

Kenansville News

Parade
Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Paschal of Whiteville and their daughter Janice, a student at NCSU, spent Sunday with the Gordon Kornegays. Other guests on Sunday were Mrs. Louise Bullock and Mrs. Helen Waller of Mount Olive.

The Bruce Butlers spent Friday night in Raleigh and returned home Saturday afternoon.

The Elbert Longs had supper in Clinton with relatives and friends Saturday night.

Mrs. Henry Huggins and Mrs. Wynona Hayden of Wilmington visited Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hughes last Tuesday. Last week, Howard Jones, Deane Tilton and Paul Kinsey of Oakland, Me., visited Mr. Jones' father, Bob Jones, and for a bird-hunting trip. They were impressed with North Carolina and Duplin County hospitality. They were entertained at The Country Squire, Duplin Country Club and the last night of their visit, Mr. Jones entertained at a catered pig-pickin'.

Mrs. J.J. Wells attended a meeting in Wilmington Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Robert Hollingsworth spent several days last week in Fayetteville with her daughter, Mrs. Rudy Navidad and family.

Miss Mary Lee Sykes has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Martha Eubanks near Wilmington.

Mrs. Louise Swenson and her houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Oakland of Providence, R.I., went to Topsail and Surf City Sunday where they had a seafood supper.

Mrs. Pearl McGowan and Mrs. Louise Mitchell attended the DAR luncheon meeting last Tuesday in Rose Hill.

Mrs. Gordon Kornegay made a business trip to Goldsboro Thursday.

Mrs. Alton Newton has returned to her home here after a visit with her daughter, Dr. Sally Morrow and family in Dike, Iowa. Her sister, Mrs. Nina Boone of Kinston, visited her one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Stroud spent the weekend with their daughter, Sharon in Sumter, S.C.

Liberty Hall Bridge Club
The Liberty Hall Bridge Club met with Mrs. A.T. Outlaw

Wednesday night, January 11th with Mrs. H.D. Taylor substituting for the only absent member. High scorer for the evening's play was Mrs. Hortense T. Hasty. She was given a gift and so was Mrs. Taylor. For refreshments, Mrs. Outlaw served a dessert course before the games began.

Homeowners Club
The South Kenansville Homemakers Club held its January meeting Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W.M. Ingram, with President Mrs. J.B. Stroud presiding. Mrs. Louise W. Mitchell led the opening song. The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Ingram. She read from Hebrews and based her remarks on the word "Faith". This was followed by a special prayer for the success of the club's work in this new year.

Mrs. Mae H. Spicer, Home Agent, had charge of the program on "Organization and Leadership." She gave out the new workbooks which members partially filled in during the meeting. They plan to finish next month when the absent members, they hope, will be present. The February meeting will be Friday, the 17th, with Mrs. Louise W. Mitchell.

When Secretary Mrs. N.B. Boney called the roll, members answered by telling what she was doing to try to conserve energy. She read the December minutes, which were duly approved.

Mrs. Colon Holland, Treasurer, gave her report and as chairperson for the nominating committee announced the officers for the ensuing year. The president, Mrs. J.B. Stroud, the secretary, Mrs. N.B. Boney, and the treasurer, Mrs. Colon Holland, remain the same, but Mrs. Ralph Barwick will be the incoming vice-president.

The president urged the members to save their old stamps and old Christmas cards. Mrs. Spicer reminded the club of County Council to be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, January 26th in the Agricultural Building.

Baptist Circles
The Cora Stokes Circle of the women of the local Baptist Church met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Cleora Hudson. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. George Penney and Mrs. Woodrow Brinson had charge of the program. Her topic was "New Year's Resolutions." After the closing prayer, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ellis Vestal, served cake and coffee

Whaley Rest Home
The residents and all who are connected with Whaley Rest Home, Inc. again thank everyone who helped make it a brighter Christmas there. They hope that no one who helped has been overlooked.

On Sunday, January 8th, the Rev. Preston Dunn visited the Home. That morning, the Sunday School hour was in charge of Mrs. Leona Teachey.

Bingo overall winner last week was Mrs. Odessa Tatum, who chose a food canister for her prize.

The Rev. William Littleton and his wife from the Cabin Free Will Baptist Church came for a service on Wednesday, the 11th of January.

Three of the regular residents, Mesdames Annie Padgett, Lola Waller and Martha Simmons, are patients in Duplin General Hospital.

Many of the residents keep busy with arts and crafts, which is a great pastime when they are able to participate.

Thursday, January 12th, a film, "Shorelines of Progress," borrowed from the Duplin County-Dorothy Wightman Library, was shown.

Mesdames Blanche Draughon, Margaret Pollock and Nancy Herring of Warsaw are still doing volunteer work on Wednesdays and are greatly appreciated.

Golden Chapter #72, OES

Golden Chapter #72, OES of Kenansville met in regular session Saturday, January 7th.

With the Worthy Matron and Patrons in place, and all stations filled, the first meeting of the year opened in ritualistic order. Worthy Matron Babe Brinson thanked the members for their support in 1977 and expressed hope for a better and more fruitful year in 1978.

After the meeting adjourned, Sister Mae Bell Borden served and presented the Worthy Matron with a gift. The meal was enjoyed by all and those not present received a treat that will be long remembered.

J. Ross, Reporter

in her garage.
The Ella Cooper Circle met Monday night with Mrs. Annes Brinson, who also had charge of the program. She was assisted by Mrs. Jack Brinson. Their topic was "North Central Calling." The business session was presided over by Mrs. Earl Hatcher. A social hour followed, during which time the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Willard Brinson, served angel delight and coffee to the eleven present.

