Duplin Youth Compete In Area Livestock Show

Nineteen Duplin 4-H and FFA members exhibited hogs and four exhibited steers at the Coastal Plain Livestock Show and Sale held at Kinston. Cece Williams of Route 1, Rose Hill, exhibited the reserve champion steer which was purchased by Federal Land Bank and PCA. Greg Swain of Warsaw exhibited the reserve champion pen of three hogs which was purchased by Duplin Farm Bureau. Joe Jones of Warsaw won 1st place in beef senior showmanship. Joe's steer was purchased by Liberty Warehouse of Wilson. Southern Bank of Warsaw purchased a hog shown by Joe. The other steer exhibitors from Duplin were Randy Mearcady, whose steer was purchased by United Carolina Banks in Duplin, and member Robby Blanchard exhibited.

DeLeon Smith, whose steer was purchased by Duplin County Farm Bureau Insurance. East Duplin FFA members who exhibited hogs were: Gus Rouse, W.T. Davis, James Millard, Sissy Blizzard, Tony Cruse, Michele Grady, Carlton Grady, Don Grady, Brian Smith and Johnnie Smith. County 4-H members include Laurie Swain, Tony Westbrook, Russell Brock, Becky Brock and Glenn Brinson. James Kenan FFA

MAKE THE PHONE SHOP CONNECTION

We've got connections that can save you time and money. Pick out a phone with a new plug-in jack and save an installation charge...it's a snap. If your home is not now equipped for plug-in phones, pick up an easy to install phone jack conversion kit. Then you can disconnect your phone to change a style or a location. And, if your phone should ever need service you can simply unplug it and bring it in for repairs at your convenience. So stop by the phone shop and browse through the many styles and colors of telephones on display. Let us show you how easy it is to make the connection. We honor Master Charge and Visa.
