

Vows Spoken

Miss Gloria Faye Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wallace of route 2, Mount Olive, became the bride of George Roland Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Edwards, of Clinton May 29 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the Snow Hill Free Will Baptist church. The bridegroom's mother is the former Gertrude Martin of Mount Olive.

The Rev. Leon Grubbs was the officiating minister.

A program of wedding music was presented by Edgar Wells, pianist. Thomas E. Smith, soloist, sang "The Twelfth Day of Never", and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Smith sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Hawaiian Wedding Song", as duets. During the ceremony the bride sang "Each for the Other", and Mrs. Mary Gold Bell, matron of honor, sang "The Wedding Prayer".

The church was decorated with a brass bridal arch flanked with large white urns filled with white gladioli, yellow roses and mums. Beneath the arch was a prayer bench with an open Bible which belonged to the bride and groom. Green palms and cathedral and spiral candelabra completed the nuptial setting.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white bridal satin and Italian lace applique. The gown was fashioned of the Victorian era.

The bodice had a high neck of lace applique and a V-effect of scalloped Italian lace. The long sleeves were trimmed with a lace cuff. The empire bodice was circled with a white satin ribbon with a double bow. This topped a full skirt which flowed into a graceful chapel train. The gown and train featured a handsome trim of Italian lace applique on English net, and was finished with a border of scalloped Italian lace. To complete her attire, she wore a waist length veil of doubled white silk illusion bordered with ruffled-bridal lace. This was attached to a camellia cap of jeweled illusion lace. The bride carried an old fashioned multi-colored Victorian nosegay.

Miss Cathy Kaye Wallace, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a formal sleeveless gown of yellow satin and an overlay of yellow chiffon. The low neck was trimmed with yellow satin and scalloped lace. The empire bodice was circled with yellow satin and lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses, pompons, and gypsophelia.

Mrs. Mary Gold Bell of Albemarle was matron of honor. Marsha Edwards, sister of the groom of Clinton, Sylvia Jones of Warsaw, and Bettisue Hawes of Wallace were bridesmaids. They were dressed identical to the maid of honor.

Mr. Edwards was his son's best man. Ushers were Chester King of Mount Olive, Martin Hall, Al Collins, and Dan Smith of Clinton.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a green linen dress with a long sleeve silk blouse of white and green, matching accessories and an orchid corsage. They will live in Clinton.

The bride is a graduate of Mount Olive college and Atlantic Christian college, Wilson. The bridegroom is a graduate of Mount Olive college and is presently attending N. C. State University, Raleigh.

Registrars were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Strickland and director of the wedding was Mrs. Ruth Shivar, cousin of the bride.

RECEPTION

The reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The reception table was covered with a white linen cloth overlaid with white lace and brocade cloth around the tulle skirt and drapings. Four white tapers in single silver candlesticks accented a larger mixed arrangement in a silver chaffing dish.

Those who assisted in the reception were Matoaka Westbrook, aunt of the bride, Star Edwards, sister of the groom, Sally Summerlin, friend of the bride, Hazel Westbrook, friend of the bride, Carol King, cousin of the bride, Mabel Bishop, friend of the bride.

The goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Ryan Smith.