Presbyterian Women's Circle #1 of the Women of Groves Presbyterian Church met Monday afternoon, January 9th, with Mrs. A.T. Outlaw, who made the opening prayer and presided. Mrs. N.B. Boney moderated the Bible Study taken from Judges 4 and 5. She was assisted by Mesdames Winford Howard, Robert Hollingsworth, J.B. Stroud and Jimmy Stroud. They discussed Deborah. At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Outlaw served jello topped with whipped cream, fruit cake, cheese and coffee to the nine ladies present.

Circle #2 met Monday night with Mrs. Troy D. Mullis. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. J.J. Wells, and Mrs. Martha P. Silterson moderated the Bible Study on Deborah. She was assisted by Mrs. Wells. After the closing prayer, Mrs. Mullis, assisted by Mrs. Louise W. Mitchell, served cake squares, toasted pecans and coffee to the nine members present.

United Methodist Women Meetings

The afternoon Circle of the United Methodist Women met with Mrs. W.M. Ingram. Mrs. Viola Quinn conducted the opening Devotional and presided over the meeting. The Bible Study on "Eve" was led by Mrs. Ingram. For refreshments, the hostess served chocolate cake, cheese tidbits and coffee.

The evening Circle met with Mrs. Hazel W. Scott. Mrs. Delaine Rector had charge of the program and presided over the meeting. Her topic was "Twelve Months to Grow in 1978." Mrs. Bruce Butler made the opening prayer. At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Scott, assisted by Mrs. Stuart Hall, served fruit cake and coffee to the eight members and one visitor present.

Eastern Star

The Efficiency Chart was checked when Kenansville Chapter #215, OES, met for its regular bi-monthly meeting Tuesday night, January 10th in the Masonic Temple. The Worthy Matron, Virginia D. Holland, was in her station, assisted by her husband, Colon Holland, acting as Worthy Patron. There were 15 members present, which was quite good for such a cold night. The next meeting will be on Tuesday, January 24th at 7:30. All members are urged to remember that date and try to come. They are also reminded that there are only two more months in this chapter year.

Duplin Receives Grant To Work With Out Of School Disadvantaged

According to Lester Moore, Director of CETA Programs, Title I and III Work Experience, Duplin County received a CETA Grant under Title III to work with disadvantaged out-of-school youths ranging in age from 16 to 21. Program components will be a Specialized Opportunity Services (SOS) Center. SOS centers will be operated in coordination with existing CETA Title I youth activities and will provide the following services to out-of-school youth: 1. Outreach, recruitment and intake. 2. Information and referral. 3. Assessment and counseling. 4. Job development and placement. 5. Follow-up.

SOS Centers will not duplicate existing Title I activities. The Duplin County SOS Center will be located in offices in the county building formerly used to issue surplus food on Highway 11 in Kenansville, next to the County School Bus Garage, in back of the dog pound. The telephone number is 296-0627 and office hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The duties and responsibilities of an SOS Center staff are to provide information and referral to all interested persons and to provide services to eligible out-of-school youths from ages 16 to 21.

Each Opportunity Specialist Counselor will carry a participant case load and have primary responsibility for insuring that each participant develops and implements an "Opportunity Plan." The Opportunity Plan will be a detailed account of:
1. Education and skill training to be provided, steps to be taken, time frame and contact persons in referred education and/or training programs.
2. Supportive services to be arranged, agency to provide services, contact person and schedule for providing services when applicable.

3. Job services to be provided, placement or referral, based on follow-up activities.
A Job Developer Specialist will be a part of the staff to augment the occupational counseling and job placement efforts of the staff.
The new SOS Center will be operated under the direction of Lester Moore, Director of CETA Title I and III projects in the county. The new staff for the SOS Center are as follows: W.L. Pierce - SOS Counselor; Miss Debra M. Hill - SOS Counselor; Miss Brenda K. Sharpless - SOS

Job Developer; and Mrs. James Alderman Dobson of Snow Hill and Dorothy Marie Roberts of Kinston were married January 15, 1978, at Northwest Christian Church in Kinston. They will reside 1906 W. Washington Avenue, Kinston.
James is the son of Mrs. J. Dobson of Kenansville.

Marriage Announced

CONGRATULATIONS JAYCEES!

NATIONAL JAYCEE WEEK JANUARY 15-21

We Believe In The Jaycees... Because They Believe...

That "Service to Humanity Is The Best Work of Life."

We've put our faith in the Jaycees of this community because they have faith in us. Their participation in projects for civic betterment has helped us grow... while they've developed into strong leaders, dedicated workers and outstanding citizens. Their drive and determination is surely a plus for us all.

2412 JAN 77
M.P. 57

We Salute the Jaycees, Our Young Men of Action

- Bank Of North Carolina NA
- Quinn's Variety Store
- Kenansville Drug Store
- Reeves Bros., Inc.
- Waccamaw Bank & Trust
- West Auto Parts
- Duplin County Farm Bureau

True Value
HARDWARE STORE

QUANTITIES LIMITED

BORG
A SCALE

now just 4.99

MARK V SCALE
Large flat area covered in washable vinyl. Matching handle. Measurement in standard pounds or metric kilograms. Capacity 270 lbs./120 kilograms in one pound/kilogram graduations. Choice of colors: white, gold, chocolate brown.

Farmers True Value Hardware
101 Street Warsaw, N.C.