

of special interest to women

SMITH - WELLS ENGAGEMENT - Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lewis Smith announce the engagement of their daughter, Josef-Ann of Warsaw, to Edward Earl Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Wells of Route 4, Clinton. A September wedding is planned.

Faison News

Neighbor News

Mrs. Janie Bell Bass accompanied Mrs. Maria Kennedy of Clinton to Wayne Memorial Hospital in Goldsboro Tuesday to visit Mrs. Susan Kennedy, a patient there.

Mrs. Jackie Morgan and Angela of Route 5, Mount Olive, spent last Tuesday with Mrs. John Robert Crow.

Mrs. Mark Pipkin and Erin of Hillsborough spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Igoe.

Mrs. Jim Taylor and Mrs. Tommy Taylor visited Robert Best in Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Kermit Williamson of Clinton spent Thursday with Mrs. Ralph Precythe.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Arent spent several days in Washington, D.C. last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis McColman are attending a rural mail carriers' meeting in Fayetteville.

Mrs. Ronald Oates and Mrs. Janie Bell Bass visited Mrs. Susan Kennedy in Wayne Memorial Thursday.

Mrs. Bill Igoe and Mrs. Mark Pipkin and daughter of Hillsborough spent Thursday night in Burgaw with Mrs. Eleanor Casev.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Crow visited Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Stanley and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morgan in Calypso Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Oates were recent visitors in Burlington with Mrs. Rudy Oates and children, who have arrived for a month's visit with her parents and the Oates' in Faison. Mr. Oates will arrive around the 15th of July, and they will return to Kuwait in about a month for another year with Wachovia Bank.

Miss LuAnne Cottle of Richmond, Va. and Trey Clanton of Chester, Va. spent several days with Mrs. Lila Mae Smith and Mrs. Nettie Cottle.

Mrs. Oleta Padgett of Kinston spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Janie Bell Bass.

Mrs. Anette Stanley and Bob visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.M. Davis Thursday. Bob remained with his grandparents for the rest of the week.

Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Currin of Oxford

ENGAGED - Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baughn, Jr. of Warsaw are proud to announce the engagement of their daughter, Lisa Ann, to Mr. Jamie Jackson Hatcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hatcher of Chinquapin. The wedding will be held at the Sharon

Baptist Church in Chinquapin at five o'clock on August 11. The reception will be held immediately after the wedding in the fellowship hall. All friends and relatives are invited.

Oates Family Get-Together

Mr. and Mrs. John Oates of Route 1 entertained the immediate family members of his family Saturday night in their country home. The spacious home was decorated throughout with summer flowers. An arrangement of tables seated all the guests in the same room. Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Phil Smith and Mrs. P.C. Smith of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. George Riggie of Fayetteville, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Oates of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Tatum Odum of Route 3, Mount Olive, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Oates, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oates, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Oates, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Hopkins, and Robert Oates of Faison.

Floating Tea

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Williams honored her uncle, Scott Thornton, with a floating tea Sunday afternoon in their home on Route 1 on his 90th birthday.

On Drill Team

Judy "Pie" Warren, daughter of Mrs. Gail Saleeby of Virginia Beach, Va. and granddaughter of Mrs. Edward Joseph of Faison, was chosen as a member of the fabulous marching Cavalier drill team of Princess Anne High School. The band, nationally famous, is rated #1 in Virginia and travels extensively throughout the United States. Her sister, Jackie, was recently initiated into the Keyettes, a girls club at the same high school.

Kenansville News

Personals

Angela and John Capillary of Selma, Alabama, have been visiting their maternal grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. Troy D. Mullis while their parents attended a conference in Ohio.

Mrs. Wilmer Gray Allen of Jacksonville spent the weekend here with her mother, Mrs. Viola W. Quinn. Other guests of Mrs. Quinn on Sunday were the Bobby Fiumans of Jacksonville and the Jimmy Quims of Riegelwood.

Mrs. Willard Johnson and her daughter, Oletta J. Butler of Ayden have returned from Dallas, Texas, after a visit with the Wade Gaylors.

Miss Mary Lee Sykes spent several days recently at Topsail Beach with the Robert Sykes family and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Etta and Chris of Belleville, Ill., and Mrs. Clyde Sandlin of Richlands, and Missy Price of Warsaw had dinner last Tuesday with Mrs. Thomas Hughes.

Penney and Stewart Stringer of Reading, Pa., are spending this week with their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Penney.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Reynolds spent several days this week at Topsail Beach. They were joined there for the 4th by Mr. and Mrs. Ron Wynne of Williamston.

