

Church Bazaar

A large variety of hand-made items, made by many people, will be on sale when the Kenansville United Methodists open their Bazaar on October 4th at 10:30 A.M. Not only have ladies in Duplin County been busy putting their talents in action for this event, one friend and relative of the church as far away as California has made a large contribution of beautiful Christmas ornaments and gifts for home and personal use—this person being Mrs. Jack Finn, mother of Mrs. Larry Warrington. Others contributing to this craft fair live in other parts of the state; Greensboro, Long Beach, Wilmington and Fayetteville are among the towns represented.

The Methodist Mall will be set up in the Fellowship Hall of the Kenansville United Methodist Church and will open its doors promptly at 10:30 A.M. and remain open until 8 p.m. on both Thursday and Friday, October 4th and 5th. Miss Malloy's tea room will be open from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. serving delicious homemade sandwiches and soup, pies and cake by the slice and beverage.

Inside the Mall will be found a variety of shops—The Children's Shop, The Gift Shop, The Christmas Shop, The Curiosity Shop, and the Country Store. The Country Store is of special interest since some of the best cooks in Duplin County will have supplies the store with all kinds of homemade goodies.

Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Thigpen of Route 1, Pink Hill announce the engagement of their daughter Nona Grace Thigpen to Victor Kent Jones, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford M. Jones of Route 2, Pink Hill. Wedding plans are incomplete at this time.
