

Tilton - Kennedy Speak Vows

Teresa Ruth Tilton of Goldsboro and Walter Gerald Kennedy of Deep Run were united in marriage at 5 p.m. Saturday, April 17 in the Pikes Crossroad Pentecostal Holiness Church. The Rev. Gary Strickland of Pikeville officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and was escorted to the altar by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tilton of Goldsboro.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Kennedy of Deep Run.

The bride wore an ivory floor length gown with a chapel train of chiffon and beaded silk venise lace over taffeta.

The fitted bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline and full length chiffon puff sleeves. Silk venise lace motifs etched with seed pearls lavishly adorned the bodice, outlined the neckline and illusion yoke, and cuffed the puff sleeves which were fastened with bridal buttons.

The full length chiffon skirt extended into a chapel train. Silk venise lace motifs etched with seed pearls applied the skirt. Scalloped venise lace encircled the hemline of the gown.

The bride chose an ivory chapel mantilla of bridal illusion bordered with silk venise lace and was accented with lace motifs flowing from a venise lace caplet accented with seed pearls for her headpiece. She carried a bouquet of daisies and baby's breath centered with an orchid attached to a white Bible.

Attendants
Mrs. Teresa Beasley of Goldsboro was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Ms. Mary Ann Archie of Greenville; Ms. Jan Carroll of Manning, S. C.; Ms. Donna Jones of Wake Forest; Ms. Tammy Kennedy of Albertson; Ms. Rhonda Miller of Greenville; Ms. Lee Anne Pittard of Lumberton; and Ms. Brenda Raynor of Newton Grove.

Miss Michelle Hollowell of Goldsboro was the flowergirl.

The groom chose his father to serve as best man. Ushers were Marty Harper of Deep Run; Dexter Hill of Deep Run; Waylon Humphrey of Chapel Hill; Billy Ray Kennedy of Albertson; Gary Kennedy of New Orleans, La.; Ken Tilton of Goldsboro; and Clint White of Alvin, Texas.

Michael Raynor of Newton Grove was the ringbearer.

Music was provided by Patricia Davis, organist, and Donald Deans, guitarist. Mr. and Mrs. Marty Gurganus were the vocalists.

Ms. Elizabeth Hood directed the wedding, and Ms. Jeanette Kennedy presided at the register.

The bride is a graduate of Southern Wayne High School and East Carolina University with a B. S. degree in therapeutic recreation. She is presently employed by Cherry Hospital in Goldsboro.

The groom is a graduate of South Lenoir High School and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a B. S. degree in chemistry. He is presently employed by the Kinston Clinic Pharmacy.

After a wedding trip to unannounced points, the couple will reside in Goldsboro.

Receptions
A reception was given by the parents of the bride immediately following the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. James Hollowell of Goldsboro, and goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Griffin of Deep Run.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the parents of the groom on the eve of the wedding in the Pikes Crossroads Church fellowship hall.

On April 10, a bridesmaids luncheon was given by Mrs. Lee Pittard and Miss Lee Anne Pittard at the Goldsboro Country Club.

On April 3, Miss Rhonda Miller, Miss Donna Jones, and Miss Mary Ann Archie entertained the couple at the home of Ms. Miller.

On March 27, a miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. Billie Kennedy and Mrs. Ethel Williams at the home of Mrs. Williams.

On March 22, a lingerie shower was given by Mrs. Becky Potter, Mrs. Margaret Hollowell, and Mrs. Frances McFatter in the home of Mrs. Hollowell.

On March 20, Miss Rhonda Harper and Miss Denise Harper entertained the couple in their home.

On March 20, a miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. Christine Brown, Mrs. Teresa Beasley, Mrs. Jane Lee, and Mrs. Jan Carroll at the home of Mrs. Brown.
