OL. XXXXIII NO. 11

KENANSVILLE, NC 28349

MARCH 16, 1978

8 PAGES THIS WEEK

10 CENTS PLUS TAX

Son Of A Gun

By Joe Lanier

program because I did not t a tax increase for you"... facts were that with a little erving by the men, the ram could be funded with rouble whatsoever... The nount of money to fund this ogram was so small, and the ling five knew this, that it sald mean no savings or wering of the tax rate. . . . But now, as you see on TV and in the movies, I will end this story as they do. ... This is a fictional story. . Any similarity to persons or events is purely coincidental.

Now a change of pace. . One may find me doing many things. . . The other day I had a hammer and some nails in my hand, but this does not a carpenter make, and it was quite vividly shown. . I had spent an hour or so sawing and nailing some two by fours together to make tem-standing back admiring my work (which I thought was quite good), my little five-year-old niece came over and asked what I had built. . I saw an opportunity to have some fun and tell her the truth at the same time. . So I told her they were horses. . She looked me in the eye with a curious look, turned her head side-ways and said. . "Uncle Joe, these are not horses." . "Oh, yes they are," I said, laughing to myself and thinking she is young and doesn't know

try. . . A story I'll ralville. Ruralville is small country with a popula-on of around 40,000, and is de up of several small ation of just over 3,000. If the villages were concen-ted into one village, a good of town larger than Clinton Mount Olive would, of with rotating terms of four years. Ruralville was divided into five sections by population, and one man from each section was elected. These men were given the power to set the tax rate and to govern how the tax money collected was to be spent. In most places there was a law enforcement budget, a sanitation budget, a health budget, etc. Now, for about 5 or by years the people of Ruralville ry things, but we would e type of a recreation . .for our young, and would say, "Not now. ... later." ... One fine day pleasure program. We rtise and try to find a n who can run such a the shock and amazement of many. However, there were some in Ruralville who thought this was a waste of money.

But there was another group that having worked so hard in the past for this type of program, was so shocked at the five men's agreement that they stood back with their mouths agape in disbelief. And rightly so, for when the day came to hire this person, the five once again said, "No, not now. We have a funding problem.".

Now two of the three men who ram. . . And they did so, to shock and amazement of

Hot School To Get Cool

A group of PTO members from Chinquapin II School appeared before the Duplin County Board of Education was thought by many that the program never had a chance from the beginning. . thought that it was set up to stop. . So the two ruling men who were against it and were up for re-election could tell the people of their district, 'I was against the program because I did not meeting Tuesday night to present two plans for air condi-tioning the school.

tioning the school.

Morrison Sholar, president of the PTO, presented the two plans to the board.

Number One was to lead the BOE $10,800 to wire and install the airconditioners at the school with the Board to repay the PTO the next budget year.

The second plan was to lend the Board $5,800 in order for the Board to revire the school, with the Board to repay the PTO in July, so that the PTO could purchase the air conditioner.

Dr. E. L. Boyette made a motion for the Board to accept the second plan. The Board voted unanimously to accept the proposal.

Snow Day Make-Up

States is March 12-18. Mayor Douglas Judge of Kenansville signed a proclamation designating the week at his office. Attending the ceremony were Brownic and Junior Girl Scouts and their leaders from Kenansville. Since its ng 66 years ago, the organization has opened doors to new worlds for many girls, and now it has become an important part of community life. Today more than three million girls and adults are members, and since its inception in Savannah, Georgia, in 1912, more than 32 million girls, women and men volunteers have been in Girl Scouting. Because Girl Scouting stressed the highest ideals of character and personal ethics, it helped girls develop their potential for active citizenship and has benefited the community. Mayor Judge called upon all citizens of Kenansville and Duplin County to continue to actively support Girl Scouts and join them in their efforts toward conserving energy and natural resources as well as their other service projects related to community, national and international concerns. "We need Girl Scouts. They really contribute a lot to our communities," stated Judge. Pictured (L to R), First Row-Zane Stepp, Penny Bowden, Mayor Judge, Deborah Stokes, Georgia Stokes, Jill Henderson, Tara Gay Stroud, Linda Stepp, Allison Stroud and Dilaine Hall. Not pictured. Leaders Elaine Hall of Brownie Troop S62, and Margaret Pittman of Junior Troop 386 in Kenansville.

WEEK PROCLAIMED This year, Girl Scout Week in the United

Make-up snow day for Duplin County Schools will be May 5. The schools lost a day of school March 3 due to the snow. May 5 was a scheduled teacher vacation day. The Board of Education made this decision at their meeting Tuesday night.

Reviva

Cedar Fork Baptist Church revival services will begin March 20 and run through March 26. The Rev. Edwin Bullock, Director of the Brotherhood Department of the N.C. Baptist State Convention

N.C. Baptist State Convention will be the guest evangelist. Servis begin each nite at 7:30 and are at 11 a.m. on Sunday. Special music will be provided each nite. A nursery will also be provided, The public is ex-tended a cordial invitation to attend

Around 1,600 attended a joint stockholders' meeting of Coastal Production Credit Asso-ciation and Federal Land Bank Association of Clinton, March 1978, at Kenan Memorial Auditorium in Kenansville.

The meeting was called to order by "Slim Short", master of ceremonies, who welcomed the members and guests of the two cooperatives. Invocation was given by Garland P. King, former President of CPCA. J din A. Smith, President of FLBA, and Roy Houston, President of CPCA, introduced their directors and employees respectively. Charles Highsmith from Pender County and Edwin Clemmons from Brunswick County, were re-elected to 3-year terms on the board of CPCA.

