

Quinn-Ferguson United

Miss Joanne Quinn and Lt. John D. Ferguson were joined together in holy matrimony on Saturday afternoon March 10, 1973 at 12:00 Noon in a double ring ceremony. The wedding took place at Hayes Barton United Methodist Church in Raleigh, N.C. The wedding was performed by the Rev. Ellis J. Bedsworth.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clifton L. Quinn of Raleigh, her grandparents are Mrs. Mina B. Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Quinn all of Beulaville. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. David L. Ferguson of Burbank, Calif.

Music was furnished by Mr. Leonard Smith-organist and Mr. Vance Clodfelter-soloist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a lovely ivory gown of bridal satin and re-embroidered alencon lace. The gown featured a panel of lace extending from the Victorian neckline to the hem of the A-line skirt. The leg-of-mutton sleeves also featured alencon lace and clusters of pearls. The detachable chapel train fell gracefully from a satin bow at the empire waist. Appliques of lace and pearls adorned the train and skirt back. She wore a beautiful mantilla that fell softly from a satin camelot cap. Re-embroidered alencon lace bordered the mantilla.

The bride carried a cascade of ivory roses, stefanada and baby's breath.

Miss Jill Quinn, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The other bridesmaids were Miss Deborah Crowell of Raleigh, Miss Susan Clarke of Eden, Miss Sara Frances Walters of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Arthur Knight of San Luis Obispo, Calif., and Mrs. Frank Cullum of Great Falls, Montana.

The attendants were attired in gowns of confetti organza. The gowns were fashioned with beruffled V'd necklines and ruffled hems on the full skirts. They wore matching headpieces that framed their faces to complement their sleeveless gowns. The attendants carried a cascade of pink carnations and sweetheart roses.

Mr. Alan Moore of Burbank, Calif. served as best man. Ushers were Clifton Lee Quinn, Jr. of Raleigh, Tim Hunter of Warsaw, Steve Balcome of Raleigh, Les Pearce of Raleigh, and Lt. Richard Lawson of Haverstown, Penn.

Miss Ellen Everette was a miniature bride in the ceremony. She wore a dress identical to the brides dress. John Leon Quinn served as the miniature groom.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a pink crepe dress and matching waist length jacket. She carried a white orchid on her purse. The groom's mother wore a light blue lace dress. She carried a white orchid also.

The new Mrs. Ferguson attended the UNC-Chapel Hill where she was a member of Phi Mu Sorority. Her husband is a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y.

The reception was held at the North Ridge Country Club in Raleigh. The couple left for a wedding trip to Bermuda. They will make their home in Schweinfurt, Germany.

Appreciation Supper

Mr. Bessie Kennedy, Donald Heath, Parker Heath and Morris Kennedy of the Pine Hill and Beulaville are who operate several turkey houses on their farm had to cease operation due to the demolished turkey house by the two recent snow storms. They were unable to continue their operations until they could rebuild their houses. Their neighbors observing their loss came to their rescue and gave freely of their time and labor in rebuilding the houses, making it possible for them to begin operating again.

In appreciation and to say thank you for their time and labor, the following were given a barbecue supper Friday night at the turkey house sites. Mr. James Whitfield, Junior Hill, Horace Murphy, Ray Murphy, Chesley Murphy, Rev. Vergil Murphy, Morris Heath, Adolph Heath, Ervin Kennedy, Wayne Kennedy, Randolph Murphy, Hurman Smith, Joseph Jones, Sam Kennedy, Avant Kennedy and Calvin Hill.

The supper was furnished by the owners of the turkey houses and the barbecue was cooked by Mr. Walter
