Jones-Rouse Wedding

In a lovely candlelight ceremony held at seven o'clock on Saturday evening, September 1, at the Charity United Methodist Church, Judy Ann Rouse became the bride of William Glenn Jones of Fort Bragg. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend John Roberts of Stantons, former pastor of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rouse of Rose Hill. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jones of Wallace.

The wedding vows were pledged before a setting of palms and two, fifteen-branched spiral candelabras entwined with clematis and greenery. An open Bible was used on the altar table. Candles with greenery lighted the windows in the church.

The honored paws were marked with white satin bows.

Mrs. Gene Simmons, cousin of the bride, presented a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony. "Trumpet Voluntary" was used as the processional and "The Wedding March" was used as the recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of candlelight bridal satin. The bodice of the dress, overlaid with embroidered chintilly lace was fashioned with a high neckline and long sleeves. The hem of the dress was bordered with chintilly lace. To complete the bride's attire, she wore a fingertip length veil of French illusion applied with lace flowers attached to a Juliet cap of lace and pearls. The dress and veil were designed and made by the bride's mother.

The bride carried a white prayer book with a cascade bouquet of red roses and stephanotis and streamers of white satin ribbon tied with love knots and centered with a white Georgette orchid.

Shirley Smith, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Smith wore a formal gown of hot pink crepe featuring a ruffled neckline and hemline and a midriff of embroidered ribbon. She carried a nosegay of red roses and mixed daisies.

An identical outfit was worn by Lori Roberts of Stedman, who was the bridesmaid. Little Kimberly Pane of Wilmington was flower girl. Kimberly's attire was identical to the other attendants and she carried a wicker basket with mixed flowers.

W. R. Jones served as his son's best man. Ushers were Billy Jones and James Jones, brothers of the groom. Al Rouse, friend of the bride, served as acolyte.

The mother of the bride wore a formal length willow green lutesong gown featuring long sleeves and trimmed with gold braid. She wore matching accessories and a white Georgette orchid.

The mother of the groom wore a gold polyester gown featuring long sleeves and gold braid. She wore matching accessories and a white Georgette orchid.

The grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Sam P. Jones, was presented a corsage of asters.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Hugh Rouse and Mrs. Pete Blanton.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of Wallace-Rose Hill High School. The groom is a 1972 graduate of Wallace-Rose Hill High School and is now serving in the U. S. Army.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party received on the church lawn. Mrs. Thomas Smith presided at the register. Rice flowers were presented to the guests upon leaving the church by Mrs. Harry Bradshaw. Both are friends of the bride.

Immediately following, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. For traveling the bride wore a green and navy polyester knit dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was the white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return, the couple will reside in Fayetteville.
