

COSMETOLOGY LICENSING EXAM GIVEN AT JSTC - Seventeen persons from southeastern North Carolina registered and took the N.C. State Cosmetic Arts License exam at James Sprunt Technical College on June 15. The exam was conducted in the cosmetology department under the supervision of Nell Cox of the State Board of Cosmetic Arts Inspector, and Zada Noe, chairperson of the N.C. State Board of Cosmetic Arts, with assistance from JSTC cosmetology instructors. Each person registered for the exam after completing a N.C. State Board of Cosmetic Arts approved cosmetology program such as the curriculum offered at JSTC. Pictured above, left to right, JSTC Director of Vocational/Technical Education Jessie Outlaw, welcomes Cosmetic Arts Inspector Nell Cox, Cosmetic Arts Board Chairperson Zada Noe and James Sprunt Cosmetology Instructor Bobby Brown.

disc jockey for WASU. Suzanne has also worked light, sound and set construction for Appalachian State University Theatre productions. Her main interests lie in the field of television production where she hopes to obtain a job that will eventually lead to producing/directing or broadcast management. Suzanne plans to attend graduate school after the 1981 production season of THE LIBERTY CART ends.

Beaufort Actress Returns For Third Season

Laura Hunter, an actress with the 1979 and 1980 seasons of THE LIBERTY CART, will return to perform two roles in the 1981 production of Randolph Umberger's historical outdoor drama. Hunter will also perform in the two Second Stage productions scheduled.

A graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, Laura Hunter is presently drama director and English instructor at Westover Senior High School. As a director, her credits include You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown, Of Poems, Youth and Spring, The Sandbox, Hansel and Gretel and The Velveteen Rabbit. Hunter has acted in regional and repertory theatre productions of The Children's Hour, Birdbath, It Happened Here, and Dark at the Top of the Stairs.

As a theatrical technician, Hunter has worked as a costumer for Aria da Capa, Count Dracula, Twelfth Night, Peter Pan, and The Good Doctor, and she has worked backstage for Company, Cabaret, and Dark of the Moon.

In the 1980 production, Hunter will portray Sarah Love Kenan and Sally Dorch, two central characters in Umberger's historical drama of the development of Eastern North Carolina.

Indiana Actress working at The Liberty Cart
Shanna Beth McGee, a senior theatre arts major at Appalachian State University, will be working as a performer and costume assistant at THE LIBERTY CART. Every night before the 8:15 curtain, Beth will be performing 15 minutes of preshow music. She will also be in the two Second Stage productions.

Shanna Beth McGee recently recorded an album with Folkways Record of New York City. The album is entitled "Love is Teasing, Scottish and English Early Ballads," and will be on sale at the concession stand during intermission. Besides being a recording artist, McGee brings an impressive list of acting and technical theatre credentials to THE LIBERTY CART. She has acted for the Inn Cabaret and the Happy Hollow Players in West Lafayette, Indiana, and the Newman Players of Chapel Hill. She studied voice at Appalachian State University and DePaul University. Her acting credits at ASU include The Good Doctor, Lysistrata, Captive Voices, and The Miser.

Shanna Beth lists her favorite roles as Mag in Lovers, Frosine in The Myrhhine in Lysistrata, and Joan in Godspell. McGee plans to return to Boone in the fall to complete her musical theatre degree. While studying at ASU, she also serves as secretary for the ASU theatre office. She has received the ASU Theatre talent award in the spring of '81 and the Excellence in Theatre award in 1980 and '81. She is a member of Alpha Psi Omega, a national honorary dramatic fraternity, and appeared as an extra in the recently released motion picture "Final Exam."

Sound Technician Named
Suzanne Savage Newman, a 1981 graduate of Appalachian State University with a degree in communications media and broadcasting, has been named sound technician for the 1981 production of THE LIBERTY CART.

Nestled in a natural setting of holly and pine, THE LIBERTY CART plays in the William Rand Kenan Jr. Memorial Amphitheatre, one of the finest outdoor theatre facilities in the nation.

Suzanne's job as sound technician will involve producing and running the sound tape for THE LIBERTY CART and the Second Stage productions, along with making announcements prior to the performance. She has experience as a radio traffic director, production director, news/sports casting and reporting, and has worked as a

East Federal now makes a special investment opportunity available to individuals or businesses through the East Investors Fund. It is a Repurchase Agreement backed by a U.S. Government or a U.S. Government Agency Security. East Federal then repurchases the agreement at the end of the term not to exceed 84 days. You will then be paid your original investment plus total interest earned. Here are the rest of the facts on East Investors Fund: Your total investment plus earned interest will be returned to you at any time even before the end of the 84 day term with no penalty for early withdrawal. The rate established at the time of your investment will be guaranteed for up to 84 days, regardless of market fluctuations. There is no brokerage fee or service charge. Because East Investors Fund is backed by a U.S. Government or U.S. Government Agency Security, IT IS NOT INSURED BY FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN INSURANCE CORPORATION. These investments are available only to North Carolina residents. The minimum investment in East Investors Fund is $1,000. Investments cannot exceed $99,999. East Federal will maintain competitive rates on a continuing basis, but reserves the right to raise or lower rates on new issues as dictated by market conditions. Current rates are indicated below and are subject to change without notice.
