What do you want North Carolina to be like in the year 2000? Planning for our future is too important to be left only to government. So the Commission on the Future of North Carolina, chaired by William C. Friday of the University of North Carolina, and leading citizens in all 100 counties, are working together in an effort called NC 2000 to find out what the citizens of our State want our future to be.

The questionnaire below has been prepared to give you a chance to say what you like about this State and what you think needs to be improved.

I urge you to speak out now. Together we can make a difference. This is what NC 2000 is all about.

C/1/1
