GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY - Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Marion Murphy of Route 1, Albertson, were honored at a reception in observance of their Golden Wedding Anniversary on Sunday, June 24 in the Snow Hill Free Will Baptist Church fellowship hall. Hosts were their children and families: Edgar Murphy of Alexandria, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy of Metairie, La., Mrs. Earl B. Mathews of Pass Christian, Miss., Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Murphy of Long Beach, Miss., Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Murphy and Miss Lynn Murphy, both of Albertson. Mrs. Murphy was presented a white orchid corsage and her husband wore a yellow rosebud boutonniere. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace. In the receiving line with the honored couple were their children. Magnolia leaves and lighted gold tapers were used throughout the building. A short program of background music was presented by Edgar Wells, Jr. The refreshment table, covered with a white lace cloth, was centered with a two-tier candelabrum which was filled with yellow roses, pompons, butterscotch daisies, babies'-breath, and yellow candles. The four-tiered cake, decorated with yellow roses and topped with yellow and white wedding bells, was served by Mrs. Reuben Bishop. Serving punch was Mrs. Lawrence Marcady and Mrs. Charles Bell. Other refreshments consisted of ham biscuits, chicken salad in patty shells, cheese dainties, potato nut bread, zucchini bread squares, mints and toasted nuts. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Dan Wallace, Mrs. Eddie Eason, Mrs. Ann Kornegay and Mrs. Johnny Gainus. Approximately 150 guests called during the appointed hours. The couple was married June 27, 1929 in the home of the bride by the Reverend L.A. Harvey.

prayer by Mrs. Barwick, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Stroud and Mrs. Thomas Chestnutt, served frozen fruit salad and iced tea to the nine members and two visitors present.

Circle #2 met that night with Miss Margaret Williams. Mrs. J.J. Wells presided and conducted the Devotional on Christianity in Switzerland. She also moderated the Bible Study from Mark. After the closing prayer, Miss Williams, assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Stevens, served three-fruit sherbet and cookies to the seven ladies present.

Eastern Star

Joyce Williams, Worthy Matron, and Kermit Williams, Worthy Patron, were in their respective stations last Tuesday night when Kenansville Chapter #215, Order of the Eastern Star, held its regular bi-monthly meeting. A highlight of the meeting was the impressive program given by the Worthy Matron, Star points, and other officers honoring the station of Ruth, with Mrs. Viola W. Quinn filling that station of the yellow ray. Members were reminded of the official visit of the Worthy Grand in Clinton on August 2, and of the District school in Rose Hill on August 4.

CLASS OF 1942 REUNION

Saturday following the "big reunion" in Kenansville, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Hall entertained at their home for the Class of 1942.

Guests arrived around five o'clock and spent about an hour enjoying hors d'oeuvres and sharing old pictures and memories, and bringing each other up-to-date on marriages, children, and grandchildren. During this time, Mr. Hall gave each member of the class, as well as the two teachers present, a picture of their graduation, blown up large enough so that each could tell how much the others had changed. Guests were served on the patio. The school colors of black and white were used to carry out the theme. Each table was laid with a white cloth centered with a black candle, and the numbers 1942. The menu consisted of grilled steak, stuffed shrimp, baked potato, tossed salad, pound cake, home made ice cream and iced tea.

After dinner, five of the classmates, John Hall, Mamie Jackson, Katherine Lanier, Russell Brown and Ilene Hudson and the two teachers, went to Beulaville to see Grover Grady, a classmate, who could not attend due to illness.

Guests attending were: Miss Louise Ellis of Raleigh and Miss Jessie Raiford of Goldsboro, teachers of the class; Mrs. Dorothy Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Aldridge of Kinston, Mrs. James A. Jerritt of Richmond, Va., Mrs. Caroline Jerritt Strong of Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brown and Stephen of Rose Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Guy of Magnolia, Mrs. Mildred Ketchside of Warsaw, Mrs. Margaretta Wright of Rocky River, Ohio, Mrs. Katherine Wells of Teachey, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Craft, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Booth, and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Stroud of Kenansville (Jimmy was one of the class mascots.)

Everyone had a wonderful time, and all are looking forward to many more reunions.
