MISS CHRISTA GAY BLANTON - the North Carolina Poultry Queen, represented her state at the International Poultry Convention in Atlanta, Georgia, January 27-29. The event was sponsored by the Southeastern Poultry and Egg Association. Approximately 30,000 people attended. While there, Chris stayed in downtown Atlanta. She participated in many events at the World Congress Center and attended a banquet. Among the celebrities present were Dr. Earl Butz, former Secretary of Agriculture, Paul Harvey, Archie Campbell of "Hee-Haw", Jene Dixon, and the Murphys, a combo from Australia. Chris was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Blanton, and Bobby Howard of Kenansville.

Croatan III News

The Croatan III had its Annual Circus Carnival at the Warsaw Armory. It was a grand success. I would like to thank the Denleaders, parents and children for their cooperation and participation in making it successful.

I would like to announce that Croatan III will be having our Blue and Gold Banquet at New Christian Chapel Church on February 18 at 7:30 p.m. Hoping all parents and Denleaders and children will cooperate to make it a success. It will be a potluck banquet. There will be a basketball game on February 26 at 12:30 for the Cub Scouts at Wallace Recreation Center in Wallace.
