

of Fairmont, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Britt, entertained members of the wedding party and invited guests in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

An arrangement of dahlias and yellow roses with a silver five-branch candelabra graced the bridal table. After the bride and groom cut the traditional first slice of the wedding cake which was decorated in white, yellow, and green and topped with a miniature bride and groom, Miss Ida Mae Britt of Parkton, aunt of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. B. J. Miller of High Point, grandmother of the bride, poured punch. Green minis, nuts and cheese rings were also served.

Invitation Issue I

Mr. and Mrs. William request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Marilyn Jeanette to Jon Sikes on Sunday the eighth of July Nineteen Hundred and Seventy - three at four o'clock Oak Hill Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church Reception following ceremony. All friends and relatives are cordially invited to witness their vows. No invitations are being sent.

Jones-Britt United

In a lovely candlelight ceremony held at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon at the Warsaw First Baptist Church, Miss Linda Kay Britt became the bride of Milton Wayne Jones of Wilmington.

The Reverend J. Boyce Brooks officiated at the exchange of vows. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Russell Paul Britt, organist and aunt of the bride, and Mrs. William John Weatherly, III, soloist who sang "I Love Thee" and "O Perfect Love" as the benediction.

Vows were exchanged before an altar setting composed of an arch of candelabra which was flanked by spiral candelabra on each side. Baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladiolas at the base of the spiral candelabras and baskets of ferns and palms composed the remainder of the altar setting. In the center of the altar were candles for the candle ceremony and a double prayer bench.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gordon Britt, Jr. of Warsaw. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones of Wallace. The bride wore a white peau de soie and Venice lace gown fashioned with a high neckline and empire bodice which was accented with satin ribbon. A Camelot cap of lace held the full-length veil of illusion bordered with matching lace. She carried a nosegay of white roses, stephanotis, bysophilla, and yellow roses as accent with long white streamers.

Miss Tango Jo West served as maid of honor, and Mrs. Steve Jones of Wilmington served as matron of honor. They wore gowns of printed yellow voile with matching capes, and they carried a long-stemmed yellow chrysanthemum. Identical outfits were worn by the bridesmaids, Miss Martha Britt, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Euren Brinley of Wallace, sister of the groom.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Rudy Hasty and Miss Gall Costin and they carried a long-stemmed yellow rose.

Ronald Lane Jones of Wallace served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Archie Allen Jones of Wallace, brother of the groom, Russell Paul Britt, Jr. of Warsaw, and Steve Jones and John Leatherwood of Wilmington.

Mrs. Britt chose for her daughter's wedding an aqua polyester dress which featured a chiton neckline and chiffon sleeves with appliques and pearls on the sleeves and at the neckline. She wore matching accessories and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Jones wore a pink doubleknit dress with ruffles trimming at the neckline and on the long sleeves. She also wore matching accessories and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. B. J. Miller of High Point, grandmother of the bride, wore a mint green polyester dress and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Archie Jones of Wallace, grandmother of the groom, wore a pink-printed doubleknit dress and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

The wedding was directed by an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Morris McRay of Fairmont. The bride attended Louisburg College, and plans to enter Cape Fear Technical Institute in the fall.

The groom recently completed a tour with the U.S. Army in Viet Nam, and he is presently employed at Sneed, Inc. in Wilmington.

Following the ceremony the wedding party greeted guests in the vestibule of the church where Mrs. J. M. Kornegay presided at the guest register.

For a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, the bride chose a navy and white long sleeved dress with sleeveless jacket, white accessories, and a corsage of white roses. Upon their return they will be at home in Wilmington.

Immediately following the rehearsal on Friday evening, the bride's aunts, uncles, and grandmother, Mrs. B. J. Miller of High Point, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dickson, Jr. of Florence, South Carolina, Miss Ida Mae Britt of Parkton, Mrs. Morris McRae

Town Board Meeting

Mayor Carl D. Pate opened the business meeting of the June meeting of the Beulaville Board of Commissioners with a letter in connection with rezoning and Hunter's application for a business to be opened in a new residential area. A motion to have a public hearing was agreed to by the Board members. The public hearing will be held July 9, 1973, at 7:00 p.m.

Mayor Pate then read the official list of Beulaville Firemen. Following a brief discussion, the Alderman approved the list in motion by Roland Edwards.

Macon D. Brown, Brown Construction Company owner, stood and requested the town to install a sewer line at the Futrell house or a septic tank by the 25th of June. The Commissioners ruled out by vote the installation of a septic tank. No other steps were taken. All Beulaville residents will be notified by news media, since a new sanitary landfill has been made ready for Duplin County, the local dump will be closed July 1, 1973.

Mayor Carl D. Pate stated the question of personnel salaries. A motion was made by Joe Edwards to table the discussion until the next board meeting.

The last motion for the evening was in connection with the Township Pay Plan for town employees. With some revisions, the plan was adopted though not on a unanimous vote. The adjournment of the meeting followed this motion.