Mrs. Baxter Black and Janet of Kannapolis visited their aunt, Mrs. Mattie Ward Sadler Friday night and attended the opening of THE LIBERTY CART.

Birthday Party

Dawn Guy, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Guy of Pinecrest Acres, was given a birthday party Friday by her mother. Dawn was 7 years old. Her guests included: Delaine Hall, Debra and Georgia Stokes, Penny and Kathy Bowden, David and Sam Page, Jennifer Jordan, Russ and Dan Brinson, Nola Kennedy, Amy Gordon, Christy Kornegay, Betsy Jackson, Kelli McKay, Timmy Jenkins, Kim Westbrook, Brooks McKay and Beth Guy.

Adults present were Mr. and Mrs. Sedrick Wilmouth and Mrs. Johnny Westbrook, Jr. of Pink Hill, and Mrs. Anna B. Guy and daughter, Willie Owen Guy, of Beaulville.

After outdoor games, refreshments consisting of birthday cake, potato chips, ice cream, and iced drinks were served. A color note of pink and blue accented the table appointments and candles. Favors were rings for the girls and small motorcycles for the boys.

Bridgettes Met

The Bridgettes met last Thursday night with Mrs. Leigh Page in Pinecrest Acres. Bridge was played at three tables. Mrs. Jimmy Johnson and Mrs. Henry Guy substituted for two absent members. When scores were totaled, Mrs. Guy had captured high prize and Mrs. Bill McKay second. The traveling prize was carried home by Mrs. Bonnie McPhaul. For refreshments, Mrs. Page served cherry cheesecake and coffee.

Eastern Star

At the regular stated meeting of Kenansville Chapter #215, Order of the Eastern Star held last Tuesday night in the Lodge Hall, the Worthy Matron, Joyce Williams, and Worthy Patron, Kermit Williams, were in their respective stations. Four visitors from the Newton Grove Chapter were welcomed. They were Leola Johnson, District Deputy Grand Matron, Francis Warwick, and Thelma and Blonnie Warren. The Worthy Matron gave a report of the recent meeting of the Grand Chapter Session that she and three other members of the local chapter attended in Winston-Salem. After the ritualistic closing, refreshments of pound cake, toasted pecans, and iced drinks were served by Florence Brown and Myrtle Quinn to the sixteen present.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Leo Jackson announce the birth of a son, David, on June 29, 1979 in Lenoir Memorial Hospital at Kinston. Mrs. Jackson is the former Francis Lee Stroud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Benjamin Stroud.

Graduates

William W. McNairy, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Banks McNairy of Goldsboro, was among the 213 graduates at The Lawrenceville School in Lawrenceville, N.J. William's mother is the former Ella Theresa Gooding, daughter of the late Dr. Guy V. Gooding, formerly of Kenansville.

