DUPLIN SENTINEL

DUPLIN 4-H LEADERS HONORED—Duplin 4-H leaders from Mount Olive to Warsaw were honored Friday night during the annual 4-H Leaders Banquet at the Country Squire restaurant near Warsaw. They are from left: Mrs. Florence Ingram, Wallace; Mrs. Dilcia Carr, Beaufort; Mrs. Willie B. Bowden, Beaufort; Mrs. Harriet Hattie Dobbins, Teachey; and Mrs. Pummie

Graham of Magnolia; Standing, Carol Register, Warsaw; Martin Luther Lanier, Chinquapin; Roma Edward Kenan, Chinquapin; Mrs. Ann Craft, Kenansville; William G. Sullivan, Mount Olive; and Franklin Boyette, Beaufort. The leaders were recognized for their outstanding contribution to the 4-H program in Duplin county.

Awards Presented To

Costin And Kilpatrick For 4-H Service

William "Bill" Costin of Warsaw, and David John Kilpatrick of Kenansville were presented the Duplin County 4-H Program's top awards Friday night during the 4-H leaders banquet at the Country Squire near Warsaw.

The two received co-awards as "Duplin County 4-H Outstanding Citizens." The award is presented annually to outstanding leaders of the Duplin 4-H program.

Costin, father of five children, has been a community 4-H leader for 15 years. He has served on the Duplin County Extension Advisory Board, the ASC community committee, National Advisory Committee on research and development of 4-H adult educational training, and has been on the United Methodist Church Administration Board for 20 years.

Kilpatrick, who is president of the Duplin County Farm Bureau, has been active in supporting Duplin 4-H programs. He serves on the board of directors for Duplin General Hospital, is active in his church, and is the father of seven children.

Baker said Costin and Kilpatrick are "people who really get involved in their community, and who serve not only their community but the state." He said, "It's people (like Costin and Kilpatrick) who are working with young people to give them the foundation they need."

Baker continued, "It's a real inspiration to me that most people like these winners are active in church, school, political and other activities in their communities."

Mrs. Lois Britt of Mount Olive, who has been a Duplin 4-H agent for many years, lauded the two winners and other leaders attending the banquet. "We appreciate each of you," she said. "We're in (the 4-H program) in a joint effort, the members are our boys and girls. We wish we had 500 more leaders like you."

M. C. Howell, Jr., extension chairman from Union County, was guest speaker at the event, and he praised Duplin County 4-H leaders for "doing so much more than other counties in our 4-H program."

Howell said the State 4-H program has new goals, and these include reaching at least 500 4-H'ers through each member of the University of North Carolina's Extension staff.

He told the leaders that North Carolina has a 4-H program "that is essentially operated by volunteers like you." He said, "There's no doubt about that, and you do it because you want to."

Wilson's wife, Rosemary Allen Wilson, is the new James Sprunt Institute visiting artist with a specialty in dance. She also works in visual arts. She is a native of Washington, D.C.

"The Liberty Cart" was first produced as a part of Duplin County's Bicentennial observance. The length of the drama will be cut from last year's 3 1/2 hours to between two and 2 1/2 hours.

The amphitheatre was constructed on a natural bank behind Kenan Memorial Auditorium in Kenansville.

Duplin County Public Schools Kindergarten Registration

The Duplin County Public School Administration urges all parents to register all children who were not registered during the fall of 1976 for the school year 1977-78. If you have registered your child, you need to get the physical examination form and have it completed by your physician and return to your principal.

The N. C. law and the Duplin County Board of Education have established certain entry requirements. It is necessary for you to comply with these, which are listed below:

Immunization - Diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough and polio myelitis vaccines. Rubella (red measles) vaccine. Immunizations must be completed prior to enrollment in the fall of 1977. Early registration will give time to have all requirements completed. Please bring immunization record.

A birth certificate or other satisfactory evidence of date of birth is required. To meet age requirement, the child must be five years old, on or before October 16, 1977. Please bring birth certificate.

Forms for physical examination have been placed in each elementary school and at the Board of Education. The physical must include the tuberculin test.

Schools with kindergarten are: B. F. Grady, Beaufort; Chinquapin I, Kenansville Elementary, North Duplin Elementary, Rose Hill-Magnolia, Wallace Elementary and Warsaw Elementary.
