

Beulaville News

R.F. Gurley made a business trip to Kinston and Kenansville Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jarrell of West Virginia while vacationing in Jacksonville and Swansboro, visited Mrs. Emory Campbell Sunday.

James Emory Campbell of Greensboro was in Beulaville Wednesday and spent the night with Clint Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Arland Sanderson and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Turner spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Vann Cranford in Normanville. They visited friends in Maury, also.

Rev. and Mrs. Garland Foushee visited his mother Sunday afternoon on their way to Sanford where they joined their daughter Karen and husband for a trip to Williamsburg, Va. They reported an enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Sherman Jackson enjoyed having her daughter and husband of Arlington, Va. with her for the weekend.

Leon Heath, Dora Jones, Joan and Russell Barnette spent the weekend of April 3 in Kensington, Md. at the Washington Temple, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. When they returned, they learned that the Leon Heaths had lost their home and possessions by a home fire. A shower was given for them at the Sandy Plain Free Will Baptist Church Saturday night. A free will offering was also taken at the April senior citizens meeting for the Heath family.

Barbara and Don Furgerson and Julia of Ahsokie spent Easter weekend with Mrs. Otis Miller. Monday Mrs. Miller had as dinner guests Truman Miller and Brandy, and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jere Miller and their family. The Furgersons left to return to their home on Monday.

Rev. Stephen A. Smith was admitted to Duplin General Hospital and is in the intensive care unit.

Etta Futrell entered Duke Hospital in Durham April 16 to undergo tests and check-up.

Maude Baker entered Duplin General Monday.

Summer Family Reunion

The Summer family reunion is scheduled for Sunday, April 25 at 1 p.m. at the Sandy Plain Free Will Baptist Church. Anyone related to the Summer family is given an invitation to come and bring a picnic lunch.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Henderson of Beulaville announce the birth of their son on Friday, April 16, 1982 at Duplin General Hospital in Kenansville. He has been named Christopher. Mrs. Henderson is the former Donna Batts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerl Batts. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Henderson, also of Beulaville.

Study Course

On Thursday, May 6th, the Sandy Plain Free Will Baptist Church is having a one-night study course at 8 p.m. The class will be taught by Rudene Kennedy on "Gifts of the Spirit." All are extended an invitation to join the study course.
