

Son Of A Gun

By Joe Lanier

Duplin's new commissioners have apparently shown their emotions through I don't know which emotion — but it certainly isn't business (most) guide them in their unanimous decision to make a collection agency for insurance companies. After input from employees and department heads alike, the old board decided to put a stop to collecting premiums for the companies that the county does not pay a part of. . . . Perhaps they feel they were elected by the people to throw everything out that the old board did — the good along with the bad. . . . Not only did the new board move to collect premiums, but they also said they would listen to no other insurance company in regard to payroll deductions. . . . Thus, this one insurance company is "The Chosen One." . . . As to the number of employees on this company's roster, list of the over 100 county employees, only 80 were signed up with this particular company. . . . Thus, the other over 300 employees, cannot have their insurance companies even as to payroll deductions. . . . Quite frankly, I think the Commissioners were suckered. . . . Done and had the stick put on them. . . . Some people have a hard time saying "no." . . . This was a chance for many employees to stop paying the premium and take the money home. . . . And of all the insurance companies I have heard of, the premium is less if it is paid quarterly. . . . Another deduction is allowed if it is paid semi-annually, and a further deduction if paid annually. . . . So, the payroll deduction plan is the most expensive the employees can have. . . . I don't know if any insurance salesman I know would like to have a captive 400 people. . . . know-notice from the State of North Carolina, saying that the insurance on his house had been cancelled and it was illegal to drive said house on any North Carolina highway. . . . Apparently I was a complete fool but I don't think they will have to worry. . . . Tyson hasn't been able to crank it yet. . . . Son-

Duplin Teen Disco Dancers turned out to be a super success with about 85 young people (grades 9-12) attending. Prosy Ed Rector declared it one of the most successful and well-attended teen functions staged at the club in some years. . . . and the writer of this column wholeheartedly agrees. . . .

Marie Warrington reports the big Ladies Day event at Duplin will be coming up Thursday, March 8th. Golf and bridge for all at 10 a.m. Hostesses are Minnie Clark and Jewell Taylor. Bring a covered dish. . . .

Duplin members are reminded of the Steak Fry set for the club Saturday night, March 17th, with the Lethco Wrennas, Bill Hix, Terry Quinns, and John Floritz's in charge. . . . Pick up your steak and head for the Club. . . .

Jim Stocker reminds Duplin members, young and old, that he would like to plan a tennis tournament. See him