The Keyboard

All Brass and Bath Accessories

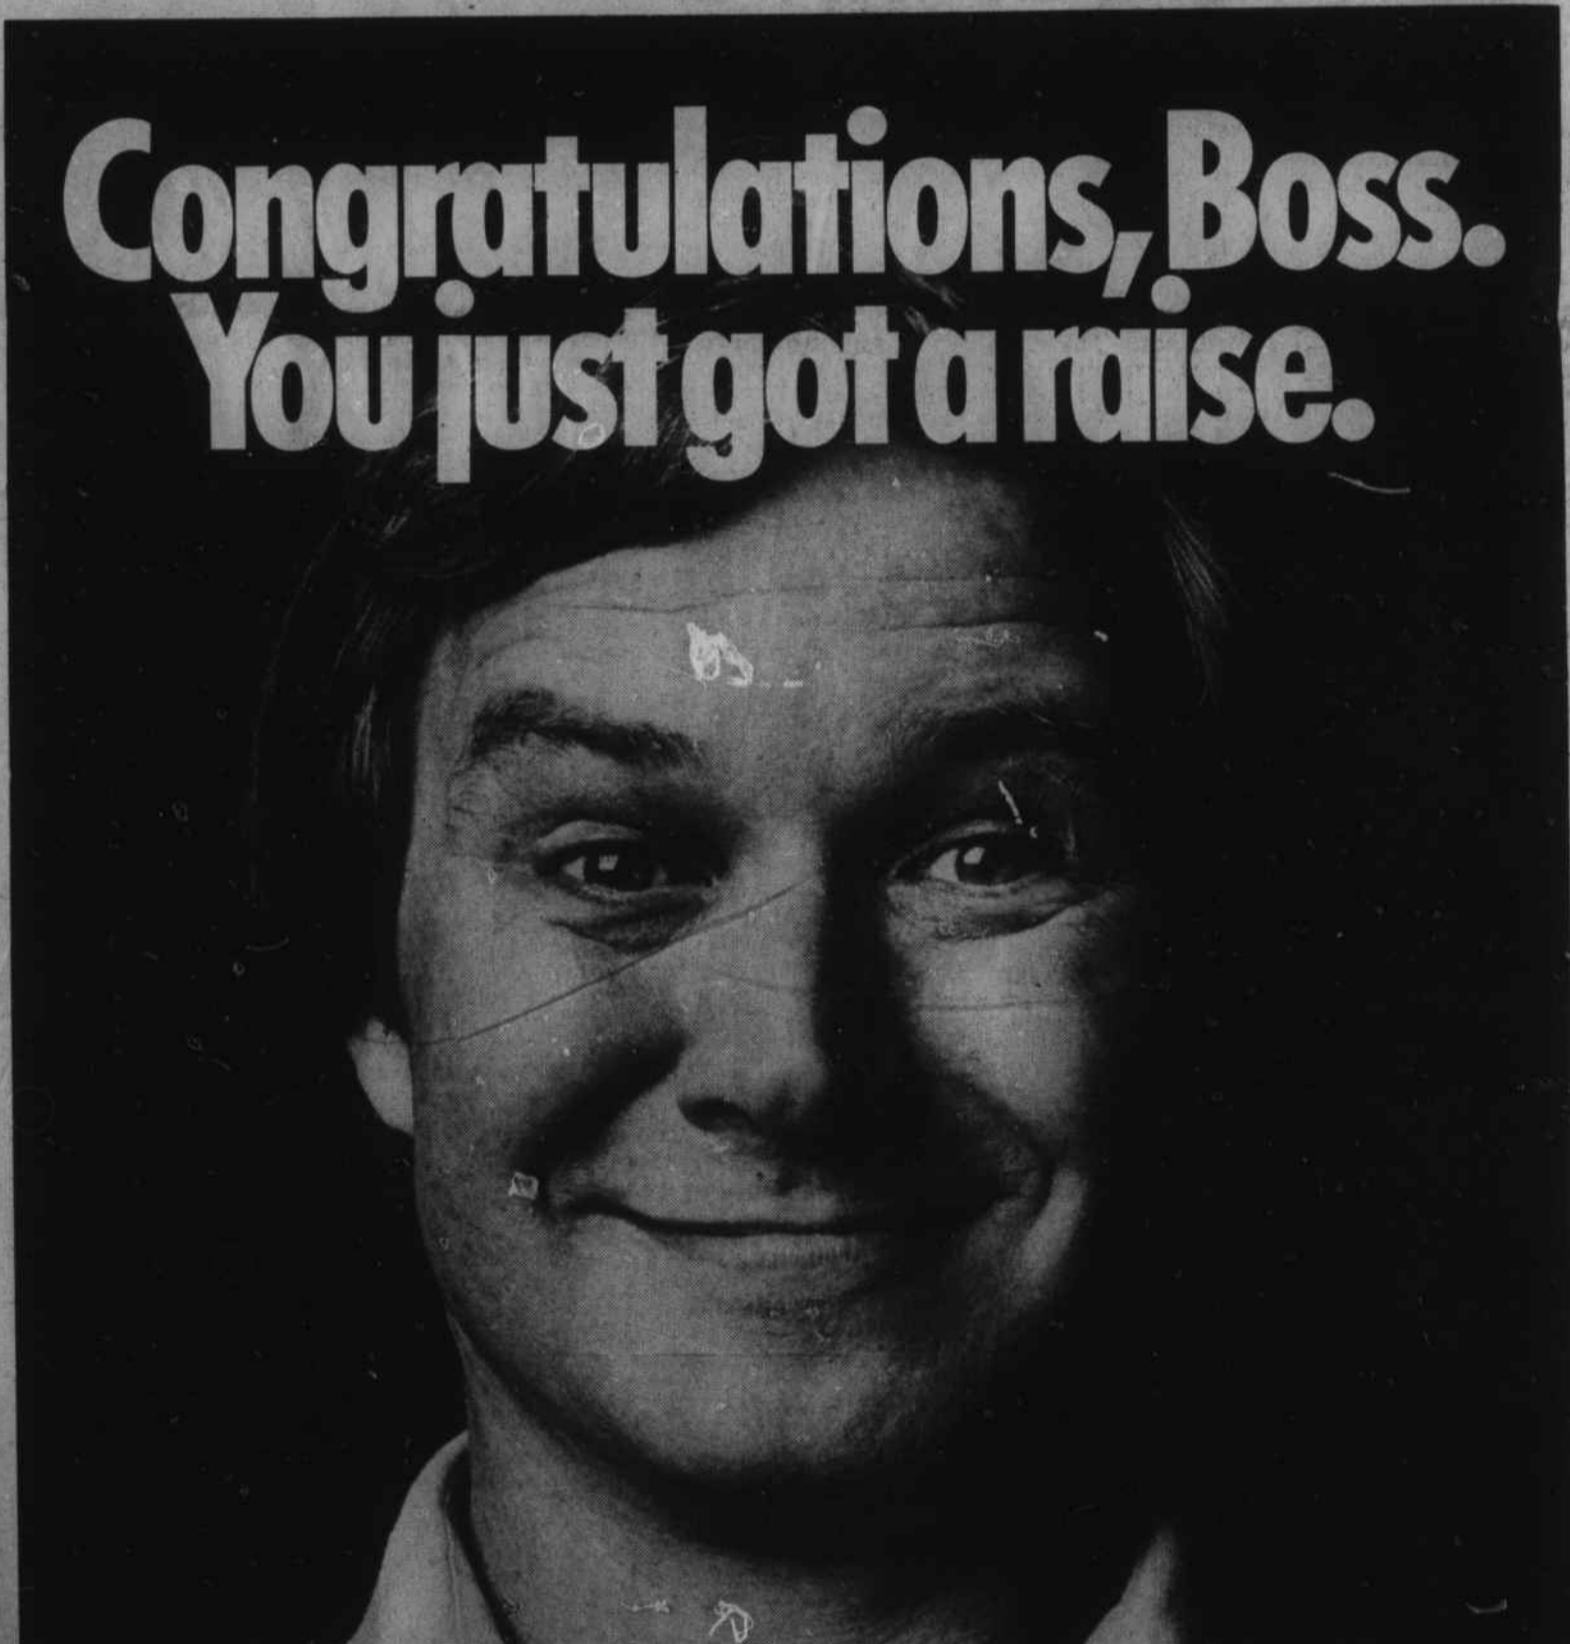

HALF PRICE

Making Room for New Inventory

June 28 thru July 9

Mon. 12:30-5:30	Fri. 12:30-5:30
Tues. 12:30-5:30	Sat. 10-5:30
Wed. Closed	Sun. Closed
Thurs. 12:30-5:30

Front Street 296-1086 Kenansville

Now you'll be earning 5 1/4% on regular savings at BB&T.

That's right, Boss. Effective July 1, you can expect a healthy increase on your regular savings rate, not to mention a whole new four-year certificate that will earn you even more.

You'll earn a fat 5.25% on regular savings at BB&T. And that's just the beginning.

With our new four-year certificates you'll earn even bigger money. The interest rate on new certificates issued changes each month, and will be 1/4% less than the average 4-year yield for U.S.

PLAN	TERM	RATE	MINIMUM DEPOSIT
Prime Passbook	90 days	5 1/2%	$500
Prime Investor's Passbook	2-5 years	6%	$500
BB&T Savings Bonds	6 years	7 1/2%	$638.52 (for $1,000 maturity value)
Guaranteed Savings Certificates	30 days-8 years	5%-7 3/4%	$500
Automatically Renewable Certificates	90 days	5 1/2%	$500
Money Market Certificates	26 weeks	Determined weekly by rate of 26 week Treasury bill (rate compounded)	$10,000 plenty of other ways to save a bundle at BB&T. Just take a look at the chart.

So now that you're earning all this money, how about saving more with us? Because at BB&T you're the Boss. And we're all working for you.

Federal regulations require a substantial penalty for early withdrawal of time deposits.

Treasury securities. But unlike Treasury securities, your minimum deposit is only $500. Once you've bought your certificate, your rate is guaranteed for the full term. And if you want more, there are PIRATES CLUB IN DUPLIN - Terry Quinn, standing, headed a barbecue dinner Tuesday night at Duplin Country Club to help organize a Pirates Club in Duplin County. Over one hundred ECU alumni and friends attended the dinner and heard Football Coach Pat Dye and Basketball Coach Dave Odum talk on their future programs.