Residents of Guardian Care that last birthday in July were Gladys Lanier, Edna Brown, James Noble, Amy Young, Estelle Grubb, Cassie Brown, Mary Kennedy, Lena Murray, Donna Pollock, Rena Mercer and Ulysses Bass. The monthly birthday party was sponsored by Beaufort Presbyterian Church. The circle brought each resident a gift that had a birthday. Refreshments were enjoyed by all the residents who celebrated the birthdays.

Churches participating in services were Island Creek Church, Pine Grove Church and Mrs. Ace Sumner, Sunday School was held each Sunday morning with Harvey Blanton, teacher and church services follow immediately with Rev. Joe Heath.

The barber was in the barber shop on Mondays and the beautician came on Tuesdays. Everyone looks for the up-lift these two services bring.

Shopping day was each Thursday. Some of the residents go shopping with the volunteer and everyone looks forward to the special things she purchases for them.

Bingo was played each Thursday. We do appreciate the youth group of Friendship Methodist Church who are faithful to play Bingo and furnish prizes. The residents look forward to this time of fellowship and fun.

Rev. Paul Mull of Cedar Fork Baptist Church was in kind to share the Rhyan with Senior Group with us. This group did a marvelous job of singing, playing instruments and the puppet show was most enjoyable. They were a real delight and many residents participated.

The Young in Christ came and entertained in July. We always look forward to their visit.
