

Beulaville News

Females

Miss Kennedy, Lou Belle Williams, Phoebe Pace and Alma Quinn were in Richards Sunday.

Hope Odum of Raleigh spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bostle.

Mrs. Gordon Muldrow and Phoebe Pace shopped in New Bern Monday.

Mrs. Russell Lanier of Wrightsville Beach spent several days here at their home and with her mother, Mrs. Brinson.

J. D. Cottle, Susan Oxley and Tim Whaley attended a birthday dinner for Timmy Cottle in Goldsboro Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horne of Jacksonville spent the weekend here.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Albertson of Wilmington spent the weekend at their home here.

Phoebe Pace returned to her home Tuesday after spending a few days with Dr. and Mrs. Atlas Pace in Wallace.

Walter Gresham visited John W. Gresham and family in Wilson Friday.

Mrs. and Mrs. W.V. Oxley, Leslie Susan and Tim Whaley ate in Jacksonville Saturday. Brenda Frazzelle and children were also there.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pickett of Registers Crossroads shopped in Beulaville Friday.

Mrs. Gordon Muldrow visited Elmer Jackson in a Fayetteville rest home Tuesday.

Ruby Koppersmith of Jacksonville visited Mrs. Lucy Edwards several days this week.

Mrs. Macon D. Brown visited Mrs. Sebby Jackson in Mount Olive Sunday.

James Morrison and his granddaughter of Havelock spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W.V. Oxley.

Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Hunter visited Emma Wade in Oak Manor Rest Home in Jacksonville Saturday and Sunday.

Ricky Powers of Guilford College and Patty Powers of Greensboro College spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers.

Paul Bolin of ECU in Greenville spent the weekend with Mrs. Paul Bolin, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gore received the news last Wednesday that their son, Richard, stationed at Randolph AFB near San Antonio, Texas, had been in an accident. At the time, he was in serious condition; however, he has improved.

Clifford Whaley celebrated his birthday with a birthday dinner given by his wife and family Sunday.

Rev. Phillip Denton

The Rev. Phillip Denton will be the guest speaker at revival services at the Beulaville Baptist Church March 11-15 at 7:30 p.m. He has served as pastor of the Sharon Baptist Church, Chinquapin for five years.

Rev. Garland L. Foushee, pastor, extends an invitation to attend.

U.D.C. Meets

The John Ivey Thomas Chapter No. 2172, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met Monday, Feb. 26 at the Wagon Wheel. President Mrs. Lou J. Kennedy presided. The ritual was led by the chaplain, Mrs. Oakland Houston. The flag salutes were led by Mrs. Kennedy.

Mrs. Lou Belle Williams, secretary, called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. Williams presented the Chapter a Certificate of Award that had been won for placing the greatest number of books on southern history and literature in schools and libraries.

The chapter voted to buy the biography of Pat Cleburne, Confederate General, to be placed in the Kenansville Library.

Mrs. Kennedy was in charge of the program which concerned the life of William D. Farley. At the close of the ENGAGED - Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hart Scott of Rose Hill announce the engagement of their daughter, Julie West, to Bobby Thomas Lane of Warsaw, son of Mr. James T. Lane of Warsaw and Mrs. Inez C. Lane of Sanford. A May 27th wedding is planned at Mount Zion Presbyterian Church, Rose Hill.

Health Occupations Group To Meet

Nearly 800 high school students will attend the 18th annual Congress of the North Carolina Association, Health Occupations Students of America (NCOHSA) March 9-11 at the Convention Center in Charlotte.

The gathering will feature exhibits on progressive health care, leadership development and several other health-related topics. It will conclude with the election of officers for the coming year.

The congress will be highlighted by an address by Dr. Tom Haggel of High Point, who will speak to hundreds of business, professional and youth conventions throughout the nation.

The Association's state officers include Judy Smith of Kinston High School; Nancy E. Wrenn of East Dupont; Lynn Hales of Union County Career Center; and several others from various parts of the state.

...church was served in the first period. The church meeting will be a business at Hazel Brinson's.

BITTERS HILL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Taylor and son of Augusta, Ga., Miss Janet Quinn of South Carolina, and Miss Duane Quinn of UNC-CH were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Quinn last weekend.

