

Marcia Wilson Reports On Blueberry Activities

Duplin County's Blueberry Queen Marcia Wilson just returned from the Seventh Annual Blueberry Festival at White Lake. Marcia participated in all the activities concerning the festival including the Queen's Pageant Friday, May 19, 1973. Marcia arrived at the White Lake Park Motel at 1:30 Thurs., May 18, 1973. Her roommate for the weekend was Miss New Hanover County Blueberry Queen, Sharon Cavanaugh. Marcia's first activity was a walk-through rehearsal of the pageant at the Elizabethtown Jr. High School. Following the rehearsal a cook-out was given for out-going Queen Wanda Locklear and the contestants at the White Lake Golf Course. A final dress rehearsal followed the cookout and concluded Thursday's activities.

Friday morning began with the judges' interview of the contestants. A luncheon was provided for the judges, contestants and the special guests of the festival. After the luncheon a band concert was given in the afternoon. All the contestants received keys to Elizabethtown in front of the courthouse. Following this, the celebrities dinner was given in honor of all the contestants and special guests of the festival. The Queen's pageant concluded the night. Although Marcia did not win the pageant, Duplin County should be very proud of this outstanding girl and the marvelous job she did for our county. The 1973 Blueberry Queen is Pam Norris, from our neighboring county of Sampson. A party followed the pageant at the Elizabethtown Community Center.

Saturday proved to be a beautiful day at White Lake. Marcia represented Duplin County in their annual Blueberry parade. She rode on a beautiful purple and gold float provided by Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Sanderson, Marcia's sponsor for the pageant. Marcia concluded her activities by thanking all the contestants and officials associated with the pageant for making the Blueberry Festival such a wonderful experience. (She also took off her shoes and rested.)

Marcia's plans for the year include visiting blueberry farms participating in various parades and pageants and getting to know the blueberry farmers better. She is looking forward to publicizing N.C.'s fastest growing commodity industry.

Marcia commented on the Festival: "I gained a great deal of poise and in doing so I realized that beauty pageants are not nearly the feminine put-downs women's libbers say they are. I believe that pageants provide, not only for the winner, but for all those who participate a truly educational opportunity. I would like to take this time to thank especially Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Sanderson who were so unselfish with their time and support in preparing for the pageant. I would also like to thank those who helped with my wardrobe, talent and other items pertaining to the pageant. But most of all, I express my sincere appreciation to my parents who provided the encouragement, trust and love which were most essential."

Duplin County should be very proud of its BLUEBERRY QUEEN Marcia Wilson. We wish her good luck in her endeavors during 1973.

HIDDEN TRAP

Cutting protein food costs with dishes such as lasagne is great, but beware of a hidden trap. If you use a recipe calling for several expensive cheeses, you may end up spending more per serving.
