Tucker-Snelling Vows Spoken

The wedding of Miss Janis Amelia Snelling, daughter of Russell Colonel and Mrs. Rollins C. Snelling of Amelia Island, Florida, and Jerry Michael Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tucker of Wickenburg, Arizona, took place, September 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Daniel Grady Sr., the bride's maternal grandparents. The Reverend Jack Dall, Pastor of Pleasantview Presbyterian Church, officiated at the lawn wedding.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a vintage gown from the 1800's made of voile with inserts of handmade crocheted lace, styled with crocheted buttons and tiny tucks on the waist and bodice. She wore a hand-headed nar-rajo-wedding veil of light blue with white and pink flowers embroidered within. The only jewelry she wore was an antique gold and diamond locket which belonged to her paternal grandmother, Hettie Campbell Snelling. The rainbow nosegay which the bride and her attendants carried consisted of pink, yellow, and blue tea roses, daisies and baby's breath with ribbon streamers.

Miss Susan Grady Snelling, McLean, Virginia, was her sister's maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Laura Elliott Boone, Falls Church, Virginia; Miss Sherry Ann Grady and Miss Dixie Carol Grady of Goldsboro, cousins of the bride. The flower girl was Miss DeAnn Ruth Ellis, Tarboro, cousin of the bride. Rollins Campbell Snelling, Jr., Aspen, Colorado, brother of the bride was the best man.

The vows were spoken under an archway trimmed with ivy and white chrysanthemums. The background was an ancient ivy covered oak tree surrounded by long leaf pines.

The bride is a graduate of Longley High School, McLean, Virginia and Virginia Intermont College, Bristol, Virginia where she received a degree in home economics.

The groom is a graduate of Wickenburg High School in Wickenburg, Arizona and attended North Arizona University. He is a silversmith and a dealer in antique Indian jewelry.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal couple was entertained at a reception on the lawn given by Mr. and Mrs.

J. B. Ellis, Tarboro, uncle and aunt of the bride and Miss Mary Anna Grady, Albertson, Aunt of the bride. Following the reception the parents of the bride entertained the guests at a picnicking and ice cream party.

After a wedding trip to Disney World the couple will reside in Pogosa Springs, Colorado.
