

Harper-Johnson Vows Spoken

and the family of the bride and groom were entertained at a pig picking given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harper of Pink Hill at their home.

On April 10, a bridesmaids luncheon was held at the B & S Restaurant in Deep Run in honor of the bride's attendants, and the mothers and grandmothers of the couple. Mrs. Clara S. Barwick of Deep Run hosted the occasion.

A rehearsal dinner was given at the B & S Restaurant in Deep Run on the eve of the wedding. The groom's father hosted the event with the wedding party and family members as guests.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. Assisting during the reception were Dot Grady, Wanda Meadows, Edna Earle Smith, and Marcia Harper. Assisting in serving were the bride's cousins.

Couple Wed In Spain

Jaunita Baez and Harold David Kornegay Jr. were married the sixteenth of January at five o'clock in the afternoon in Bethany Evangelical Church, Number 7, Fray Isidoro de Sevilla Street, Seville, Spain. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Kornegay Sr. of Albertson. The bride's father is Senor Baez of Seville. Her mother is deceased.

Santos Garcia, an elder of the bride's church, officiated at the ceremony and preached a beautiful sermon on marriage. A friend, Mr. Schiffer, had the closing prayer.

Immediately following the ceremony, the church was host at a reception. A seven-tiered wedding cake and Spanish-style hot chocolate were served. TEAM missionaries from America, their families and friends from evangelical churches in Seville, Coria del Rio, Moron de la Frontera, Uterca, and other friends attended the wedding. An Italian friend of the bride came from London. After a wedding trip to Mijas (Malago) on the Mediterranean coast, the couple returned to Caceres 4. Moron de la Frontera (Sevilla) Spain, where they are ministering to a church. The couple was showered with gifts from friends and relatives in Spain, Germany and America. A "money tree" was sent from the groom's home church, Woodland United Methodist Church in Albertson. The bride is a missionary, having served with OM (Operation Mobilization), an international mission, at their London headquarters and she has worked as a home missionary, doing Bible studies with children in Sevilla. She is an artist, illustrating Christian books for children. The groom is a graduate of East Duplin High School and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. While a student at the university, he studied two years with the "Year-at-Sevilla" program at the University of Sevilla in Spain. For five years he has worked closely with TEAM (The Evangelical Alliance Mission of Wheaton, Illinois) missionaries in Sevilla, in church founding, Bible studies, and music. He has also worked in Germany and Morocco.

Elwell-Fulcher United In Marriage

Miss Malanie Lee Fulcher and Mr. Richard Arthur Elwell were united in marriage at four o'clock, April 24 at the First Presbyterian Church in Boone by the Reverend David Long.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Douglas A. Clark of Kenansville and Dr. Thomas O. Fulcher of Statesville, formerly of Kinston.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Elwell of Coventry, Connecticut.

The vocalist was Miss Kim Clark of Winston-Salem.

The church was decorated with ivory candles, greenery and baskets of spring flowers.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory sheer organza featuring a Queen Anne neckline of silk venise lace and bishop sleeves. The designer look was accented with a straight sleeve inside the full sleeve trimmed with the same venise lace and finished by a wide cuff. The empire line skirt of whispering chiffon fell into a chapel train. The bridal veil was a waltz-length mantilla of pure silk illusion edged with matching lace. The bride carried an arm bouquet of pink and sonia roses, babies'-breath and violets. On her little finger she wore an antique ring, a gift from her great grandmother, Mrs. Reta Adkins of Huntington, West Virginia.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Andrea Fulcher of Raleigh. Bridesmaids were her cousin, Miss Sheri Hodge of Huntington, W.Va., Mrs. Jane J. Barnette of Greensboro, and Mrs. Jane M. Rex of Boone. They were attired alike in waltz-length ivory gowns edged in lace with a matching sash. Each carried a single sonia rose and wore in their hair a sprig of babies'-breath.

The bride's cousins, Christen and Craig Williams of Raleigh, served as flower girl and ring bearer. The flower girl's dress was of lilac batiste and was trimmed in lace. She carried a basket of rose petals and violets. The ring bearer was attired like the ushers in an ivory tux and wore a boutonniere of violets.

The best man was Mr. Joseph F. Sansone of Coventry, Connecticut. Ushers were John DeFrino of Clinton, Connecticut, and his brothers, William Elwell of New Orleans, David Elwell of Boston, Mass., and Robert Elwell of Willimantic, Conn., and the bride's brother, Thomas Fulcher Jr. of Wrightsville Beach.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Hawshaw of Huntington, W.Va., and Mr. and Mrs. William W. Fulcher of Bedford, Va., formerly of Huntington, W.Va. After the ceremony, a reception was held in the Center for Continuing Education at Appalachian State University. The bridal table was decorated with baskets of spring flowers and the tiered ivory cake was sprinkled with violets.

After a brief honeymoon in the North Carolina mountains, the couple will make their home in Boone.

The bride and groom both are graduates of Appalachian State University. The bride formerly served as legislative secretary to her step-father, Representative Douglas A. Clark (D-Duplin). She is now elections supervisor for the Watauga County Board of Elections. The groom is assistant manager of Pro Am Sporting Goods in the Boone Mall.

The bride's mother is an advertising consultant with a Wilmington radio station. Her father is Dean of Mitchell Community College at Statesville.

Amy Lynette Harper of Deep Run and John David Johnson of Kinston were united in marriage at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 11 in the Deep Run Free Will Baptist Church in Deep Run. The Revs. Melvin K. Everington of Kinston and Adrain Grubbs of Deep Run officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and was escorted to the altar by her father. She is the daughter of Mrs. Isabelle Harper of Deep Run, and William B. Harper of Kinston.

The groom is the son of Ms. Frances Sutton, and Roger Johnson Jr., both of Kinston.

The bride wore a formal gown of white organza, outlined in re-embroidered rose point chantilly lace beaded with pearls. The gown featured a Queen Anne neckline and a semi-natural A-line waist.

The lantern sleeves were accented with fitted cuffs of deep rose point chantilly lace and beaded pearls. The skirt featured a crystal panel of pleats in front which extended into a cathedral train edged with a double row of matching lace and beaded pearls.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was edged in re-embroidered rose point chantilly lace and beaded pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink silk roses with a pink throated orchid center accented with baby's breath, greenery, and white and pink bridal ribbons.

Attendants Mrs. Joyce Smith of Deep Run was the matron of honor. Misses Rhonda Deaver and Nonie Steinmetz, both of Kinston, served as maids of honor. Bridesmaids were Ms. Norma Wiggins of Snow Hill, and Ms. Melanie White of Kinston.

Miss Tonya Williams of Beulaville was the flowergirl. The groom chose his father to serve as best man. Ushers were D. R. Hill Jr., Eric Johnson and Roddy Garris, all of Kinston; Tommy Harper of Deep Run; and Joe Wiggins of Snow Hill.

Pianist Marilyn Hrotz accompanied vocalist Carol Johnson of Kinston. Ms. Clara S. Barwick of Deep Run directed the wedding, and Rhonda and Robin Harper, both of Kinston, presided at the register.

The bride is a 1978 graduate of South Lenoir High School, and a 1980 graduate of Lenoir Community College. She is presently employed by East Federal Savings and Loan in Kinston.

The groom attended North Lenoir High School, and is presently employed by Food Town Grocery in Kinston.

After a wedding trip to the beach, the couple will reside at Kinston Rt. 8.
