United In Marriage

Miss Phyllis Irene Fields and Carl Lynwood Brunson, Jr. were joined together in Holy Matrimony on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 23, 1973 at 5 p.m. in an impressive double ring ceremony, in Saint Helena's Episcopal Church of Beaufort, S.C. The wedding was performed by the Rev. Robert E. Libbey Assistant Rector of that historic church which dates back to 1712. Altar arrangements of white glads flanked by palms and lighted tapers formed the background.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey W. Fields of Kenansville, N.C. Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Brunson of Summerton, S.C. are the parents of the groom.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Robert E. Libbey.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white eyelet made empire style with long sleeves and wrist length gloves. She wore a white mantilla and carried a nosegay of daisies and fern.

Mrs. Karl Walet of Beaufort, S.C. was matron of honor and the only attendant. She wore a long green gown also made empire style. She carried a mixed bouquet of white flowers.

The groom's father served as best man. Ushers were: James Castay and Larry Peterson both of Beaufort, S.C.

Holy Communion was celebrated after the marriage ceremony.

The Bride's mother chose for her daughters wedding a pink chanting with re-embroidered sleeveless coat. She wore pink accessories and a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a beige knit dress with black accessories and wore a white carnation corsage.

The new Mrs. Brunson is a Special Education teacher in the Beaufort Schools. She is a graduate of Lenoir Rhyne College in Hickory, N.C. Her husband is a Medical Corpsman in the U.S. Navy. They are living in Beaufort, S.C.

Reception

A reception was held in the Parish House following the wedding. The receiving line was composed of the bridal couple and their parents. A color scheme of yellow and white was emphasized in table appointments and refreshments. Daisies were used in the floral arrangements, with other white flowers. In addition to the tiered wedding cake the guests were served punch, salted nuts and mints.
