Coats Puppeteers At Deep Run

On Sunday morning, March 14 at the 11 a.m. worship service, the First Baptist Church of Deep Run will be hosting the Coats Baptist Youth puppeteers from Coats. The youth team, consisting of approximately 30 youth, are recognized for their skills in the presentation of puppet ministry. The youth group will present a unique worship experience aided by their puppet ministry. The Rev. Larry K. Hutchins, pastor of the Deep Run church, invites all to attend this special worship experience.

SOUTH LENOIR DOES GOOD - South Lenoir VICA drafting students competed in a contest against Rose High School in February at Greenville. South Lenoir was very successful in both the mechanical and architectural contests. In the mechanical contest, South Lenoir's Otis Tutt placed first, followed by Clifton Koonce in second, Joey Hunter, third, Bobby Davis in fourth, William Boyette, sixth, and Jimmy Croom placed seventh. In the architectural contest, South Lenoir's Jeff Garner placed second and Greg Jarman third. They were followed by Lynn Tyndall in fifth, Roy Ipock in sixth, and Terri Carter, seventh. This was this year's first competition drawing for South Lenoir and H.I. Hickerson, drafting advisor, was very pleased with the results. Pictured are, from left to right, Joey Hunter, Greg Jarman, Clifton Koonce, Jeff Garner and Otis Tutt.

MISSION OUTREACH

The First Baptist Church of Pink Hill has begun a mission outreach ministry. This type of ministry is geared toward ministering to the elderly and the shut-ins of the community. It involves taping the morning and evening services and taking them to shut-ins via a cassette recorder.

If you are in need of such ministry or know someone who is unable to go to church, call 568-4118 before 8:30 p.m. or 568-3785 after 5 p.m. weekdays. Give the one who answers your name, phone number and address. They will make the tapes available to those in need.

PIPPIN SELECTED FOR OUTSTANDING YOUNG WOMEN

Kimberly Bryan Pippin, daughter of Mrs. Bett Pippin of Farmville, and of the late Bryan Pippin, has been selected as one of the Outstanding Young Women of America for 1981. Kim, a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, is working as a dental hygienist with Dr. Michael Gray Smith in Kinston.