Mrs. Edmond Edwards, Mrs. Herman Smith, Mrs. Sadie Kennedy, Mrs. Emma Thigpen and Mrs. Richard Brock were in Goldsboro Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Beasley Jones, Mrs. D.A. Jones and Mrs. Albert Miller visited Orasha Quinn in N.C. Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hall, Mrs. F.D. Hall, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Miller attended the circus in Raleigh Sunday.

Mrs. Allie Hall, Mrs. Edmond Edwards and Mrs. Richard Brock were in Greenville Wednesday.

Mrs. Milton Bell and Mrs. Jerry Quinn were in Kinston Tuesday.

Mrs. Willard Price made a business trip to Jacksonville and Kenansville Monday.

CEDAR FORK NEWS

Birthday Surprise

On Wednesday, February 28th, the Cedar Fork Sewing Class, taught by Mrs. Zoa Raynor, surprised Mrs. Bryson Thigpen with a birthday celebration. Mrs. Thigpen only has a real birthday once every four years since she was born on February 29th. The group sang Happy Birthday to "Mrs. Brinnie" and presented her with a gift and birthday cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Raynor. Those enjoying the affair were Lizzie Sandlin, Atha Andrews, Sadie Lanier, Thelma Brinson, Sabarah Lanier, Bernice Thigpen, Iris Thigpen, Florence Jones, Helen Sloan, Zoa Raynor and Brinnie Thigpen. Also present were Dewey Lanier and Ola Faye Edwards.

REVIVAL

The Cedar Fork Baptist Church will be in revival March 11-16 at 7:30. Rev. E.C. Wilkie of Kinston will be the guest speaker. There will be special music and the nursery will be open. You are invited to join by Pastor Paul T. Mull.

First Graders Attend Circus

Bad weather and a long distance did not stop B.F. Grady first graders from attending the "Greatest Show On Earth." Thirty-five of the fifty first graders visited Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circuses in Raleigh on Friday, February 23rd.

The students who attended from Mrs. Faison's room were Joseph Carter, Sherrine Farrior, Debbie Hamilton, Kristi Hardison, Sandy Hinson, Tracy Jones, Travis McKiver, Dawn Moody, Tammy Outlaw, Billie Jo Rouse, Michelle Rouse, Ashlea Scott, Dottie Smith, Kevin Sutton, Doug Taylor and Angela Whaley.

Attending from Mrs. Kornegay's room were Kimberly Harper, Gena Harper, Steve Turner, Todd Smith, Morgan Herring, Bret Harper, Tony Jones, David Whitfield, Chenita Davis, Susan Grady, Penny Rouse, Bobby Hardy, O'Brian Smith, Don Heath, Robbie Price, Sherry Hollapple, Scotty Thornton, Vickie Sullivan and Kelly Hardison.

Also attending were Mary Ann Kornegay, Zollie Kornegay, Brant Beman, Bobby Brinkley, Robert Jones and David Jones. After the performance, the group enjoyed refreshments at a fast food restaurant. The group returned to the school at 10 p.m.

Head off to Mrs. Janice Kornegay and Mrs. Pearlless Faison, first grade teachers. Miss Barbara Robinson, Mrs. Joann Jones, Mrs. Dorothy Boman, Mrs. Hazel Boman, Mrs. Carol Whaley, Rodney Kornegay, and Dean Lee, bus driver for making the trip a success.

Convales

Marguerite Blanchard will instruct a convalescence class at the old Rose Hill Farm in Rose Hill. The class will meet on Thursdays from 9-10 p.m. beginning March 21.

For more information on these classes or any other church activities, contact...

STAPLER SERVICE
Open 8 A.M. to 6 P.M. Monday thru Sat.

TRIMMED SIRLOIN
2.99 LB.

CUBE STEAK
$2.19 LB.

FAB
69¢

POTATOES
10 LB.

OROX

SWIFT PREMIUM BEEF SALE
SIRLOIN TIP ROAST
$1.89 LB.

SIRLOIN TIP STEAKS
$1.99 LB.

SAV-MOR SALAD DRESSING
69¢

STOKLEY CATSUP
QT. 69¢

CATES SWEET SALAD CUBES
16 OZ. 69¢

PERFECTION RICE
3 LB. 69¢

KELLOGGS CORN FLAKES
18 OZ. 79¢

FROZEN STEAK FRIES
2 LB. BAG 35¢

WELCH'S GRAPE JELLY
20 OZ. 69¢

TWIN PET DOG FOOD
15 OZ. CAN 2/45¢

PET OR CARNATION MILK
39¢