Chambers-Williams United In Marriage

The marriage of Daryl Lyn Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Williams of Petersburg, Virginia, and AIC Colin Thomas Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Chambers of Kenansville, took place at three o'clock June 18th at Walnut Hill Baptist Church Chapel. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Glenn L. Plott, assisted by Dr. Robert Vaughan.

Ann Rackley of Kenansville accompanied herself on the guitar and sang "The Wedding Song."

The bride wore a white princess-styled gown of organza with long sheer sleeves and pearl inlaid designs. The stand-up collar was of lace. The skirt had small appliques surrounding it. She wore an heirloom headpiece of mantilla lace and carried a colonial cascade of white sweetheart roses.

Dianne W. King of Denver, Colorado, was her sister's matron of honor. She wore an ice-blue floor-length gown of qiana knit and carried two long-stemmed yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Donna L. Snead of Petersburg, Va. and Stephanie Tawes of Cresfield, Md. They wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant but carried one long-stemmed yellow rose.

Tracy Lyn King of Denver, Colo., niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a long gown of white dotted swiss trimmed in ice-blue ribbon. She carried three yellow sweetheart roses.

Mr. Chambers served as his son's best man. Ushers were Keith Chambers, brother of the groom, from Kenansville, Delmus E. Williams, brother of the bride, from Lexington, Va., and James Congreode, friend of the groom, from Petersburg, Thomas F. King, nephew of the bride, from Denver, Colo., was a junior usher.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length gown of pink polyester trimmed in silver. She wore a corsage of off-white cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother wore a floor-length gown of coral with long eyelid sleeves. She also wore an orchid corsage.

For travel the bride changed to a yellow jacket dress with beige accessories.

After a trip to the mountains of Virginia, the couple will live in Newport News, Va.

The groom is in the U. S. Air Force stationed at Langley Air Force Base in Virginia. The new Mrs. Chambers is a graduate of Longwood College of Farmville, Virginia.

How to give your place a fresh new face

Get a Home Improvement Loan from East Federal. Lets face it, nobody lives in a dream castle. Most people's homes need some fixing up. Roofs get old, gutters rust, paint cracks. These are facts of life.

Postponing home repairs only makes them more expensive. And this is where East Federal can help. With a Home Improvement loan that lets you get things fixed now, before they get worse.

A loan from East Federal can help finance preventative maintenance too, and save you money in the long run.

Take home insulation, for example. A thorough job, including attic insulation, storm windows and doors, can cut heating costs year after year, saving you hundreds of dollars.

Home improvements like insulation also add value to a home that grows each year. So why wait? If you need help in making your home a better place, look to the East.
