Card of Thanks

I would like to express my appreciation and thanks to all my friends, neighbors, and relatives for all the many acts of love and kindness shown me during my recent stay in the hospital and since returning home. For all the prayers, flowers, cards and expressions of concern, I will be forever grateful. I will return to the hospital on June 10th for major surgery and I pray that you will remember me in your prayers at that time also.

Mrs. Julian (Ethel) Williford

We wish to thank our many friends for their many visits, cards, flowers, prayers, food and money during the recent illness and death of our beloved husband and father, William V. Lanier. We also want to express our great appreciation to all the blood donors who responded most graciously to the call for blood, we extend thanks to each one of the 42 who answered. Words can not express our thanks, and May God Bless each and all of you.

Miss James Weds Cecil Allen Miller

The marriage of Peggy Orlane James and Cecil Allen Miller took place on Saturday, May 20, at six o'clock in the evening in the sanctuary of Shiloh Baptist Church near Chinquapin.

The groom's pastor, the Rev. Jack Dall of Beulaville, assisted the pastor of the bride, the Rev. David Bays of Chinquapin in officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with baskets of white mums and pom-poms backed by greenery and lighted by white tapering candles in tall candle stands.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orlan James of Route 2, Chinquapin. The parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Miller of Beulaville.

Susanne Southland of Chinquapin, organist, and Milton Raynor soloist of Wallace, presented a period of music before the ceremony. The songs used were "One Hand, One Heart", by Comdheim and Bernstein, "Walk Hand In Hand", by Cowell,

"The Wedding Prayer", by Dainap, and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride's gown was of white silk peau de sole with a chapel train. The high neckline of the empire bodice was bordered in Venice lace, with inserts of the lace set in bodice and lantern sleeves. She wore a cathedral mantilla of lace bordered with illusion over a Juliet cap of Alençon lace, and carried a bouquet of white pom-poms and yellow roses and one green orchid.

The bride's father gave his daughter in marriage, and Mr. Miller acted as his son's best man.

Nancy James served her sister as maid of honor. Her cousins, Janice Horne of Richlands, Marilyn James of Greenville, Mrs. Robert Eason of Greensboro, two friends, Mrs. John Smith of Kinston, and Mrs. James Foreman of Wilmington; and the sister of the groom, Gretchen Miller of Beulaville, attended the bride as bridesmaids. They wore floor-length gowns of floral maize organza with low neckline and a Bertha collar, and picture hats of maize straw. Their flowers were long-stemmed yellow mums.

The groom's sister, Cecilia Miller, and a cousin of the bride, Misty Cowan of Wadesboro, were junior bridesmaids.

Wayne Cowan of Burgaw, an uncle of the bride and her cousin Steve Horne of Richlands; Tony Miller of Beulaville, brother of the groom; and McKinley Edwards, Phil Decker, Billy Hunter, and D. H. Fountain, all from Beulaville and friends of the groom, were ushers.

Mrs. James chose a floor-length dress of peach polyester crepe with beaded neckline and matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was a white orchid. Mrs. Miller attended her son's marriage beautifully wearing a floor-length beige with a beaded neckline on an evening bodice of white and lace, and a chignon - over a tulle skirt, with matching accessories. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

The wedding was officiated by Mrs. Robert Worthington of Beulaville.

The bride is a Junior at the University of North Carolina at State and the groom is a Senior, also of UNC State at Raleigh. Their future address is McKimmon Village, State College, Raleigh.

The new Mrs. Miller used a white and navy polyester costume with white bolero jacket and navy accessories for their trip to the outer banks for several days.

Wedding Reception
Mr. and Mrs. Orlan James entertained immediately after the wedding of their daughter, Peggy Orlane, honoring her and her husband, Cecil Allen Miller. The reception was held at Mill Swamp Community Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Miller honored their son, Cecil Allen Miller and Peggy James, his bride-to-be, at an after dinner dinner at their lovely home in Beulaville.
