KENANSVILLE, NC 28349 NOVEMBER 3. 1977

10 PAGES THIS WEEK

10 CENTS PLUS TAX

Local Governing As Well As State Issues To Be Decided November 8

Citizens of Duplin County will go to the polls on Tuesday. November 8th, to elect portions of their municipal governing bodies and to vote for two bond sues and five Constitutional

On the state level, we will help decide if a surviving spouse of either sex receives homestead exemptions as well as the bad.

Voters will have a voice as to whether a wife may insure her life for the benefit of her family and know that her insurance is free from creditors. On November 8th, it will be decided if a governor may be elected for a second consecutive year term. The people will vate for or gainst an "electric city" being permitted to own a percentag of a facility jointly with privat power companies. This would power companies. This would not permit the use of tax funds. An amendment requiring the State to maintain a balanced budget will be on the November Shallor acountians will approve or pprove of a $300,000, lighway Bond Issue. And, the citizens will denote Nitional Conference of Com-missioners of Uniform State Laws. Former Superior Court Judge Winifred T. Wells of Wallace was appointed to the commission, which socks to te will provide mat ids to eligi governments for impre banding, or construction litities for waste water ment and water supply system

Municipal Elections Wallace, with 1223 register voters, will vote for 2 candida for 4-year terms to the Te Board. Candidates are inc

Warsaw, the second largest town in the County, with 1,247 registered voters, will vote for a Mayor and two Town Board members. Sam Godwin is un-opposed for Mayor. Three candidates have filed for the sitions. They are incumbents W.E. Foster and W. John Weatherly,III, who was ap-pointed to fill the unexpired erm of R.P. Wood, and Kenneth A. Guy.

Con the sorthern end of the county, the Town of Calypso, with 218 registered voters, will have to decide between 4 can-didates for Mayor, and five out of ten candidates for Town Board. Candidates for Mayor are incumbent G. Glanton Barwick, Norwood Barfield, who also ran in 1975, Randall Guy Whalew and Hope Winzins.

also ran in 1975, Kandall Guy Whaley and Hope Wiggins. Candidates for two-year terms on the Calypso Town Board are incumbents Thomas W. Albritton, S. D. Davis, Jr. and James, A. Parker. Also running are James Carter, Joe Daniels, Cecit M. Langing, ICE.

J.R. Aumer and Mosley C. Waters. Incumbent Mayor Ruby

amsey is unopposed in her the for Mayor of Teachey. Six indidates have filed for the five sitions on the Town Board. hey include incumbents, eorge T. Brown, Daniel V. orris, Mike Postner and amuel H. Wells, as well as

W.O. Montford and Henry Wells, Jr. There are 110 egistered voters in Teachey Perry Whaley has filed for seeking another 4-year term. There are 602 citizens registered to vote.

The Town of Magnolia, with 300 voters, will elect three Town Board members. Incumbents Clarence Evans and Hubert Lee Howard have filed, along with Preston Hall, Frank W. Krause, e Bromley R. Pope and Millard

The Town of Faison will elect a Mayor and three Town Board members. Mayor Pro-tem William Igoe did not file for re-election as Mayor, but he is socking a 4-year term on the Board. Filing for Mayor were P.B. Carter, W.R. Clifton and Alton King, Sr. Filing for Town Board were incumbent Helen Little Britt, Billie Franklin Cooper, Will Cottle, W.J. Igoe, Melvin Rogers and Fred W. Wheless. There are 449 registered voters in Faison.

Douglas Judge will be unpposed in his race for Mayor of Kenansville. Two seats are open on the Town Board. Candidates are incumbent Philip Kretsch. Ir., Nick Bowden, Earl Hatcher and Cordell Johnson. There are 478 registered to vote in Kenansville.

Voters in Beulaville will elect a Mayor and two Town Board members. Candidates for Mayor are Mayor Carl D. Pate, Sr. and Marion Edwards. Running for Town Board are incumbent Wilbur Hussey, Jr., Donald Ray Brown, Douglas Brown, John M. Simmons and Mervin Whaley. There are 535 voters in Beulaville.

approval of issuance of $230,000,000 State Clean Water

Bonds. Proceeds of the bonds would be divided $112,500,000 for wastewater treatment and collection facilities grants ($75,-000,000 for treatment and $37,500,000 for collection); $110,000,000 for water supply facility grant ($79,000,000 un-allocated) and $7,500,000 for administration.

