

CONTINUED FROM FRONT

CONTINUED ON PAGE 3

leaving plane

flowers presented

music by JK band

TV coverage

Faison News

Mrs. John Crow Ph. 287-3348

Student Council Officers Selected at ND
Student Council officers for 77-78 have been selected at North Duplin High School. They include: President, Ellen Lloyd; Vice-President, Adreian Boyd; Secretary, Deborah Frederick; Reporter, Shelia Jones; and Treasurer, Genetta Bradshaw.

Announce Birth
Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Jackson announce the birth of their daughter, Ruth Taylor, on October 21, 1977, in Wayne Memorial Hospital in Goldsboro. Mrs. Jackson is the former Becky Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Taylor of Faison.

Mrs. Bowden Bridge Hostess
Mrs. Mosley C. Bowden was hostess to her bridge club last Friday afternoon. Miss Sally Butler was high scorer. Completing the two tables were: Mrs. Clarence A. Lingle, Sr., Mrs. Dennis Lee, Mrs. Hicks Pigford of Calypso, Mrs. James E. Faison, Mrs. Norwood K. Oates, Mrs. R. L. Benson and Mrs. Mason Baugham.

Barbecue Dinner and Supper
The Hobbs High School parents are sponsoring a barbecue pork and chicken dinner and supper Saturday night, October 29th from 11 a.m. until 8 p.m. Plates will be $2.50 and the proceeds will go to the Band.

so they can take a trip to the Mardi-Gras in New Orleans, La. in February.

Personals
Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brock and children attended the State Fair in Raleigh Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry King and daughter of Fayetteville and Wilson King, Jr. spent the weekend with their mother, Mrs. King, Sr. They celebrated Larry's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Crow and Mrs. Lila Mae Smith shopped in Raleigh Sunday.

Mrs. Annette Stanley and Bob of Goldsboro were dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.M. Davis Sunday.

Mrs. Billy Knowles of Warsaw spent Wednesday and Thursday nights of last week with her mother, Mrs. Ralph Oates.

North Duplin High School Band won the first place trophy for "Best Majorettes" in Class C at the Richmond County (N.C.) Band Festival Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown spent Thursday night in Raleigh with Mr. and Mrs. David Ellis and attended the State Fair Friday and worked in the Firemen's Pickle Booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Oates, Jr. of Raleigh visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Oates, Sr. during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Blackmon and daughters spent the weekend in Wilmington with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Estal King.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wilson, Jr. and children of Richmond, Va. spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McCullen.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butler of Hollywood, Fla. were weekend guests of his sister, Miss Sally Butler, and aunt, Mrs. Norwood Oates.

Mrs. Bill Igoc, Mrs. Luther Taylor, Jr. and Mrs. Jack Williams returned home Monday night after several days in Williamsburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtiss Cates visited their daughter, Laura, a student at Davidson College over the weekend.

Whaley Rest Home, Inc.
Sunday, October 16, the Christian Youth group from Grove Presbyterian Church visited and sang for the residents during their Sunday School hour. That afternoon, the Rev. Kenneth Hall of the Calvary Baptist Church spoke to the residents.

Tuesday morning, the Rev. Paul Mull from the Cedar Fork Church near Beaufort came for a worship service. His wife, Ann, played the piano. Mrs. Ola Faye Edwards and her son also came with the Mulls, as did Gloria Raynor and Ero Brown. In the afternoon the residents enjoyed entertainment by Clark Jones from JSI, who played the banjo and other instruments.

The Once-a-month Hairdressers also came Tuesday afternoon. These ladies are from the Wallace area and include Grace Norris, Linda C. Sholar, Eunice English, Margaret Wallace, Ruby Johnson, Peggy Olson, Nell Stanton, Frances Young, Faye Hanchey and Bernice Cavenshugh. Their services are greatly appreciated.

Rev. Tim Henry and The Believers Trio came Wednesday with a special guest, the Rev. Leon Stewart, vice-chairman of the Pentecostal Holiness Denomination from Oklahoma City, Okla. He brought a message from Psalm 71.

Volunteers this week were Blanche Draughon and Nancy Herring from Warsaw.

Bingo coverall winner was Viola Blizzard. She chose stationary for her prize.

On Thursday, Mrs. Ben Elkin from Warsaw, a retired school teacher from East Duplin, sent a beautiful arrangement of flowers to the rest home, according to Janice Hall, Activities Director.

Sandy Plains Halloween Carnival

The Sandy Plains Free Will Baptist Church on Highway 241, 4 miles north of Beaufort, will be holding a Halloween Carnival Friday, October 28th beginning at 7 p.m. with a costume contest. At 8 p.m. there will be an auction and at 9 o'clock a greased pig catch. Also there will be a spook trail, country store, games, rides, and a greased pole. Rain date is November 4. Everyone is invited to join in the fun.

Deaths - Funerals

MRS. ANNA E. BERGER WALLACE - Mrs. Anna Reamer Berger died Wednesday, October 26, 1977. Funeral, Edgerton Funeral Home chapel. Graveside service at Oheb Shalom Cemetery, Baltimore, Md.

Surviving: daughter, Mrs. Arthur (Elaine) Apple of Wallace; sister, Mrs. Edith Glassman of Baltimore, Md.; brothers, Abe and William of Arlington, Va.; two grandchildren.

