Turner-Albertson Marriage

Miss Cathy Jo Albertson of Beulaville and Mr. Ronald Joseph Turner of Pink Hill spoke their marriage vows on Friday, January 19, 1973, at 8:00 p.m. during a candlelight ceremony in the Beulaville Presbyterian Church. The Rev. George F. Sawyer, minister of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Olando Albertson of Beulaville. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Turner of Rt. 1, Pink Hill.

A program of piano and organ music was presented by Mr. Edgar Wells of Albertson, and Mrs. Willie Horne of Beulaville sang "Whether Thou Goeat," "I Take Thee Dear" and the benediction "Our Wedding Prayer."

The altar setting for the formal candlelight ceremony consisted of two baskets of White Carnations, Roses, Mums, and Gypsophila on each side of the kneeling bench with eight palm plants on either side of the altar and in the background spiral candelabra with candle globes completing the decorations. A single lighted taper marked the pews of the family.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Albertson chose a rose pink formal gown in a princess style with a crystal beaded neckline. Mrs. Turner, mother of the groom chose a blue crepe formal gown accented with a blue crystal pin, both mothers wore a corsage of pink roses.

The bride escorted and given in marriage by her father was attired in a gown of white silk organza, lavishly appliqued with peau d'ange lace and seed pearls. A crystal pleated ruffle at the neckline, yoke, and cuffs of the bishop sleeves which were also appliqued with lace, the hem line also had a crystal pleated ruffle and was edged with scalloped peau d'ange lace. Crystal pleated ruffles and a scalloped hem trimmed her chapel train along with lace appliques and seed pearls. Her finger tip veil was attached to a lace victorian styled head piece trimmed with seed pearls. Her old-fashioned nose gay of white roses, carnations, stasun and gypsophilla was centered with a white catalpa orchid. White lace streamers accented her floral bouquet.

Miss Gali E. Albertson of Beulaville was her sisters maid of honor. She wore an old fashion light blue formal gown covered with blue and pink rose print veil floral apron and bodice with a light blue ruffle trimming the apron and an old fashion slash of printed veil rying in an old fashion wise sent in the back and carried a nose gay of pink carnations containing a candle globe with a rose handkerchief taper. Taper ceremony was completed by the bride's parents. The bride's mother, Mrs. Warren O. Albertson, and the bride's father, Mr. Ronald Joseph Turner, were seated in the front row of the church.

Miss Kay Cottle, bride elect was honored with a lingerie shower at the home of Miss Rha Blizzard on Sat. Jan. 13.

Duplin High School in Beulaville, was honored in a graduation of Jones Central High School and is now employed with Turner Construction Co. of Kinston.
