Bridge Clubs Meet

Mrs. William Costin was bridge hostess on Tues. evening at her home near Warsaw. Mrs. Costin served candy, cheese straws, and punch during play. After the second progression, she served pineapple cake and coffee. Mrs. J.S. Saint-Amant was awarded a pie carrier for high. Mrs. Adin Powell was presented a towel set for second high, and Mrs. John Gayle was given a lap tray for consolation. Others playing were Mrs. J.B. Herring Jr., Mrs. Bradley McIntosh, Jr., Mrs. Earl McKeithan, Mrs. Thurman J. Gaster, Jr., and Mrs. Fred Shank.

Mrs. S.L. Torrains was bridge hostess on Wed. evening at her home on Bay St. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Forest Martin for high, to Mrs. James Sutton for second high, and to Mrs. Seth Hill for consolation. Others playing were Mrs. Winnie Davis, Mrs. Y.L. Smith, Mrs. David Sutton, Mrs. E.E. Jones, and Mrs. Torrains. Mrs. Torrains served potato chips, dip, candy, cookies and soft drinks during the evening.

Garden Club Meets

The Feb. meeting of the Warsaw Garden Club was held at the Country Squire on Wed. afternoon with seven members and two visitors present. The visitors were Mrs. J.T. Gresham, Jr. and Mrs. Rohini Joshi.

The president, Mrs. Oscar Redwine, presided. In the absence of the secretary, the minutes of the Jan. meeting were read by the treasurer, Mrs. Norman Flowers. She also gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. Flowers announced that the club dues are now due for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Sterling Harriner, co-chairman for beautifying and planting on the railroad, announced that she has secured two hundred red canna bulbs "The President" which will be used to enlarge the canna beds planted by the club last year. Since canna bloom late when most of the other blooming plants have faded and have such a lasting, vivid color, the club hopes they will be planted extensively throughout the gardens in town and especially in public areas.

The president made a strong plea for new members. She requested each member to be responsible for securing at least one new member before next year.

A count of plants planted by members during this year was very good: dozens of annuals, over a hundred azaleas, many dogwood trees, and one member reported that she has planted one hundred pines.

The programs for the next three months were discussed. In March Mrs. Louise Wells, chairman, will present slides of the Elizabethan Gardens. In April a picnic lunch followed by a tour of the Robert Holmes Camellia Garden is scheduled with Mrs. B.F. Hobbs as hostess. For the May meeting the club has tentative plans for a candlelight flower show with several other features depicting the central theme. This meeting will be held at the Country Squire.

Those attending the February meeting enjoyed a delicious luncheon.

Card Of Thanks

I would like to thank my relatives and friends for the prayers, cards, and flowers while I was a surgical patient at Sampson Memorial Hospital and while I have been convalescing at home. Mrs. N.E. Blanchard.

Lay Witnessing School Leader

Dr. A.L. Parker
A Lay Witnessing School will be held by the Eastern Baptist Association for laymen, laywomen and young people from the forty churches in the Association. The School is scheduled for Monday through Thursday evenings, Feb. 19-22 in the Assembly Hall of the downtown building of the Warsaw Baptist Church beginning at 7:30 p.m. each evening.

Dr. A.L. Parker, Pastor of the Friendly Avenue Baptist Church, Greensboro, N.C. will direct the school. Dr. Parker is a native of Birmingham, Ala. and holds degrees from Birmingham Southern College, University of Chicago Medical School and Southern Seminary, Louisville, Ky. He has served pastorates in South Carolina and at Ashboro, N.C. prior to coming to his present pastorate.

Those interested in attending the school and who have not registered, contact Eastern Baptist Association Dept. of Missions, Rev. J. Henry Simpson, P.O. Box 712, Warsaw, N.C. 28388 or by telephone 293-7618.

Baptist Women's Rally

Sunday afternoon, Feb. 18th, the Grove Park Baptist Church will host an Associational Baptist Women's Rally, beginning at 3 p.m. Mrs. J. Winston Pearce of Buies Creek, N.C. will be the inspirational speaker. Mrs. Pearce is well known in Baptist circles as a dynamic and challenging speaker.

Baptist women of the churches of Eastern Baptist Association are urged to attend this meeting. Those attending will also be challenged to engage in the W.M.U. Enlistment Program - giant step, and "each one, reach one, cultivate one."

Area Sunday School Revival

An Area Sunday School Revival will be held Friday evening, Feb. 16th with the Clinton First Baptist Church beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The purpose is to review the Sunday School Task - challenge - goal setting - inspirational and commitment.

Rev. Joe Vaughn, Associate in the Sunday School Dept. in the Va. Baptist State Convention,

Roanoke, Va., will bring the inspirational message. Special music will be presented by the Chancel choir of the host church under the direction of the Minister of Music, Mrs. Jean Haskell. W. Harry Clavin, Associate in the Sunday School Dept. of the Baptist State Convention of N.C., Raleigh will preside.

Sunday School officers and teachers in the forty churches of the Eastern Baptist Association are invited and urged to attend.

MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY - New Hanover Memorial Hospital School of Medical Technology, Wilmington, N.C. made appointments for the training program for 1973-74 beginning in August. Four students were selected from the applicants. Among those was Miss Cynthia Gayle Ezzell, a junior at UNC-W, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Ezzell of Mt. Olive, N.C. For a BS degree in medical technology a student must complete three years of intensive study and one full year of work-study in a hospital laboratory cooperating in a training program.
