

Phillips-Beasley Vows Spoken

Believing that marriage is ordained by God, Jane Tilman Beasley and Paul Kornegay Phillips united their lives in Holy Matrimony on Saturday, January 8th, 1977, at four o'clock in the afternoon in Carlton United Methodist Church, Warsaw. The Reverend J. B. Helms was the officiating minister.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McDonald Beasley of Warsaw. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Everett Phillips of Kenansville.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mr. John W. Boyette, Jr. and Mrs. Tommie Phillips, aunt of the groom. Mrs. Phillips sang "Because" by Guy d'Hardelot and "A Wedding Prayer" by Lovelace.

The ceremony was officiated by the Rev. J. B. Helms. The bride wore a formal-length dress of lavender and pink floral polyester. The groom wore a formal-length dress of cranberry and grey floral polyester.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents. The bride wore a formal gown of ivory silk and organza over peau de soie. The bodice featured double rows of Italian lace trimming the V'd neckline, empire waist and encircled the full sheer bishop sleeves and sleeve cuffs. The flared circular skirt fell into an attached chapel-length train completely bordered with matching lace. Her fingertip mantilla flowed from a Camelot cap as matching Italian lace bordered the three layers of illusion. The bride carried an informal nosegay of Pink Sensation roses, gypsophila and fresh green Baker fern tied with white eyelet satin ribbons.

The couple spoke their nuptial vows before the church altar which was decorated with a large white arrangement of glads, mums, carnations, pompons and gypsophila flanked with double nine-light cathedral candelabra and fresh green flowing palms. The couple completed the ceremony by praying the Lord's Prayer with the congregation. Afterwards, "O Perfect Love" was sung by Mrs. Phillips, and the Trinity Candle was lighted.

Miss Toni Beasley was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Rodney Clark of Wilmington, college friend of the bride; Miss Lynn Laughinghouse, college roommate of the bride; Miss Diane Johnson, friend of the bride; and Mrs. David Phillips, sister-in-law of the groom. They wore gowns of cranberry polyester knit with cotton tatting ecru lace with a rib-knit sweater bodice featuring an empire silhouette and a stand-up split collar trimmed in ecru lace. The gown fell into an A-line skirt and the long fitted sleeves were trimmed at the wrist with ecru lace. They wore

Each attendant carried a formal symmetrical nosegay of pink carnations centered with a large white mum and tied with dubonnet and white streamers.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Paul E. Tucker of Magnolia, a friend and former teacher of the bride. Mrs. Everett Phillips, sister-in-law of the groom, presided at the register in the vestibule of the church.

Hubert Everett Phillips was his son's best man. Groomsmen were John Everett Phillips of Clemmons, and David Thomas Phillips, of Winston-Salem, brothers of the groom, and Earl Ronald Beasley and Dennis Neal Beasley, brothers of the bride, of Warsaw.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Beasley chose a formal gown of pink crepe. The sleeveless dress featured a V'd neckline and fell into an A-line skirt, with a matching jacket trimmed in pink sequins on the sleeves and collar of the jacket and on the bodice of the dress.

The mother of the groom wore a formal gown of rose pink georgette chiffon. The gown was fashioned with a pearl and iridescent "V" yoke insert, an empire waistline and a flowing formal-length cape. The nosegays were double white Cymbidium orchids accented with white antique brocade ribbons.

The maternal grandmother of the bride wore a formal-length dress of lavender and pink floral polyester. The paternal grandmother of the bride wore a formal-length dress of cranberry and grey floral polyester. The maternal grandmother of the groom wore a formal-length dress of light blue polyester with a matching floral formal-length coat. The grandmothers wore a single white Cymbidium orchid accented with pink brocade ribbons.

The bride is a graduate of James Kenan High School and Louisburg Junior College. She is presently attending the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. She plans to graduate in early childhood education. For her going-away outfit, the bride selected a grey blouse tied with a soft bow at the neck, a burgundy, grey and black plaid skirt, and a black velvet jacket. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

The groom is a graduate of James Kenan High School. He is engaged in farming and is a partner in New Duplin Tobacco Warehouse in Wallace.