Tom Morgan, Assistant

Tom Morgan, Assistant Vice President, Field, Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, introduced his boss, C.W.S. Horne, Executive Vice Presi-dent, Federal Intermediate

Bank of Columbia, as the speaker. The FICB is the source where CPCA and FLBA gets its money to lend their stockholders.

Horne stated that the flue cured outlook was good, corn was cheap, and pork showed Speaking to the stockholders, Horne said, "You have two hard-working energetic heads of your associations who are willing and eager to help you with all your loan business."

"I think Joe Califano is a greater threat to the tobacco farmers than Ralph Nader was to General Motors," stated Horne. "I don't know what you can buy today that is any cheaper than credit," continued Horne. "We will continue to work on a one-to-one basis with farmers who are in need. If we feel a farmer has a chance to make it, we will stick with them until the last possible time. Farmers are the best people in the world," concluded Horne.

HEALT ST Stockholders Meetin

Separate business sessions were held by CPCA and FLBA. During the CPCA business meeting, Roy Houston, President, presented the annual report of income and expenses. Houston also stated the CPCA net worth for 1978 was $6,812,the second largest return of any cluded by telling his stock-holders that CPCA was in real sound financial condition as of John Smith, President of FLBA of Clinton, told the stock-543, and repaid to its borrowers holders about a new joint CPCA in excess of $283,436, which was and FLBA Farm Credit Service office in Shallotte. Both asso-PCA in a four-state area. Also ciations are housed in the same OFFICE. A borrower can satisfy and Graham Croom.

John S. Bostic, T.E. Pitts office. A borrower can satisfy both long-term and short-term Jr., and Graham Croom.

Credit district. Houston conwas second lowest in 3rd Farm transactions at one office. The office began operation on December 1st.

A drawing for $1,400 to lucky FLBA and CPCA stockholders in attendance, plus 20 country hams as door prizes, high-

Winners included: -John Bowen, F.D. Kennedy, James P. Brown, Jr., Evelyn Smith, John S. Bostic, T.E. Pitts, Joyce D. Hennessee, Robert Bowen,

Tin City Man Charged With Theft Of Electricity

James Earl Glaspie of Route

A. Wallace, was charged Thursday with the theft of electricity by the Rose Hill division of Four County Electric Membership Corporation.

Deputy E.G. Baker and Glenn Bradshaw, a Four County Eder County Eder and Electric Membership Corporation.

Deputy E.G. Baker and Glenn Bradshaw, a Four County Eder County Eder and Electric Membership had been disconnected at the house September 3, 1974, due to non-payment of the bill.

Baker and Bradshaw found the meter was not registering and the disconnect scal had been removed. Four County EMC claims it is owed $507.94 damage to the meter. Glaspie told officers he did not tamper with the meter and that he knew nothing about meters:

Thursday night, Glaspie was being held in Duplin County jail under $500 bond.

Headmaster Killed

Joseph Whitfield Newkirk, 49, of Route I, Rose Hill, Headmaster at Harrells Christian Academy, was killed about 7:20 p.m. Monday when his ear collided with a parked tractor-trailer low-boy eight miles east of Rose Hill on State Road 1102.

According to the Highway Patrol, the truck was parked in a curve partially on the roadway. Newkirk died shortly after arrival at Duplin General Hospital in Kenansville.

A former school principal at Magnolia and math tacher at James Kenan High School. Newkirk had leaded the private whool in Sampson County hear the Duplin County line nince it was established in 1969.

He served as tiers of tession at Oak Plain Presbyterian Church with the Rev. W. Clark Porter. III. Rev. Horace Hilton and Rev. Wendell Freeman officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Betty Ditch Newkirk; two sons, Joseph Michael (Mike) and George (Bud) Whitfield of the home; his father. L.W. Newkirk of Magnolia; three sisters, Mrs. George Hanks, Jr. of Magnolia, Mrs. Albert Zurl of Goldsboro, and Mrs. Benjamin Norfleet of Newport News, Va.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that donations be made to the Joseph Newkirk Memorial Fund at Harrells Christian Academy.

Presbyterian Church with the Rev. W. Clark Porter. III. Rev. Horace Hilton and Rev. Wendell Freeman officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Betty Ditch Newkirk; two sons, Joseph Michael (Mike) and George (Bud) Whitfield of the home; his father. L.W. Newkirk of Magnolia; three sisters, Mrs. George Hanks, Jr. of Magnolia, Mrs. Albert Zurl of Goldsboro, and Mrs. Benjamin Norfleet of Newport News, Va.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that donations be made to the Joseph Newkirk Memorial Fund at Harrells Christian Academy.

Meeting

On March 16 at 7:30 p.m., the

JOINT MEETING - (L to R) Roy Houston, President of Coastal Production Credit Asso-ciation of Kenansville; Slim Short, master of ceremonies from Greenville; and John Smith,

President of Federal Land Bank Association of Clinton, are shown after the annual joint stockholders meetin held in Kenansville on Thursday, March 913

Phil Ford In Kenansville

The Kenansville Jaycees are pleased to announce that Phil Ford, Tom Zaligaris and Geff Crompton will be in Kenansville on Friday, March 24th at 7 p.m. They will play the Kenansville Jaycees in Kenan Auditorium.

Tickets for the game will be $3,00 per person, and are available, in advance, from Kenansville Drug, Quinn's Variety, Bank of North Carolina, and Dean's Barber Shop. Tickets will also be available at the door.

This is a great stance to see the ACC's Player of the Year, Phil Ford, in action. The 6'2" Rocky Mount sculor was everybody's All American, and is an exciting performer. He is Carolina's all-time leader in scoring and assists.

Joining him in Kenanyville will be Tom Zallanis, who keyed Carolina's really over Pirrdue last year in the Enterin Regionals enrouse to MCAA finish. Also smalls in the perfect when Coach Dean Statin calls "the perfect when