Wilson-Brown Vows Spoken

On Friday, August 3, at five o'clock in the afternoon at Dobson Chapel Baptist Church, Route 1, Magnolia, Kimberly Annette Brown of Route 1, Magnolia became the bride of Ronald David Wilson of Route 2, Rose Hill, in a candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Grey Brown and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bizzell David Wilson.

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Reverend David Gordon, pastor of the bride. Prior to the service, a program of pre-nuptial music was presented by Mrs. William Register, organist.

Miss Betty Sanderson of Wallace, friend of the bride, sang "The Wedding Song." James Cottle of Wallace, friend of the couple, sang "Whither Thou Goest." The wedding party and the bride entered the sanctuary as Miss Sanderson and Mr. Cottle sang "Let It Be Me." As the bride and groom knelt on the double kneeling bench, Miss Sanderson sang "The Wedding Prayer."

The sanctuary was arranged with palms, candles and flowers. On the center of the podium was an arch candelabra, and on either side were spiral candelabras with a background of mixed flowers and palms. The family pews were marked with aisle tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal white gown of dacron polyester organza with a high neckline, long tapered sleeves and an empire waistline. The bodice and sleeves were covered with silk Venise lace. The full A-line skirt fell into a chapel-length train and the skirt was trimmed with large lace motifs and the hemline was edged with matching lace. The bridal veil was a three-tiered fingertip-length mantilla edged with silk lace, with a Camelot cap accented with the same lace. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of carnations, red, yellow and pink roses, daisies, blue cornflowers, gypsophila, babies'-breath and ferns, with satin streamers.

Miss Sylvia Whitman of Kenansville was maid of honor. She wore a blue gown of polyester chiffon with a halter-style neckline with a gathered bodice and Venise lace trimming at the neckline. The three-tiered chiffon skirt fell to floor-length accenting the empire bodice. She carried a nosegay of pink roses, yellow and white daisies, blue cornflowers and babies'-breath, with blue satin streamers. Mrs. Debbie B. Cottle was the matron of honor. She wore a yellow dress identical to that of the other honor attendant. Mrs. Cottle carried a nosegay identical to that of Miss Whitman with yellow satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Sanderson and Miss Amberly Cavanaugh, both of Wallace. Their gowns were pink fashioned like those of the honor attendants. They carried nosegays with pink streamers.

The groom chose his father to serve as best man. The groom wore a white tuxedo and a boutonniere of stephanotis and a red rose. Ushers were Otis Grey Brown of Route 1, Magnolia, brother of the bride; Byron Wilson and Kevin Wilson of Rose Hill, brothers of the groom. They wore white tuxedos with black trim and black trousers, and a boutonniere of stephanotis and a red rose.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown chose a street-length dress of green polyester. Her corsage was of yellow roses. The mother of the groom wore a street-length dress of floral mauve polyester with pink trim. Her corsage was of pink roses. The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Mary Ennis, wore a navy dress and was honored with a corsage of white daisies.

Mrs. Donna Aldridge attended the register in the vestibule of the church, and Mrs. Greg Brown handed out scrolls and rice bags. The wedding was under the direction of Mrs. Melvin Bostic of Magnolia.

After a wedding trip to Topsail Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are at home at Route 1, Magnolia.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of James Kenan High School near Warsaw. She is employed at Kenansville Elementary School as a library aide. The groom is a 1976 graduate of Wallace-Rose Hill High School and is a Corporal in the U.S. Marines, and stationed at Camp Lejeune.

After Rehearsal Cake-cutting

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Snavelly, Mrs. Bobby Bland, Mrs. Charles Buckner, Mr. and Mrs. Bizzell Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brown entertained Miss Kim Brown and Mr. Ronald Wilson at a cake cutting on August 2nd in the fellowship room of Dobson Chapel Church at route 1, Magnolia.

The table was covered with a white lace cloth and decorated with a flower arrangement of white and yellow daisies, mums, babies'-breath, carnations and roses with a five branched candelabrum. The guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Brown of Wilmington, aunt and uncle of the bride.

The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with double wedding rings with doves and white and yellow daisies and roses, was at one end of the table. Mrs. Charles Buckner baked and decorated the cake. After the first traditional slice was cut, it was served by Mrs. Richard Snavelly of Clinton, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Jimmie Brown of Fayetteville, aunt of the groom. Punch was served by Mrs. Preston Brown, Sr., aunt of the bride. Wedding mints, mixed nuts, open-faced sandwiches and cheese wafers were also served. Assisting in the serving was Mrs. Thurman Brown, Mrs. David Grady, Mrs. Bobby Bland, Mrs. Melvin Bostic, and Mrs. William Register. Mrs. Greg Brown attended the register. The good-byes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Brown, aunt and uncle of the bride.

Pre-nuptial Courtesies

A miscellaneous shower honoring the couple was given in the fellowship hall of Dobson Chapel Church on July 27. Upon arrival, Miss Brown was presented a corsage of mums. Approximately fifty guests attended.

A miscellaneous shower honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wilson was given by the ladies circle of Rose Hill Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church. Upon arrival, Mrs. Wilson was presented a corsage of white daisies.
