JAMES KENAN GOVERNOR'S SCHOOL NOMINEES - The Governor's School of North Carolina will offer to a few selected gifted and talented students in the present 10th and 11th grades unique learning experiences. Students nominated are those who have demonstrated creativity, interest and motivation. Academics, activities and special talents are considered in the selection process. The summer programs are held in Winston-Salem and Laurinburg for six weeks. Students can be nominated in academic areas and/or the performing arts. The nominees from James Kenan High School pictured above, left to right, are Lonnie Hedrick, Joe Jones, Avery Tuten, Marcie Boone, Margo Jenkins, Regina Brown, Allen Roper, Janis Pigford, Ray Pickett, Louis Best and Frankie Whaley.

Attends Florida Pow Wow

Tim Ledford and Wesley Yates of Pink Hill started the New Year demonstrating their talents and workmanship by participating in the activities of the N. Florida Indian Culture Society Pow Wow held bi-annually outside Jacksonville, Fla. The Pow Wow is sponsored by Treaty Oak, a purchasing house for authentic Indian craft supplies, and by the North Florida Indian Culture Society. Both boys are studying Indian customs and dance through the Order of the Arrow, Boy Scouts of America. They enjoyed the fellowship of their friends from other parts of North Carolina as well as from other southern states. O.A. chapters and Indian Culture societies were well represented.
