

formal gown of polyester and chiffon accented with pearls. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages. The groom's grandmother wore a formal gown of rose polyester and chiffon and a corsage of red roses. The bride and groom presented their mothers and grandmother, Mrs. Noah Jones of Mount Olive, with a single long-stemmed red rose. The wedding was directed by Jean West of Warsaw, Sgt. and Mrs. L.E. Stroud presided at the bride's book and Brian Torrans distributed the wedding bulletins. The bride is a graduate of Terry Parker High School in Jacksonville, Fla. The groom attended James Kenan High School and is self-employed. After a honeymoon trip to the North Carolina coast, the couple is residing in Warsaw. A reception was held in the educational building of the church. Assisting were Mrs. Willie Summerlin, Mrs. Maylon Weeks and Mrs. F.L. Goodman, aunts of the groom, and Mrs. Ralph Vernon.

Kilpatrick-Arnette Vows Spoken

Regina Leigh Arnette and William Robert Kilpatrick were united in marriage Saturday, January 2, at three o'clock at Calvary Baptist Church in Warsaw.

Regina is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Arnette of Warsaw and the granddaughter of Mrs. Geneva Maready of Jacksonville. Billy is the son of Mrs. Eva S. Kilpatrick of Kenansville and the late David John Kilpatrick, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Sanderson Sr. of Magnolia.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown made by her mother. The gown featured a fitted bodice and A-line skirt of white bridal satin. An overlay of Venise lace covered the bodice. The long puffed sleeves were of lace. The back was complimented with bridal satin buttons reaching below the waistline. The veil was of bridal illusion trimmed in scalloped lace.

The matron of honor was Tamra Arnette, sister-in-law of the bride. Her gown was of burgundy satulure featuring a fitted bodice, long puffed sleeves and a gathered skirt. She carried two pink roses with pink streamers. She wore a burgundy satin ribbon in her hair. The bridesmaids were Roxann and Audrey Kilpatrick, sisters of the groom, and Lisa Cratch. Their gowns and hairpieces were identical to those of the matron of honor. They each carried a pink rose with pink streamers. Honorary bridesmaids were Teresa Emery and Deneen Maready. They wore lilac dacron gowns and each carried a white carnation with white streamers.

The flowergirl was Ginger Scott, niece of the groom. Her gown was pink and white floral with a look of eyelet embroidery made of dacron and cotton. She carried a bouquet of pink and burgundy silk flowers.

Henry L. Sanderson Sr. attended his grandson as best man. The groomsmen were Franklin Arnette, brother of the bride, and Steve and John Kilpatrick, brothers of the groom. They wore grey tuxedos.

Shane Arnette, nephew of the bride, was the ring-bearer. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Mary S. Porter, pianist and soloist, and Mrs. Janet Register, organist. Before the ceremony, Mrs. Porter sang "Whither Thou Goest" and after the couple exchanged rings, she sang "It Seems I've Always Loved You." "Sweet Bye and Bye" was played in memory of the groom's father.

The officiating ministers were the Rev. Jay McCarron of Warsaw and the Rev. Lauren Sharpe of Kenansville. The wedding director was Mrs. Beverly K. Thompson, sister of the groom. Mrs. Nan K. Scott, sister of the groom, stood at the register table.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a gown of taupe qiana which featured a ruffled collar, long sleeves and a gathered skirt. For her son's wedding, the groom's mother wore a gown of chalk violet polyester knit with three-quarter length sleeves, and ruffled front jacket of polyester chiffon.

Regina and Billy spoke their vows before an altar setting centered with a large arrangement of white chrysanthemums, pink carnations, and red roses decorated with greenery. On each side of the focal point stood a lighted candelabra decorated with palms. Matching greenery of palms accented the altar. As the couple knelt at the prayer bench accented with greenery and white doves, Mrs. Porter sang "The Wedding Prayer." As the couple left the church, they gave their mothers a red rose.

The bride is a 1981 graduate of James Kenan High School and is a freshman at Mount Olive College where she is majoring in secretarial science.

The groom is a 1980 graduate of James Kenan High School. He is engaged in farming.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple resides in Kenansville.

Reception

Immediately following the wedding, the bride's parents hosted a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Gurman Maready, uncle and aunt of the bride. A white angle lace tablecloth covered the guest table, holding two burgundy candles centered with an arrangement of pink carnations, white mums, snaps and red roses. The table was accented with pink bows hanging at each end of the table and in the middle, which made for a festive occasion. At one end of the table pouring fruit punch from a silver bowl were Mrs. Rav Smith of Trenton and

Mrs. Dempsey Arnette of Warsaw, both aunts of the bride. At the other end of the table was a four-tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. Richard Scott, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Robert Porter, both of Warsaw. The cake was decorated with a pink rose design and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Serving cake were Mrs. Hadley Collins of Maysville and Mrs. Perry Kornegay of Beutancus, both aunts of the bride. Other refreshments were ham biscuits, toasted peanacs, bridal mints, chicken salad, cheese balls and festive crackers. The reception was under the direction of Mrs. Robert Porter. Good-byes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Billy Dail.

Rehearsal Dinner

Mrs. Eva S. Kilpatrick entertained the Kilpatrick-Arnette wedding party on Friday, Jan. 1, with a rehearsal dinner at her home in Kenansville. The wedding party, along with close friends of the couple, were served barbequed pork, slaw, hushpuppies, turkey and dressing, baked ham, sweet potato souffle, baked beans, black-eyed peas, collards, snap beans, relish tray, pound cake, chocolate fudge, divinity, and fruit punch. For the groom's cake, Mrs. Kilpatrick made a carrot cake.

Showers

On November 30, friends of the couple honored them with a miscellaneous shower at Calvary Baptist Church in Warsaw.

On Dec. 5, a miscellaneous shower was given in honor of the couple at Kenansville Baptist Church, hosted by friends of the couple.
