested in becoming scouts should be present at this meeting with at least one of their parents.

Tuscarora Council Recognition Banquet Held

370 Scouters and wives turned out for the launching of the 50th year of service to boys of the Tuscarora Council. The occasion was the Council's Annual Recognition Banquet conducted at the Southern Wayne High School Cafeteria. Robert E. Hill of Goldsboro was installed for a second term as President along with Council Commissioner Glenn Moon, also of Goldsboro, who will be serving his fourth term.

The Silver Beaver Award was presented to four prominent Scouters including John Hill of Pikeville, C.W. "Icky" Peacock of Goldsboro, Bill Faust of Warsaw, and Preston B. Raiford of Kenansville. The Silver Beaver is the highest award that can be presented to a Scouter on the Council level. These men had a total of 68 years of service in Scouting with Peacock being cited as having the oldest continuous tenure in the Tuscarora Council.

Mrs. Ludie Watkins of Rosewood was presented the Silver Fawn Award for her area. She was cited for her exemplary character and her efforts as a Den Mother and as a Den Leader Coach, as well as her assistance to the Scout Troop. The Silver Fawn is the highest award that can be presented to a Lady Scouter. The Council President's Trophy went to the Croatan District 1 for meeting all Boy Power '73 Goals. President Hill praised District Chairman

Francis Townsend and District Executive Tom Deaton along with Vice President Norwood Vahn for meeting all goals each month for four years in succession. The trophy was retired to the Croatan 1 District for having won the award five years in a row.

The Council Commissioner Progress Award was presented to Chairman Sam Stallings and District Executive Ren Ivins for the substantial progress made by the Neusiok District during the past year in having over a ten percent growth in Units and membership plus Unit service by Commissioners.

The Croatan 1 and Neusiok Districts were awarded service plaques for winding up the year on target in all phases of Scouting. Ralph Jinnette, Building Chairman of the New Tuscarora Reservation gave an accounting on the development of the Camp to date. In his comments Jinnette stated that much had been accomplished including the Ranger's headquarters completed, Camp headquarters completed, and maintenance complex completed. Other work under construction at the present time include two shower buildings, trading post, and the amphitheater. He also added that a great deal of work had been done towards the construction of the Lake but that the weather had prevented final completion. Items to be under construction in the immediate future included electrical and water systems, dining hall, the Troop sites, and the main road into Camp. Jinnette further added that nearly $300,000. had been spent to date covering purchase of land, buildings, and dam construction, etc. He estimated that an additional $300,000. would be needed to complete the job by June 1st. The Council has had pledges of $515,000. towards the construction of the Camp.

Ray Galloway, Vice Chairman of the 50th Anniversary Celebration, reported on the progress to date and current preparations for the 50th Anniversary Celebration June 5th-10th. He stated that all Chairmen had been secured and activities for the celebration would include four reunions, an Indian Dance Festival, a Scout-O-Rama, a massive Council Camporee, a showing featuring the Old Guard from Washington, D.C., a religious program and finally the dedication of the New Reservation on June 10. Galloway went on to state that this massive celebration would certainly go down as a milestone in the history of youth work in Eastern North Carolina. Scout Executive Dick Auger praised the work that had been done in Eastern North Carolina and in his challenge to the newly elected officers and board members gave the following