After a wedding trip to Montego Bay, Jamaica, the couple is residing at Route 2, Warsaw.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts at a reception at the Tar Heel Room at the Rose Hill Restaurant. They were assisted by Mrs. Donnell E. Kornegay, aunt of the groom; Mrs. George E. Roderick, aunt of the bride; also Miss Julie Scott and Miss Jean Hall, friends of the bridal couple. Music was furnished by Miss Jane Blackmore at the piano. The table was centered with a large arrangement of glads, mums and carnations in a four-light candelabrum. On each side of the center arrangement were single candles with miniature mums and carnations.

Rehearsal Dinner
On Friday evening prior to the rehearsal, the bridal couple, parents, grandparents and the wedding party were entertained at a dinner at The Country Squire.

Bridesmaids Luncheon
On Friday, January 7th, Mrs. Marvin Johnson and Miss Diane Johnson entertained the bridesmaids and bridesmaids at a luncheon at The Country Squire. Mrs. Johnson and Diane presented the bride with a corsage of miniature chrysanthemums and the mothers and grandmothers with white carnations. Following the meal, the hostesses presented the bride with a gift.

Each attendant carried a formal symmetrical nosegay of pink carnations centered with a large white mum and tied with dubonnet and white streamers.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Paul E. Tucker of Magnolia, a friend and former teacher of the bride. Mrs. Everett Phillips, sister-in-law of the groom, presided at the register in the vestibule of the church.

Hubert Everett Phillips was his son's best man. Groomsmen were John Everett Phillips of Clemmons, and David Thomas Phillips, of Winston-Salem, brothers of the groom, and Earl Ronald Beasley and Dennis Neal Beasley, brothers of the bride, of Warsaw.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Beasley chose a formal gown of pink crepe. The sleeveless dress featured a V'd neckline and fell into an A-line skirt, with a matching jacket trimmed in pink sequins on the sleeves and collar of the jacket and on the bodice of the dress.

The mother of the groom wore a formal gown of rose pink georgette chiffon. The gown was fashioned with a pearl and iridescent "V" yoke insert, an

The following are the Duplin County Dean's List students at North Carolina State University, their fields of study, parents' names and addresses:

Wallace Perfect "A" Record
Sandra L. Atkinson, agricultural education, Mr. and Mrs. Z. R. Atkinson; and Esther J. Penney, psychology, Mrs. D. L. Penney.

"B Plus" or Better
Mary J. Coyne, product design, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Coyne; Gregory W. Salmon, engineering, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Salmon, Jr.

OTHERS
"B Plus" or Better
William L. Bradham, politics, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bradham, Chingnapin; Rosemary Brinson, politics, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Brinson, Kenansville; George B. Jordan, textile technology, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Jordan, Bowden; and Connie Wells, English, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wells, Mount Olive.

of silver. The bride presented her attendants, bridesmaids and hostesses with gifts of appreciation.

Luncheon
On Saturday, January 8th, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Everett Phillips, parents of the groom, entertained the bridal couple, wedding party, relatives and out-of-town guests at a luncheon at The Country Squire.

Luncheon
On Saturday, January 1st, Mrs. Graham Phillips and Mrs. Harry Phillips entertained Miss Beasley at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Graham Phillips. The beautifully appointed table was centered with an arrangement of pink and white carnations and daisies. Following the meal, the hostesses presented the bride-elect a gift of silver.

Bachelor Party
Friends of the groom and groomsmen entertained Paul and other friends on Tuesday, December 28th, at the home of Edward Dail with a chicken dinner.

Shower
The Ladies Circle of Carlton United Methodist Church honored the bride on Friday, December 3rd, with a miscellaneous shower at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Earl J. Beasley. The bride was presented a corsage of a large white mum. She received many nice and useful gifts.

