

19th Hole

PRO I. B. DUFFER

Duplin Country Club

Winner and Runner-ups in Southern Wayne Invitational-Above Southern Wayne's Fifth Annual Invitational Champ Tommy Davis, center, is being congratulated by Goldsboro's Jere Hilburn, while Magnolia's Billy Potter looks on. Hilburn and Potter ended the classic two strokes back, tied for second place. Potter, a former member at DCC, is now playing out of Rockfish CC in Wallace

VOICE OF THE LINKS-Above Starter Joyce Gurley calls first team to tee in the Fifth Annual Invitational staged at SWCC last week as Tournament Director David

Perkins looks on. Joyce, one of the many ladies behind the scene, help make the tourney one of the best in the state.

Little Bobby Mathews and team won the April Scramble held at Rockfish last Sunday with a 10 under 62. Mathews team included John Schneider, Mitchell Pail, and David Schneider. Five other teams tied for second place with seven-under 66.

Tommy Davis of Wilson playing out of Wedgewood CC nipped Magnolia's Billy Potter and Goldsboro's Jere Hilburn to win Southern Wayne CC's Fifth Annual Invitational Golf Tournament last weekend. Davis, son of former Duke football great Tom Davis, had rounds of 69-72-141 to win while Potter and Hilburn tied for second place, two strokes back, with 143's. Other winners in the championship flight were SW's Jimmy Adams, Duplin's Doug Smith and Chuck Moore, Walter Hall and Maurice Weiner.

Southern Wayne Pro Charlie Finwall reports a very successful golf tournament. "We had 178 golfers participating and it just went perfect, with that many people getting together, we feel good about the results," Finwall declared. "It was an outstanding field, very colorful, our ole voices (Joyce Gurley) was back, and just a great job by the ladies, what else do you want," Finwall said.

Duplin members playing in the invitational at Southern Wayne, and first round scores, included Doug Smith 71, Billy Potter 77, Frank Barfield 73, Chuck Moore 73, Fennell Smith 73, Johnny Cackton 73, Allen Draughon 80, George Henry Beasat 85, Robert West 88, Joe Costin 88, Gene Thompson 88, Fisher Carlton 88, Milton Costin 88, J.P. "Haw" Smith 90, Bill Igoe 91, and Woodrow Blackburn 92.

Ramblewood members playing in the invitational at Southern Wayne, and first round scores included Joel Harris 72, Beach Budd 73, Donald Thompson 73, Brandon Smith 77, and Joe Houston 88.

A "super ball" tournament has been scheduled at Duplin

Wilson's Tommy Davis Wins SWCC's Invitational-Wilson's Tommy Davis playing out of Wedgewood CC won the Fifth Annual Golf Invitational held at Southern Wayne Country Club in Mount Olive with a one-under 141 in the two day event. Davis, son of former Duke football great Tom Davis, had an opening round two-under 69, the only subpar round in the field of 178 players. The big blonde bomber ended the two day speculatively two strokes in front of Magnolia's Billy Potter and Goldsboro's Jere Hilburn.

CC Sunday, May 6. All members are invited to come out and play in this club function. Tourney will get underway, at one o'clock. Each team will include 2 ladies, so come on out for a fun day at DCC.

Ramblewood Club Manager George Wellons reports club championship will get underway, May 6th. Wellons says, "players will be put in flights, and it will be a match each week for the 48 participants."

Rockfish Pro Gene Briggs tied for first place in the Ladies Golf Pro Am held at New Bern Country Club last week with an even par 70.

Other flight winners in the outstanding invitational played at Southern Wayne included such area doers as Allen Draughon, Dewey Lane, Murray Castle

Little League Clinic Held In Warsaw

Around sixty Warsaw Little Leaguers turn out Saturday to participate in a baseball clinic held at Taylor Field in Warsaw.

John Holt, associate scout for the Kansas City Royals was in charge of the clinic. Holt and his staff explained and demonstrated many of the fundamental of baseball. Individual tutoring was given to each boy at his preferred position.

Others who assisted Holt included; Bill Lee, Shortstop for UNC; Bill Kirkendall, Baseball coach at Washington High School;

Woody Hastings, Coach for the Greenville American Legion; Frank Wilson, Scout for the Cleveland Indians; Robert Brinkley, Greenville American Legion player and Bill Griffin, Greenville American Legion player.

James Taylor, Coach of the Warsaw Lions team made the following comments about the clinic, "This clinic was one of the best things that has happened to Warsaw Little League, it not only helped the players but also the coaches. I feel my boys got a lot out of the clinic."

John Holt, Associate Scout for the Kansas City Royal explains the right way to become a good baseball player during a clinic held for the Warsaw Little Leaguers at Taylor Field on Saturday.

ROBERT BRINKLEY-a Greenville American Legion player show some of the Warsaw Little Leaguers the correct way to play first base.

BILL KIRKENDALL-Baseball coach at Washington High School shows some Warsaw Little Leaguers how to play second base during the clinic at Warsaw.

FIRST GAME-L to R) Todd Price and Doug West of the Bennett Braves are resting in dug out waiting for their time at bat during the opening game of the Warsaw Little League held Monday. In the background is Coach Carl Erics, giving instructions to his players. The Braves lost 20-1 to the Lions team.

THROWS OUT FIRST BALL-Ken 10th Fussell, retired Warsaw resident and avid supporter of the Warsaw Little League program pitch out the first ball to start the 1973 Warsaw Little League. Fussell only missed two games last year and bought and donated the umpires breast protector.

Lions Win First LL Game

The Lions Club won their first game Monday defeating the Bennett Braves 20-1 in the Warsaw Little League action. The winning pitcher was Phil Boney. Boney also hit the first home run of the 1973 Little League season.

Jayces Beat National Spinning 21-4

The Jayces scored eight runs in the top of the first inning and coasted to a 21-4 victory over National Spinning in the Warsaw Little League play on Tuesday. Jim Riddick was the winning pitcher but needed relief help from Norman Sloan who finished the game.

Use the Classified Page

BOYD DRUGS

Walgreen AGENCY

Is a Drug Store

A WHOLE NEW OPENING

Notice of Sale

The Farming Tools Of Andrew Pickett Chambers will be sold at Public Auction on Sat. May 19, at 10 A. M. at the Chambers home place 4 miles N. of Kenansville on Hwy. 11

- 1 Massey Ferguson 135 Tractor (use 80 hrs.)
- 4 2 wheel tobacco trailers
- 1 Farm Trailer
- 1 3 bottom plow
- 1 king disc horrow
- 1 plow cultivator
- 1 cole corn planter
- 1 tractor bloom
- 1 1967 Chev. 1/2 ton Pick-up truck
- other misc. farm tools.

The Administratrix reserve the right to reject a bid on sold items. This the 1st day of May, 1972.

Mertie Miller Chambers
Administratrix of Andrew Pickett Chambers