Highway Bonds

The question will be to approve or not to approve a $300,000,000 State Highway Bond. The proceeds of the bonds would be divided -$175,000,000 for the primary highway system; $75,000,000 for secondary highway system, and $50,000,000 for the urban system to be allocated by the Board of Transportation. The one-cent per gallon gasoline tax for debt service would be con-

Clean Water Bonds The question would be for tinued until the bonds are retired.

Public Hearing Monday On Purchase Of Blount House

Controversy over the pur-chase of the historic Blount house for a possible Town Hall will be heard at a public hearing in Kenansville Monday at 7:30

The Kenansville Town Board approved at a meeting last onth to negotiate for the house fended the move, saying the Southern Appraisal Co., which by a 3-2 vote. Mrs. Elbert Long. William Fennell and John Hall VOL notd the public hearing. Johnson Tuesday said he hopes the people turn out for the hearing, regardless of which side they take. He wants to know the feeling of the people as the Board is supposed to represent them.

Mayor Douglas Judge de-

of change, but for the sake of progress." Mayor Judge said. Johnson, however, contends Johnson, however, contends it is an old house on a choice piece of commercial property that should be left as com-mercial property so the Town can receive taxes from it. Johnson believes the heating bill would be high, and says Liberty

buy the house just for the sake

IONG. . . AIN'T THEY! . It didn't take much ngth for Jay Jones to lead the James Kenan rs through the "Paper Tiger" held by the rleaders last Friday night as a part of JK's

Old Charlie Brown sholgun and outsin te of myself at times for a turkey at last we she does the same for meeting of the Law Enfo o. . . But I surely do Il for him at least one

Davis Chestnitt brought back memory a few weeks back hen , he mentioned Hilda rown. . I remember one night ilda was going to a basketball ame in Warsaw when Mag-olia was to play Warsaw at the

was not so good, so she decided to try again. This time she didn't put the stock against her shoulder and when she pulled the trigger, the gun jolted back against her shoulder and then bounced up against her jaw. This was the winning shot. Got her a blue shoulder, a hurting jaw, and a tarkey. d Warsaw gym. . . She was ing with Sally Mae Jones and r sinter, who was known as Donna and I went to the Homecoming football game this past Friday at James Kenan.

Sally's dad and I mber if Sally's t or not. . .But Hilda ne a note in school ready and stammed it is door on the Weil of course I had to be dones. I went over and got myself a seat beside her and we held hands and looked at each the for most of the hallgame. Wondertial night I thought that are series Mr. Jones, on the wondertial night I thought that are series Mr. Jones, on the wondertial night I thought that are series Mr. Jones, on the wondertial night I thought that and L asked. "Who was alking about the game, and "ister". who was sitting with thide and L asked. "Who was alking about the game, and "ister". who was sitting with thide and L asked. "Who was alking about the game, and "ister". Who was sitting with thide and L asked. "Who was alking about the game, and "ister". Who was sitting with thide and L asked. "Who was all three looked up inside it. Now that is a dumb feeling, it are with three keys to the locked in the form or rear com-ant night, didn't ener. "Innee! I taker it is president of "N.C. County Accountants" "stockaide. The group "the same and was subjected to the keys. Thank you. Graham. "You sure were a lifease." "And to make matter wore borna. Son of a life sage and was subjected to the keys. Thank you. Graham. "You sure were a lifease." she was going to the ... Well, of course I had to

We arrived a little late, and I was rushing around trying to load my camera with fresh film and change the lens. Got it all ready and slammed the door on the VW. Just as the door shut, ment Association. Her first sh was not so good, so she decide contest. The contest is sponsored each week by the following busi-nesses: Smith Brothers Gas Homecoming. Later the Tigers did show their strength as they defeated Richlands 21-8 (Other pictures on Page 10.)

Wells

Appointed

Governor Jim Hunt has a op common laws among tates in certain areas.

Football

Contest

Winners

the appo

eulavile: Golden Skillet of arsaw: Rivenbark Motors of arsaw: Kenansville Drug bre of Kenansville: Brown's abinet & Millwork. Inc., of binet & Millwork. Inc., of Hill: Tadlock Chrysler-ymouth. Inc., of Warsaw; ast Auto Parts of Warsaw; enansville and Benlaville. Kenansville and Beulaville: Warsaw Motor Company of Warsaw: Blackburn's Service Oil Company of Warsaw: and The Duplin Times of Kenans-

TEWER

Awards Exhibits Program

Planning

Grenner

A perfect score by Mary Lynn¹ Pittman of Raleigh won the football contest last week. Steven Wilson of Kenansville won second place by missing only one game. Five entries missed only to games in the ed.