Shower
Miss Jane Blackmore and Mrs. Ruby Blackmore honored the bride-elect on Tuesday, December 21st, at a miscellaneous shower at their home. The bride was presented a corsage of white roses. The occasion was enjoyed by high school and college friends of the bride.

WEDDING PLANS ANNOUNCED - Mrs. Lucille J. Brown of Rose Hill is proud to announce the forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Sheila Lynn, to David Ray Grady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Grady of Clinton. She is also the daughter of the late Preston Brown. A February 27th wedding is planned at Dobson Chapel Baptist Church on February 27th at four o'clock. Friends and relatives are invited to attend. No invitations are being mailed.

Dean's List

The following are the Duplin County Dean's List students at North Carolina State University, their fields of study, parents' names and addresses:

Wallace Perfect "A" Record
Sandra L. Atkinson, agricultural education, Mr. and Mrs. Z. R. Atkinson; and Esther J. Penney, psychology, Mrs. D. L. Penney.

"B Plus" or Better
Mary J. Coyne, product design, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Coyne; Gregory W. Salmon, engineering, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Salmon, Jr.

OTHERS
"B Plus" or Better
William L. Bradham, politics, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bradham, Chingnapin; Rosemary Brinson, politics, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Brinson, Kenansville; George B. Jordan, textile technology, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Jordan, Bowden; and Connie Wells, English, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wells, Mount Olive.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT - Mr. and Mrs. Winfred O. Miller of Route 1, Beaverville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gilda Miller to Jeffrey Allen Thigpen, son of Elwood Thigpen and Mrs. Betty Grey Humphrey, of Pink Hill. The wedding is planned for Sunday, February 27th at three o'clock in the afternoon at Hallsville Presbyterian Church.

VFW Honors JK Students

The Veterans of Foreign Wars honored three James Kenan students in the Voice of Democracy Contest. Their paper had to be written on "What America Means to Me." The three winners were Susan Todd, Dickie Fry and Henry Stone. They were honored with a very delicious meal. After the dinner, the students were recognized for their outstanding achievement. They each received a medal as well as prize money.

Q 3219 FEB 77
M.P. 27

Shout Them from the Classifieds!

Searching for the clever way to say "I Love You?" Our Happy Valentine Ads will be published on February 10, and offer you a truly unusual way to proclaim your love and best wishes. We have a size to fit every lover's budget and our friendly Advisors will be happy to help you write your message.

To Mom and Dad...
We couldn't have picked a nicer pair of parents in the world! Have a Happy Valentine's Day!
Mike and Sue

To My Wife, Jim...
After 15 wonderful years of marriage, I'm still head-over-heels in love with you!
Walter Z.

To Our Favorite Teacher
Mrs. Smith - Thanks for making Science fun to learn. We think you're tops!
From Your Class

To Jane...
To Jane - I want you for my Valentine, and I won't take "no" for an answer!
Love, Tom

296-2171

DUPLIN TIMES
KENANSVILLE

EXTENSION HOME ECONOMICS

MAE H. SPICER
JUDY H. WALLACE
DUPLIN COUNTY
HOME ECONOMICS
EXTENSION AGENTS
Kenansville, NC 28349
Telephone 296-4961

forget it. That's a family responsibility and not one for just one person to feel guilty about. If the family is comfortable in clutter, relax. If they're not, they'll help pick up.

Or perhaps you're a last minister? You plan meals by looking in the refrigerator a half-hour before eating time? Or you wait until the sack runs over before taking the trash out? There's nothing wrong with either of these. So why resolve to do differently?

Too often we feel guilty about the way we do things in comparison with the way our parents did their work. Or we let television shame us by showing how "Mabel's" floor always shines.

But keep in mind it's the big picture that counts - a home full of love and comfort for everyone - a home where jobs are shared and parents are taking the feeling of guilt that drives them into making resolutions that are impossible to keep.

Stay cool. Keeping the thermostat at 68° costs you 20% less than keeping it at 73°

Adding insulation to your home can help you save money on your energy bills. Call today for more information.