Guthrie-Herring Vows Spoken

Miss Peggy Ann Herring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burke Herring, of Rose Hill, and Marvin Davis Guthrie, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie, Sr., of Chase City, Virginia, were united in marriage at three thirty Saturday afternoon July 28th at Mount Zion Presbyterian Church in Rose Hill.

The Rev. W. Clark Porter III, pastor of the bride, officiated. The vows were spoken before a background of palms and burning tapers in circular candleabra. The kneeling bench was cushioned in white satin and satin bows marked the family pews.

Mr. James Aycock, organist of Fremont, presented a program of nuptial music. Mr. and Mrs. William B. Saunders, of Concord, sang "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us" as a duet. Mrs. Saunders sang "They Will Know We Are Christians by Our Love" and Mr. Saunders sang "The Lord's Prayer" following the vows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white silk organza over taffeta. The eyelet embroidered empire bodice featured a high neckline with self ruffle, Venetian lace interwoven with white satin ribbon and short puffed sleeves. The full skirt with bands of lace and double ruffles at the hemline was topped with a bow in the back and extended into a sweep train. Her cathedral length veil of imported illusion was attached to a half Juliet cap of ruffled eyelet and Venetian lace. The gold necklace she wore was the gift of her great grandfather, W. B. Southerland, to his bride. She carried a nosegay of white carnations, miniature pink roses, gypsophila and fern with flowing white satin streamers.

Miss Joan Gregory of Atlanta, Georgia, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Megan Hood, of Charlotte, cousin of the bride, Miss Jackie Tate of Goldsboro and Miss Karen Fuch. All the attendants wore gowns of pink and white checked seersucker fashioned with a ruffled scoop neckline, short puffed sleeves and slightly gathered skirt. The inset waist featured a sash in the back. They carried nosegays of pink daisies, gypsophila and fern with pink satin ribbons.

Mr. Guthrie served as his son's best man. Ushers were Ricky Guthrie, of Chase City, Virginia, brother of the groom; Burke Herring, brother of the bride; Alfred Ward, cousin of the bride, and George Beam, of Clarksville, Virginia.

Mrs. Herring chose for her daughter's wedding a jacket dress of pink lace and crepe. The groom's mother, Mrs. Guthrie, wore a dress of lace trimmed blue crepe. Both wore white orchid corsages. Mrs. Oscar James, maternal grandmother of the bride, wore a dress of blue lace and a corsage of white roses.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. W. H. Saunders and Mrs. C. F. Hawes, Jr.

The bride is a graduate of Peace College in Raleigh. The groom is a student at North Carolina State University, Raleigh, where both Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie plan to continue their education.
