

Jones-Parham Exchange Vows

In a candlelight ceremony of traditional beauty and dignity on July the twelfth at the First United Methodist Church of Henderson at eight o'clock in the evening, Miss Jacqueline Jaye Parham and Jonathan Purcell Jones were united in marriage. The Reverend Samuel Duncan McMillan, Jr. performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wyndell Parham and the granddaughter of Mrs. Clyde L. Finch, Sr., all of Henderson. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Purcell Jones of Morehead City, and the grandson of Mrs. George S. Best, Sr. of Warsaw and the late Mrs. Walter Lesley of Clinton.

Silver candelabra held burning cathedral candles while palms of jade foliage and magnolia were used at intervals in the altar and chancel area. Further enhancing the setting were white floral arrangements in silver floor vases. Family pews were marked by satin bows and flowers.

Prelude music rendered by Mr. William E. Hilderbrant, minister of music, included "I Love Thee" E. Grieg, "Ave Maria" Bach-Gounod, "Because" D'Hardelot, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" and "Air In D Major" J.S. Bach. Mrs. Hilderbrant then chimed the hour and the groomsmen extended a white aisle cloth. The procession began with Purcell's "Trumpet Voluntary" for the bridal party, and the bride entered to the traditional "Bridal Chorus" by Wagner. Special music was rendered by Mrs. Robert A. Leggett, Jr. of Henderson, who sang "O Promise Me" by DeKoven and Dunlap's "Wedding Prayer." The "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn was played for the recessional.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal-length gown of ivory silk organza. The bodice was covered with Venise lace and seed pearls and featured a Queen Anne neckline. The full bishop sleeves had scattered appliques of lace ending with a wide border of lace at the wrists. The empire waist fell into a full circular skirt trimmed with tiered layers of Schifflin lace in front and extending onto the chapel-length train. Her matching fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. The bride's only ornament of jewelry was an heirloom gold brooch of her great-great-grandmother's. She carried a full cascade bouquet of candlelight roses and variegated lily.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Melissa Larkin Riggs of Asheville, cousin of the bride. Attending as matron of honor was Mrs. William Thomas Forrest of Williamsburg, VA, also a cousin of the bride. Other bridesmaids were Sophie Clare Lewis of Kinston, and Miss Hendry Purcell Jones and Miss Jamey Atkins Jones, of Clinton, cousins of the groom. The bridesmaids wore floor-length gowns of emerald green chiffon. Folds draped over the arms at the shoulders with a criss-cross front forming a V-neckline. The maid of honor wore a yellow gown of the same design. The attendants carried cascade bouquets of white Marguerite daisies and springerl fern, and wore clusters of daisies in their hair.

Mr. Jones served as his son's best man. The groomsmen were Robert Wyndell Parham, Jr. of Henderson, brother of the bride; Robert Lee Davis of Beaufort, brother-in-law of the groom; and Daniel Stephen Jones, Jr. of Clinton, James Nelson Withers of Kinston, David Wilson Adams of Morehead City and Vincent Stephen Jones of Fayetteville.

Reception
Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the church. The entrance was illuminated by groups of candles in wrought-iron stands. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Finch, Jr. of Lynchburg, VA and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stephen Jones, Sr. of Clinton. Mrs. Russell C. Gordon registered the guests upon their arrival.

The circular bride's table, covered with a white organdy and lace cloth extending to the floor, held the multi-tiered wedding cake surrounded by clusters of white roses and daisies. Flanking the table were standards draped with ivy and springerl fern.

Punch and refreshments were served from tables covered with white linen overlaid with lace. Centering the tables were silver dandelabra holding burning tapers and epergnets of roses and daisies. Enhancing the setting throughout the hall and in the windows were arrangements of magnolia grand de flora, Boston ferns and lighted candles in hurricane shades.

After the bride and groom cut the traditional first slice of cake, serving was continued by Mrs. William D. Payne, maternal aunt of the bride.

About the Couple
Mrs. Jones is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro with a B.A. degree in intermediate education. She is currently employed with the Vance County school system.

Mr. Jones is attending the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Following a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple will make their home in Henderson.

After-Rehearsal Dinner
On Friday evening, "The Loft" at the Silo was the setting for a social hour and rehearsal dinner in honor of the wedding couple. Hosting the affair were the groom's parents. Upon the couple's arrival, the bride was presented a corsage of yellow roses and daisies and the groom a boutonniere.

A color scheme of yellow and white was used throughout the dining room. Enhancing this theme, the tables were laid with yellow and white checked ribbon runners. Natural wicker baskets filled with daisies were intermingled with yellow burning tapers in black wrought-iron holders. The bride's place was marked with a miniature basket filled with white flowers.

Pool Party
On Saturday evening, July 5th, "Hedraes", the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Hedrick, was the setting of a party honoring Miss Jacqueline Jaye Parham and Mr. Jonathan Purcell Jones. Co-host was Mr. Michael Tucker.

Picnic Supper
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Karlo Farrell on Spooner's Creek in Morehead City was the setting for a picnic supper June 28th. Hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Karlo Farrell, their son Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Adams and their son, David, all of Morehead City.

Dinner
On June 29th, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jones entertained the bridal couple at a dinner in their home in Morehead City.

Bridal Tea
A bridal tea honoring the bride-elect was given July 5th in the home of Mrs. Charles W. Finch on Crescent Drive in Henderson. Serving as co-hostess was Mrs. Robert A. Leggett, Jr.

Bridal Luncheon
The Jones - Parham wedding party was honored at a luncheon at the Henderson Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. William D. Payne, Mrs. Clyde Finch, Mrs. Harold W. Anderson and Mrs. Walter H. Finch, all of Henderson; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Funch, Jr. of Lynchburg, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. William T. Forrest of Williamsburg, Va., entertained for the affair.