Company of Magnolia, and Beulaville Gas Company of Beulavile: Golden Skillet of bent Lloyd J. Boone, Willie M. Biggs, Jesse Denkins, Norman Pate Evans, Rebs E. Harvell, Bobbie W. Marshburn and Dulan E. Murray, Incumbent Mayor Charles C. Farrior in

against incumbent Mayor Benjamin L, Harrell. The two positions on the Town Board are unconcered as incumbents I Phil Kretsch opposed the purchase. Johnson said three petiopposed as incumbents L. tions against the purchase are. Clayton Herring, Jr. and Graham J. Robinson, Jr. are being circulated in town. Kretsch made the motion to

Duplin 4-H'ers Appear In National Talent Show

A group of Duplin County 4-H'ers have been invited to appear in a National Talent Show. The "True Spirit Singers" of Cedar Fork will appeared on Sunday, October 30 in Convention Center in Winston-Salem as a part of the National Junior Horticultural Association meeting, Members through participation in county, district and state competition in 4-H. Approximately 500 people will be in attendance at the meeting representing 4-H Horticultural work throughout the nation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hunter and Mrs. Stanley Raynor are volunteer 4-H leaders for the Cedar Fork 4-H Club.

is revaluating Duplin County for members Jimmy Johnson and tax purposes, valued the house and lot at $35,500.

Replacement value of the house alone is estimated at $26,000.

A local appraiser put a value of $42,000 on the house and property. Mrs. P.B. Raiford, owner of the house, has asked $37,000 for it with payment scheduled over a 6-year period at 6% interest in a lease-purchase arrangement. "We are not attempting to Hall had monthly heating bills of more than $400 during last winter, and the temperature was held down to 65 degrees.

"My opinion is a Town Hall should be a modern place, with modern facilities, but with energy conservation in mind." Johnson said. "I would be embarrased to take some people to the Blount House and tell them this was Kenansville's Town Hall," he added.

The house was built by Dr. James W. Blount in the early 1800's.

Duplin County. The group was selected Warsaw Veterans' Week

Warsaw Veterans' Week delebration will begin next week with activities planned through-

The Duplin County 4-H be held on Tuesday. nber 8th in Kenan Audi-n in Kenansville. The will be open to the for viewing at 3 p.m. and centration of a planed through-out the week. A night carnival with local boths, games, exhibits and Midget League Football on Wednesday night have been planned. All these activities will take place at the Warsaw Recreation Department. The big all-day celebration will be Saurday. November 12, and begin with the annual Yeterans Day Parade at 11 a.m The man of the National Guand will be honored as Parade Man sinais this year. Lloyd Parker Chaisman of the celebration and the Yeterans' Committon and the Town of Warraw was no recognize the men of the National Guard for their defini-cation and aervice to the Guant to the Siste of North Caroling and to the citizens of Dupi rards program will be 7 p.m. and is open to the ns of Du lones.

Jones. On April 14, 1947, the Warsaw National Guard was activated and granted federal recognition with strength of 2 officers and 42 enlisted men-the unit was designated Company M. 119th infantry. 30th infantry Divison. This was accomplished by Major General William M. Buck (then Capt.) by much hard work and dedice-tion to have a unit in Warsaw. Guarters for the unit were made in the A.J. Jenkins building in Warsaw. Facilities were very limited and consisted of an office, supply room and arms mom.

som. In January, 1949, the motor torage building was completed ad served as an Armory until completion of the present mory, which was completed d dedleated in Pebruary,

H.C. Allen, Jr., retired Major Raymond W. Rivenbark along with Sgt. Cecil Bostic, Sgt. Carroll Best. Sgt. George C. Kornegay and Major Arnold Lener ranking officer positions within the National Guard. The following is a list of officers who have commanded; the Warsaw

Department of Transportatio Secretary, Thomas Bradishaw toured Duplin Tuesday as part of his state-wide "bond wagon" tour to generate support for the highway and clean water bond issues issues. Mayor Charles Farrier pre-sented a resolution of support from the Wallace Town Board on both insues. Bradshaw also received resolutions of support for the and Lt. Linwood M. Horton; issues from Kenansville's toor board represented by Mayo Douglas Judge, and the count Board of Commissioners, repre-sented by Chairman J. W Hoffler, Greensvers Mayor Al-Brown told Bradshaw the Counter and Bradshaw the Greenovers board also a ported bolb lakues . Bradehow told officials Do would receive Discussion

CO-QUEENS - (L to R) Becky Byrd and Benita Wilson were crowned the Co-Queens of the James Keuan High School Homecoming Court during halftime last Friday night.

DOT Secretary Visits Kenansville