LUCINDY DUNN WHALEY
WARSAW - Mrs. Lucindy Dunn Whaley, 60, of Route 1, Kenansville, died Tuesday. Funeral, Calvary Baptist Church, Kenansville. Burial, Golden Grove Cemetery.

Surviving: widower, Robert Whaley; daughters, Mrs. David Willis of Cary, Mrs. Johnnie Herring of Columbus, Ga., Mrs. Franklin Spence of Goldsboro, Mrs. Bill Casteen of Kenansville, Miss Joann Whaley of the home; sons, Johnny of Warsaw, David and Ed of Kenansville, Randall of Calypso, Robert, Jr. Dennis, and Billy Ray, of the home; sister, Mrs. Willard Brown of Kenansville; 34 grandchildren; one great-grandchild.

WILLIAM M. McCULLEN MOUNT OLIVE - William Max (Bill) McCullen, 46, retired air force sergeant, died Saturday, October 22, 1977. Funeral, Tyndall Funeral Home chapel. Burial, Herring and McCullen family cemetery.

CECILIA CYRUS ROSE HILL - Mrs. Cecilia Cyrus, 75, died Sunday. Funeral, Salem Baptist Church chapel, Pink Hill. Burial, family cemetery.

Surviving: sons, Grant of Rose Hill, Jarvis Cyrus of Springfield, Mass., Mrs. Josephine Benjamin of Washington, D.C., Mrs. Ida C. Gayle of Los Angeles, Calif.; 14 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren.

MARY B. EVANS ROSE HILL - Mrs. Mary Butler Evans, 80, died Sunday. Funeral Friday, Friendship Baptist Church. Burial, church cemetery.

REFORMATION SUNDAY

Grove Presbyterian Church in Kenansville will have a special fifth Sunday service October 30th at 11 a.m. "Reformation Sunday" will be observed. The public is invited to attend.

Kenansville News

Personals
Mr. and Mrs. Roe Greene of Wilmington spent several days here last week at their country cottage.

Mrs. A.T. Outlaw and Mrs. N.B. Boney shopped in Wallace last Wednesday morning.

Mrs. E. A. Newton and Mrs. C.B. Guthrie visited Mrs. Noble Martin in Lenoir Memorial Hospital last Wednesday.

Mrs. Wilbur Adams of Carolina Beach spent last Thursday night with her sister, Miss Margaret Williams.

Mrs. Sallie C. Ingram, Martha P. Sitterson and Louise W. Mitchell spent several days last week in the mountains of North Carolina and Virginia.

Phyllis Fields Brunson of Jacksonville spent last weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kornegay, also Mr. and Mrs. Colon Holland attended Homecoming at Rone's Chapel Church near Mount Olive on Sunday.

Ruby Kornegay and her sister, Louise Bullock of Mount Olive, visited the Jerry Paschalls in Whiteville one day last week.

Mrs. Thomas Hughes accompanied Mrs. Maurice Brinson to Goldsboro last Thursday.

Mrs. Louise W. Mitchell and Louise K. Boney accompanied Rev. Troy D. Mullis to Camp Kirkwood last Saturday to a workshop on Christian Education.

Mrs. Eloise K. Ryder and Emmett Jones of LaGrange accompanied by Mrs. Alice Farmer of Kingston visited the E. S. McGowans last Thursday.

Charles Stephens, Jr. of Richmond, Va. is spending the week here with his brother, Billy, and other relatives.

Vickie Alabaster and Joyce W. Bell attended the District meeting of Alpha Delta Kappa in Jacksonville last Saturday.

Mrs. Jack Sitterson spent the weekend with her sister, Ina N. Taylor in Wilmington.

DANCA THEATRE Wallace

3 BIG NIGHTS

Fri. Through Sun. — Oct. 28-30

One Show Nightly 8:30 p.m.

They lived by the law of the jungle...

Kill or be killed.

TIGER FORCE

Senior-Parents Night At East Duplin

All seniors and their parents are invited to a program at the East Duplin High School Library on Thursday, October 27 at 7:30 p.m.

The guidance counselors, Mrs. Esther Durham and Mrs. Beatrice Quinn, will discuss college applications and scholarships and Miss Pat Creek from the College Foundation in Raleigh will discuss financial aid opportunities and procedures. This will be an informative meeting and it is hoped that all parents of seniors planning for post-secondary education will attend.

Help Hold Down Future Electric Costs

Vote FOR Amendment 4

Paid for by the Political Committee of ElectriCities of North Carolina

HELP WANTED

IF YOU NEED MONEY FOR CHRISTMAS AND ARE EXPERIENCED IN FACTORY SEWING, SINGLE NEEDLE OR OVERLOCK

APPLY TO

HAR-SCOTT CO.

IN PINK HILL ON STROUD ROAD

JOHN WEATHERLY

For Warsaw Town Commissioner on Tuesday, November 8

"A Businessman Who Cares"

VOTE FOR AND RE-ELECT

It has been my pleasure to serve the citizens of Warsaw as a member of the Town Board of Commissioners and I appreciate the cooperation that has been shown. I pledge my continued efforts to work for a better and more progressive Warsaw, and will appreciate your support and vote on Tuesday, November 8, JOHN WEATHERLY.